Maximum temperature, 36 degrees. Minimum temperature, 45 degrees. Precipitation, none. Total precipitation from September 1st, 1896, to date, 4.57 inches. Deficiency of precipitation from September 1st, 1896, to date, 4.58 inches.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Portland, October 27.—For Western Oregon and Western Washington, probable rain, warmer.

TO READERS.—The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria. It is the only paper that presents its readers with a daily telegraphic report.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The "Daily Astorian" has more than twice as many readers as any other paper published in Astoria. It is therefore more than twice as valuable as an advertising medium.

AROUND TOWN.

The "Astorian" hereby offers to donate One Hundred Dollars to St. Mary's Hospital, payable on demand to Father Dielman, whenever legal evidence is produced showing that any afternoon newspaper published in Astoria has printed, within the last ninety days expiring prior to this offer, a single "special" or other kind of "telegraphic press report" received over the wires entering either of the telegraph offices in this city, from any point outside of Oregon.

Our Corner Anderson went to Portland yesterday on a business trip.

C. B. Smith's selection of choice candies are the finest put up in Astoria.

Mr. B. A. Seaborg has just returned from a business trip to San Francisco.

The first arrivals of fine cider were received by Ford & Stokes yesterday.

The new Estes-Conn building in East Astoria is assuming proportions rapidly.

Andrew B. Mortensen yesterday declared his intention of becoming a citizen.

Just take a look at C. B. Smith's famous Gunther candies. It will do you good.

Mr. H. F. L. Logan will leave for a trip to England about the 10th of November.

Mr. Zeigler, of Ford & Stokes, says that their fall sauerkraut is the best in the market.

Service at Grace Church will be omitted this morning as the rector is out of town for the day.

Dr. Howard's residence is at 325 Commercial street, over the "Spa." Night calls promptly attended.

Dr. T. L. Ball, dentist. Teeth extracted without pain. Price reasonable. No. 562 Commercial street.

Ford & Stokes have just received a quantity of pickle vinegar which they are offering at popular prices.

Mackintoshes are selling very rapidly at the Low Price Store since they made their big reduction in prices.

is news in the Astoria afternoon papers. None of these papers receives one line of outside news by telegraph.

Mr. W. H. Case, of St. Louis, a first-class operator and re-toucher, has associated himself with Snodgrass, the photographer.

It was said yesterday that a subscription would be circulated soon for the purpose of erecting a central market for the benefit of the farmer.

The most striking arguments used during the campaign were heard at Griffin & Reed's corner yesterday afternoon. Several were convinced.

It has been suggested that an excursion be run to the North beach on the day when Captain Burns' men will pull the Glenmorag into deep water.

Early yesterday morning a gang of twenty-four men under Captain Turnbull, took the steamer Ilwaco to commence operations on the Glenmorag.

The handsomest line of jackets and capes have just arrived at the Low Price store. They will be sold at wholesale prices. Take advantage of this offer.

If the fine weather continues Captain Burns is confident that they can complete all arrangements for moving the Glenmorag off the beach at the next high tide.

F. J. Schofield is an expert at flower and general landscape gardening, and offers his services for such work at a reasonable rate. Leave word at Astorian office.

White Collar Line, $1.00 to Portland and return Friday night or Saturday morning this week. Tickets good returning Saturday and Sunday night.

C. W. Stone, agent.

Purchasers of dress goods and woolen underwear met with pleasant surprises at the big reductions that are going on at present at the Cohen Low Price Store, 491 Bond street.

If you want drugs or druggists' sundries, go to Rogers, 459 Commercial street. He carries a full assortment in his line and sells at the lowest cash prices. Call and examine goods and prices.

The teams of H. F. Prael & Co. were yesterday busily engaged in loading the immense iron chains onto a barge for transportation to North Beach, where they will be used in the work of floating the Glenmorag.

The big band saw at the Clatsop Mill is doing good work turning out thousands of feet of lumber every day. The boom is full of large logs and some fine specimens of clear timber are being handled by the mill just now.

The new Ford & Stokes hall on East Franklin will soon be ready for occupancy. The room is a very large and handsome one, with splendid acoustic properties. Offices, cloakrooms and dressing rooms occupy the north end.

Mr. S. Maddock, who is now associated with Mr. H. F. L. Logan, at Seaside, says the street has been opened from the railroad track to the sawmill, and that they will soon have facilities for handling lumber from the mill to the station.

On the 26th of November the ladies of St. Agnes' Guild, Grace Church, will give an afternoon tea at the residence of Mrs. Page for the older people, and in the evening an entertainment for the young folks. Both promise to be interesting society events.

As the election approaches local, state and national Bryanite managers are becoming more desperate and unscrupulous. One of their commonest games of deception is the invention and promulgation of false intelligence respecting campaign developments.

At the Hotel Flavel in the main assembly room, a day or two since, was hung a handsome crayon portrait of Captain Flavel. The picture was executed in Boston under the personal supervision of Mr. S. H. Brown Jr., and is the best production that money can buy.

Eight hundred orders for portraits were sent from this city to Chicago this summer, all of which should have been made at home. Snodgrass would like to have the patrons of Cheap John agents bring their portraits in and compare them with the work he is doing. When all others fail, try him.

Hon. Robert G. Smith, of Grant's Pass, will address a mass meeting of citizens under the auspices of the Upper Astoria and Goble McKinley Clubs on Friday evening, and will also speak at Olney on Saturday evening. A special invitation is extended to the ladies and non-members of McKinley Clubs.

Captain Carruthers yesterday afternoon received from Shoalwater Bay a small shell picked up on the beach to which were clustered about six small oysters. The form of the little shell fish was perfect, and the specimen was one of the best illustrations of the manner in which these fish attach themselves to objects ever shown in this city.

Remember, voters of Astoria, not one word of genuine election or other telegraphic news appears in the afternoon papers of this city. All such news printed by them is either deliberately concocted by some one connected with these papers, or cribbed from the Astorian and the Portland papers and altered with the design to hoodwink unobservant people.

The O. R. and N. Co. has made a rate of $1.00 Astoria to Portland and return for all those wishing to attend the Republican parade and celebration at Portland Saturday, October 21st. Tickets good going Friday night and Saturday morning and for return until Sunday night. Tickets good on R. R. Thompson, Bally Gatzert, T. J. Potter and Telephone.

Complaint was made yesterday by teachers of the Uppertown school, and residents of that vicinity that cows are allowed to run at large upon the main streets and in the immediate neighborhood of the school. Many children have been frightened by the animals, which have proved a source of annoyance to everybody in the neighborhood. The officers might well look after this matter.

VOTERS OF CLATSOP COUNTY! Not one line of telegraphic news is printed in any afternoon paper published in Astoria. The articles in these papers day after day, purporting to be received by them from outside sources by telegraph, are either RANK FORgeries or dispatches stolen from the columns of the Astorian and Oregonian and garbled with the view to impose upon unsuspecting readers.

In the justice's court yesterday Mike Hansen, charged with adultery, was placed under bonds in the sum of $250 to appear for trial this afternoon. The complaint is sworn to by John Heasola, who alleges that Hansen has committed adultery with plaintiff's wife. The complaint sets forth that Mrs. Wyman and Mrs. Erickson will testify that defendant has been unduly intimate with Mrs. Heasola. The latter personage has left her husband.

Astoria newspaper readers, and voters especially, want to remember that no paper published in this city prints any telegraphic news but the Astorian. The articles which appear in other papers run under date lines from various sections of the country are not telegrams, but are either written by some person connected with these papers, or cut out of old outside papers and altered and mingled to suit the views and aid the political schemes of the men who run or control those papers.

It is reported that on Monday evening last while Messrs. Carroll and Jack Spencer were fishing in the main channel of the river near Point Ellice, in one of Messrs. boats, a large black whale became entangled in the net. For a while the monster struggled and floundered about, threatening every moment to swamp the boat, until the men were obliged to cut the net and let the whale go, taking with him thirty-three corks of good net which the men have since been obliged to renew.

The address delivered Monday night in the old school house, uptown, by Judge Stott, of Portland, was an eloquent plea for sound money and protection. He divided his attention between the tariff and money, and made the one special point that it was not more money that was needed but a chance to earn more money. He paid a glowing tribute to the sound money Democrats and said that they were patriots deserving of more credit than others. Two hundred ladies and gentlemen filled the hall and the McKinley quartet rendered some fine music.

Mr. Logan, of Olney, who was in the city yesterday, suggests that the city water commission might make many friends by erecting a watering trough on top of the hill at the reservoir. There are already on the ground a number of unused troughs which might be utilized for the purpose. Between Olney and the city there is no place where a farmer can water his team, and even in the city there is no public fountain or watering place, which compels the farmer to go to a livery stable, at expense, or let the animals suffer until they get home again. It would cost little or nothing to put a fountain on top of the hill, and it would be a move in the right direction.

The Seow bay depot will be finished today. The building is a handsome one, complete in every detail. It is built in a most substantial manner throughout, the interior finishing done in natural wood, with a dead finish. On the lower floor are the ladies' and gentlemen's waiting rooms with the ticket and telegraph office in the center. Commodious toilet rooms adjoin both waiting rooms and at the east end of the building are large baggage and express rooms. In the upper story are several well lighted rooms which can be used for offices or living apartments as the case may be in the front of the station is space for four or five tracks and beyond that the large steamer and freight wharves. Contractor Gorrie drove the piles and did all of the carpenter work, and Messrs. Andrews & Greenland have done all of the painting and finishing.

Guesses of the Different State Committee Chairmen Wired to Mr. Campau.

MR. BRYAN'S STUMPING TOUR

It is Thought Will Bring Him Victory to the Tune of 300 Electoral Votes—Oregon and Washington Claimed for the Boy Orator.

Chicago, October 27.—Chairman Campau, of the Democratic national committee, received today telegraphic reports from each state chairman in the Union giving estimates, based on the latest information as to how the different states would record their votes one week from Tuesday. This is the last formal report that will be made by the chairmen of the different state committees. Campau said:

"The Democratic national committee awaits the results of next week's election with serene confidence. William J. Bryan will be elected by the largest popular majority ever given any president in the past quarter of a century. He will have more than 300 votes in the electoral college. Reports from the Middle Western states show the effect of his wonderful campaigning tour through them. His majority will be largely increased by many thousands as the result of his great journey. Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, and Minnesota are absolutely safe and our chances of success in Ohio and Wisconsin are very flattering.

"These states will give their votes for him without the shadow of a doubt: Alabama, 11; California, 9; Florida, 4; Idaho, 3; Indiana, 15; Kansas, 10; Louisiana, 8; Michigan, 14; Mississippi, 9; Montana, 3; Nevada, 3; North Dakota, 3; South Carolina, 9; Tennessee, 12; Utah, 3; Washington, 4; Wyoming, 3; Arkansas, 5; Colorado, 4; Georgia, 13; Illinois, 24; Iowa, 13; Kentucky, 13; Maryland, 8; Minnesota, 9; Missouri, 17; Nebraska, 9; North Carolina, 11; Oregon, 4; South Dakota, 4; Texas, 15; Virginia, 3; West Virginia, 6; total, 282.

"In addition, our chances of success in these states are far better than those of the Republicans: Delaware, 3; Ohio, 23; Wisconsin, 12; total, 28."

Here is the way some of the chairmen of the state committees sized up the situation in telegrams to the Democratic national committee:

"Oregon is safe for Bryan at from 3000 to 5000. Republican claims are largely exaggerated. F. A. E. Starr, chairman."

"Washington will give Bryan at least 15,000 majority. V. H. Jones, chairman."

REED IN CALIFORNIA.

The Statesman from Maine Greeted by a Large Crowd in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, October 27.—The greatest event in the political history of Southern California was the demonstration today in honor of Thomas R. Reed, of Maine, who arrived shortly after noon. It was a political demonstration the like of which has never been seen in this city. It was a tremendous outpouring of patriotic people from all parts of Southern California, prepared to do honor to William McKinley, and Thomas R. Reed. While the streets were in a sloping and uninviting condition it did not seem to dampen the ardor of the thousands who had signified their intention of marching, nor of the thousands who lined the sidewalks to cheer the advocates of the gold standard in their march toward the park, where the statesman from Maine addressed 20,000 people.

After the cheering, which lasted several minutes, had subsided, Reed said in part:

"This crowd shows that the cause of righteousness has found a hold on the Pacific coast. We have been dallying for years with the silver question and after having a full, frank discussion of it, we are surprised to find how very little there is in it.

"What is money for? Simply to transfer goods and real estate from one person to another, and when you have enough the rest is a dead waste. I do not mean to say that I do not favor mining, but I do favor the industries of the United States. I do not believe it is to the interest of the mine owner to have free silver, which he would soon find out if he had it. I believe the price of silver would go down by free coinage, and I back up this belief by reference to American history and not to the conditions in foreign countries. They tell us the United States is so big it can set up anything, but we can't make water run up hill. With a depreciating currency, the standard of wages would be cut in two and what effect would it have on saving institutions? Whoever has a deposit there and reduces its value 50 per cent is not only fooling with his own, but with the money of others."

GREAT DAY AT CANTON.

Thousands of People Do Homage to the Sound Money Candidate.

Canton, Ohio, October 27.—There never was a more inspiring scene than that witnessed on the public square of Canton from 4 to 5 o'clock this afternoon. Thousands, including ladies from Norwalk, many of the visitors from Boston, West Virginia, and Maryland, and Cleveland, gathered in front of the handsome courthouse on the broad public square and sang patriotic melodies, interspersed with music by the bands, frequent cheers and the waving of flags, banners and campaign paraphernalia, with which the women's delegation was supplied. "America," "Yankee Doodle," and "The Star Spangled Banner," followed one another. Nor was "Dixie" or "Maryland, My Maryland," forgotten. Both were sung as lustily and patriotically as was "John Brown's Body," and "Marching Thro' Georgia." The affair was entirely impromptu and

His dealings have been very heavy for some time and as he has generally been on the right side of the market, he had a large following, the consequence being that wheat poured on the market at times in a perfect avalanche. The price continued to go downward during the last hour under heavy liquidation, December finally reaching 69¢. This was the turning point, and December had recovered to 64¢ cents at the close, though remaining active and nervous to the end.

SUICIDE OF OLE WILBERG.

Hanged Himself in East Astoria Early Yesterday Morning.

Ole Wilberg, a fisherman in the employ of J. O. Hanthorn & Co., committed suicide by hanging early yesterday morning. There is a mystery connected with the affair, in that no motive is known for Wilberg's rash act.

Wilberg was seen by his son about 5 o'clock Monday evening walking toward the city. He did not return home for dinner, but no anxiety was entertained for his safety. As the evening passed, however, and he did not put in an appearance, his son was sent in search of him, but although he visited all the places of resort in the city, found no trace of him.

About 6 o'clock yesterday morning the little daughter of Ole Veal, who lives in a house adjoining the Wilberg residence, on Thirty-sixth street, had occasion to visit the basement of the house. Day had hardly dawned, but in the darkness the little girl saw the body of a man hanging by a rope. She ran, screaming, to her father, who made an investigation. Hanging by a small rope, with the head but three feet from the ground, was the body of Wilberg. The body was warm when cut down.

Further investigation revealed the fact that Wilberg had slipped the noose over his head and deliberately fallen forward. The beam to which the rope was made fast was but a few inches higher than the man's head. At the time Wilberg could easily have regained his feet, which would tend to prove that he had a motive in taking his life. His suffering must have been great. What that motive could possibly have been is a mystery. His family was not in want, nor was there any probability of such a condition coming about. His domestic life was a happy one. He had not been drinking.

AN OFFENDING FEATURE.

Washington, October 27.—Senator Butler, chairman of the Populist national committee, before leaving here for Indiana, authorized the publication of a signed statement concerning Watson's letter of acceptance. He says he has received the letter, but has written to Watson, urging the advisability of making at least one important change in his letter. "If he authorizes this change I will give it out; otherwise he must take the responsibility of publishing it himself."
