TO READERS.—The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria.

AROUND TOWN.

The "Astorian" hereby offers to donate One Hundred Dollars to St. Mary's Hospital, payable on demand to Father Dielman, whenever legal evidence is produced showing that any afternoon newspaper published in Astoria has printed, within the last ninety days, a single "special" or other kind of "telegraphic press report," received over the wires entering either of the telegraph offices in this city, from any point outside of Oregon.

Dr. W. L. Howard, Homoeopathist, 386 Commercial street.

Mrs. H. T. Crosby is absent in Portland on a short visit.

Mr. G. C. Fulton went to St. Helens on the Gatzert last night.

Mr. G. Teal has returned to Portland after a short visit in the city.

Mr. Waterhouse, of Butterfield, was up from the beach yesterday.

Gunter's, the only candies in the city. C. B. Smith, sole agent.

If you want drugs or druggists' sundries, go to Rogers, 429 Commercial street. He carries a full assortment in his line and sells at the lowest cash price. Call and examine goods and prices.

A. M. Armer, and Philip Jacobovich, San Francisco; W. Whelan, A. N. Smith, Geo. Adams and wife, John A. Riley and wife, Portland; James Williams, Oakland, Cal., registered at the Occident yesterday.

Mr. E. H. Philbrook, who has been in the employ of Messrs. J. O. Hanthorn & Co. for several months past, left last night on the steamer Gatzert to accept a position with Balfour, Guthrie & Co., at Portland.

On Bond street between 13th and 14th where extensive repairs are being made but not yet completed. It is reported that danger signals were hung out last night to warn teams away from the big hole still remaining in the street.

The steamer Lurline yesterday morning brought down nine head of cattle from up-river, for a local firm. By some strange oversight, however, when the cattle were delivered they numbered ten head. The consignee only paid freight on nine head.

Ducks, pheasants and other game fowl are coming into the local market in considerable quantities to the delight of the local epicures, some of whom have left standing orders for their favorite bird, that they may have periodical feasts while the supply lasts.

Last evening Professor Clark, of the Uppertown school, accompanied the remains of his infant daughter to Willamette valley, where she will be buried by the side of the other little one who died several years ago. The cause of death in this case was a combination of measles and whooping cough. Professor Clark's friends deeply sympathize with him and his wife in this, their second great bereavement.

Considerable complaint has been made by the parents of those children who have recently been removed from the Shively school to the Uppertown school. This action necessitates a long walk or ride on the part of the little ones who live in the central portion of the city. The present crowded condition of the Astoria schools indicates that the time is not far distant when additional accommodations will have to be provided.

Quiet, steady work is being done by Contractors Honeyman, DeHart & Co. along the line of road this side of Goble. Engineer Jamieson and President Curtis, of the construction company, are making another trip over the route investigating the progress of the work. It is anticipated that all the work possible to do during the winter will be accomplished so that when good weather comes in the spring the line can be rushed through to completion without much trouble.

Contractor Fastabend returned yesterday from Tillamook, having fished it to Seaside. He says the trip was a very rough one, and that he does not care about making it again. On the way he passed the surveying party who are laying out the line for Mr. Logan's proposed electric road between Seaside and Elk Creek. Mr. Fastabend says that business in the Lower Nehalem country is in good shape, and that sound money seems to be the prevailing sentiment there.

Carbons are the only permanent photos as well as the most artistic, and Snodgrass knows how to make them.

Plenty of air tight stoves in the market, but only one with hot air draught tube. The Queen, at Fisher Brothers' Price, $10.00.

The ladies of Astoria never had such chances offered before to get dress goods cheap as can now be had at the Low Price Store.

John and Herman Bunke, Walluski; D. Rieron, J. G. Pope, Andrew Olsen and Joseph Lynch, Nehalem, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. Montgomery's five houses on 5th street are receiving new roofs which are being constructed by the Astoria Asphalt and Roofing Co.

In the county clerk's office yesterday John Stoltz, a native of Sweden, declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

There will be a regular meeting of the McKinley Club at McKinley hall, tonight at the usual hour. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

No store in this city ever sold woolen underwear, stockings, cloaks and dress goods for so little money as the bargains now to be had at the Low Price Store.

The reported sale of the well known steamer Chilcat to the North Pacific Steamship Company, adds another boat to the opposition line if rumors are correct.

F. J. Schofield is an expert at flower and general landscape gardening, and offers his services for such work at a reasonable rate. Leave word at Astorian office.

Seaborg's new store building at Liwaco is rapidly nearing completion. The counters and fixtures are being put in place and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

Major F. D. Kuetzner, general auditor of the A. and C. R. R., left last evening for Portland where he will spend three or four days on business for his company.

The holes in the streets were yesterday repaired and patched up in several different places. Superintendent Holt seems to be determined to make it safe for pedestrians and teams to travel.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE

The Searchlight of Truth Turned on One of Bryan's Assertions.

Louisville Courier-Journal (Dem.) "Prosperity has never followed the gold standard."—W. J. Bryan's speech at Covington, Ky., October 2.

What are the facts? The total wealth of the United States was $30,068,319,567 in 1870. It was $50,027,091,197 in 1890. An increase of over 100 per cent under the gold standard.

The wealth per capita of the United States was $789 in 1870; it was $1,036 in 1890. An increase of 22 per cent under the gold standard.

Our foreign trade increased from 1873 to 1890 44 per cent under the gold standard. In the same time the trade of Great Britain increased only 22 per cent.

The coal production of the United States increased from 63,822,859 tons in 1880 to 140,832,729 tons in 1890, an increase of 121 per cent under ten years of gold standard.

The iron production of the United States increased from 2,741,832 tons in 1870 to 8,202,703 tons in 1890, an increase of 235 per cent under eleven years of gold standard.

The savings bank deposits of the United States increased from $48,874,758 in 1870, to $1,810,597,023 in 1890, an increase of about 230 per cent under the gold standard.

The number of depositors in the savings banks of the United States increased from 1,620,846 in 1870 to 4,875,519 in 1890, and their savings per capita increased in the same time from $14.25 to $25.58.

The public debt of the United States was $1,922,517,324 in 1880, or $38.33 per capita; in 1890 it was only $915,962,112, or $14.63 per capita—a reduction of more than 50 per cent in the total and of 61 per cent in the per capita indebtedness—under the gold standard.

The state debts of the United States amounted to $204,500,674, or $5.79 per capita, in 1880; in 1890 they amounted to $152,326,689, or only $3.50 per capita.

The net federal, state and county indebtedness in the United States was $2,326,349,024 in 1880, or $46.39 per capita; in 1890 it was $1,231,020,848, or $20.46 per capita—a reduction of 50 per cent.

Farm property, including lands, fences and buildings, were valued at $2,262,000,000 in 1870, and had increased to $12,273,000,000 in 1890.

Farmers owned $136,000,000 worth of implements and machinery in 1870, and $484,000,000 worth in 1890.

Farm live stock amounted to $1,525,000,000 in 1870, and to $2,268,000,000 in 1890.

Average of farm lands in 1870 was 407,735.041; in 1890, 623,219,519—an increase of over 50 per cent.

Building and loan association deposits were of little consequence in 1875; in 1892 they reached a total of $500,000,000, and in 1896 amounted to $750,000,000—all under the gold standard.

The exports from the United States have increased 134 per cent since 1872—under the gold standard.

Farm products—grain, cotton, tobacco, meat, live cattle, sheep and hogs—were exported in 1872 to the amount of $35,906,637; in 1892 $754,480,843 worth of these articles went abroad.

Freight rates on wheat from Chicago to New York have been reduced from 19.19 cents per bushel by lake and canal in 1873 to 4.31 cents in 1895; from 23.2 cents, all rail, in 1873, to 12.17 cents all rail, in 1895.

Average wages in manufacturing industries increased from $228 in 1870 to $484 in 1890, or 39 per cent. (See census reports.)

The purchasing power of wages at the same time increased from 1141 in 1870 to 1721 in 1890, taking 1860 as a basis of comparison at 100.

A one-horse plow that cost 4.4 bushels of wheat, or 19.1 bushels of corn, or 27 bushels of oats in 1873, could be bought in 1889 for 3.8 bushels of wheat, 8.5 bushels of corn, or 11.5 bushels of oats.

A binder that cost the farmer 27.7 bushels of wheat in 1873, could be bought for 18.4 bushels in 1889.

A one-horse cultivator that cost 6.3 bushels of wheat in 1873, could be bought for 4.7 bushels in 1889.

A two-horse plow that cost 17.6 bushels of wheat or 52.9 bushels of corn in 1873, could be bought in 1889 for 13.7 bushels of wheat or 31.2 bushels of corn.

INSTALLATION SERVICES.

The Rev. Henry Marcotte Now in Charge of the First Presbyterian Church.

One of the most impressive services ever witnessed in this city was that of the installation last evening at the Presbyterian Church of the Rev. Henry Marcotte.

At 7:30 o'clock the audience room of the church was crowded by members of the congregation and many interested friends. The services were opened by the singing of the Doxology and the invocation of blessing by the Rev. Thomas Boyd, D. D.

The Rev. Mr. Nook, of Warrenton, read the Scripture lesson for the evening, which was followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hollinger.

The Rev. Mr. John Morrison, of Calvary Presbyterian Church, Portland, delivered the installation sermon, using for his text the passage from St. Paul, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

The sermon was an eloquent one and pointed for the occasion. The speaker, in well chosen words, explained the meaning of the text and admirably fitted them to the event of the evening.

After an anthem by the choir, the Rev. Mr. Boyd propounded the constitutional questions to the new pastor, and to the members of the congregation present. The Rev. W. J. Arnold then in a few words betting the time and occasion, gave the charge to the pastor, and advised him as to the manner of teaching and taking care of the flock placed in his hands.

The Rev. W. O. Forbes, one of the oldest ministers in this presbytery, gave the charge to the people, from the text, "Like people, like priest." He urged the congregation to assist their pastor in his effort to lead them in the paths of faith and righteousness.

The services were closed by the offering of prayer by the Rev. Sylvanus Sayre, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, built many years ago on Clatsop Plains. The Rev. Mr. Marcotte pronounced the benediction, after which the people heartily greeted their new pastor, wishing him a long and successful career in his midst.

The music for the occasion was well rendered by the choir, which, under the leadership of Mrs. J. T. Ross, gave several fine selections, one being, "Lift Thine Eyes," a trio by Miss Holden and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ross.

Pure blood means good health. DeWitt's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, cures Eruptions, Eczema, Scrofula, and all diseases arising from impure blood. Charles Rogers.

OLD NUGGETS FROM MCKINLEY'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

The Republican party is not opposed to the use of silver money, and has done all it could for it consistent with safety.

Metallism cannot be secured by independent action on our part, nor by opening our mints to free silver, until international agreement is had it is the duty of the United States to maintain the gold standard.

The owner of the silver bullion would get the silver dollar; the people would get it only by their labor.

We now have more silver than gold. The mere declaration that the Democrats propose to inaugurate the free and unlimited coinage of silver is a menace to our financial and industrial institutions.

In addition to free silver we are asked to enter on an era of irredeemable paper currency. We are not a nation of clowns, and appeals to prejudice should be rebuked.

We must not be misled by phrases nor deluded by false theories. Free silver would not mean that silver dollars were to be freely had without cost or labor.

We have more silver in use than any country in the world except China or India.

Free silver would contract our currency and drive 500,000,000 gold dollars out of circulation.

What would keep the new silver dollars at par with gold? There would be no obligation on the government to do it; the simple truth is, we would be driven to a silver basis—to silver monometallism.
