"remain at par the world over." If the ex-governor used this innguage, and there is reason to believe he did, he is certainly one of the most unscrupu lous demagogues who ever disgraced American politics. He knows that in every community in this country today there is a considerable element of the people-the "common" people, as Mr. Bryan delights to call them-who are earnestly seeking the truth about the issues of the campaign. He knows these people are not actuated by any party spirit; that the personality of any candidate is a matter of indifference to them, that, in short, these voters are influenced solely by the intensity of their personal concern that the election shall be carried on the side of the best interests of the country. Pennoyer knows that in their engerness to learn the truth, these people are thronging will save time and Doctor's Bills, and every political meeting, that they are have at hand an active, harmless and per- Fellows' building. giving the most respectful attention to fectly safe purgative, alterative and tonic. every decently appearing speaker who If you feel dull, debilitated, have frequent comes to their locality, and are receiv- headache, mouth tastes badly, poor appeing with almost childlike sincerity and tite and tongue coated, you are suffering trustfulness all information on the subjest which seems to come from respect- MONS LIVER REGULATOR will cure you. able authority.
