G. T. Stewart, M. D., writes: "The purity of the air, and the eternal sunshine, fill one with wonder and delight.

Nature has accomplished so much that there remains but little for man to do. As to its possibilities as a health renort—here is the most perfect sunshine, with a temperature always pleasant, a perfectly dry soil, for rain is an unknown factor; pure cargen, dense atmosphere and pure water. What more can be desired? It is the place, above all others, for lung troubles, and a paradise for rhoumatics.
