

Misses', Youth's and Children's SCHOOL SHOES Ladies' and Gents' Autumn Footwear Rubbers, Rubber Boots, Etc. John Hahn & Co. 79 Commercial St.

The Webfoot Commission House has received a lot of fine Burbank potatoes. Now is the time to buy.

Dr. T. L. Hall, dentist, Teeth extracted without pain. Price reasonable. No. 562 Commercial street.

Professor Beggs' class for ladies and gentlemen meets this evening, and the children's class tomorrow afternoon.

We offer all our cast iron stoves at 10 per cent below cost. The latest eight stoves also on hand at 431 Bond street.

Rev. J. J. Walker has lost a small book containing half-fare permits. Will finder please leave at the Astorian office?

The entertainments last night were numerous—minstrel, prize fights, city council, fairs, bazaars—something for all classes.

Frank L. Hunter, special agent for the Northern Assurance Company, with headquarters at San Francisco, is visiting in the city.

It was reported yesterday afternoon that one of the workmen at Fort Stevens broke his arm and came up to the city for treatment.

The regular weekly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Reinecke parlors. A full attendance is desired.

Astorian are anxiously watching the extremely high tides this week. In the hope of seeing the Glenmorag floated off the sands of North beach.

LOOK OUT for fraudulent telegraphic news in the Astoria afternoon papers. None of these papers receives one line of outside news by telegraph.

Call and see the Queen air-tight heater at Howell & Ward's before buying; they can save you money both on the price of the stove and wood consumed.

It was rumored yesterday that another wedding, in which one of Ford & Stokes' employes is interested, will take place between Christmas and New Year.

Before purchasing, don't fail to see those celebrated air-tight stoves at Ford & Stokes'. They have them in a dozen different styles, and every possible size.

There is so much ice in the sloughs and along the edges of the river that Corey Brothers' men have been unable to do any work on the railroad for several days past.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ryrie will celebrate the tenth anniversary of their wedding. A scarce party will be given, but report did not say whether tinware would be received.

Pat O'Hara, of Warrenton, succeeded in bagging a large falcon the other day which was presented to Dr. Jay Tuttle. The bird is very game and from all appearances is true blue.

Don't forget that the Low Price Store has the only perfect fitting wrappers, the handsomest line of jackets and capes, and is selling them at wholesale prices. 451 Bond street.

The funeral of Mrs. Ossenberger will take place today, from the family residence, 276 Bond street. The interment will be at Greenwood cemetery. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

In the police court yesterday James Russell, aged 17, was fined $10 for begging. The fine was suspended on condition that the young man leave the city, which he gladly agreed to do.

The new double deck floor being put in Ford & Stokes' hall on Exchange street will not only make the room more comfortable in the winter, but will prevent the accumulation of dust from below.

A letter was received yesterday from New York, from Mr. Hammond, in which that gentleman stated that he would be in Astoria to look after certain business matters before the 10th of December.

Eastern oysters 50c per doz. In the shell, and 35c per dish any style; Shoal-water Bay oysters, raw or stewed, 20c per dish. The only restaurant which keeps good coffee—grinds its own berry. New Style Chop House.

Agent Lounsbury is using one of the old style clock lamps in his private office. It was hinted by one of the employees that it was formerly used to clean grain in the day time, and that it was fitter for that purpose than giving light.

"Con," formerly of the Bandbox barber shop, has purchased the Palace Baths and begs to announce that he will be pleased to see his friends at the new stand. The Palace has recently been refitted and is the best appointed tonorial parlor in the city.

Captain Pat Malady, who was in the city a few days since, will return Friday or Saturday to investigate the matter of establishing a codfish packing house in Astoria. The captain is an old hand at the business and is thoroughly convinced that Pacific cod can be cured at a profit.

S. H. Maddock, Seaside; R. A. Hawkins, C. Burch, Ilwaco; F. A. Weander, South Bend; A. C. Osborne, Chicago; H. Plover, San Francisco; H. T. Whitehouse, Boston; H. Miller, Cash-lamet; C. W. Mayer, Mayger's Landing; and C. H. Callender, Knappton, were at the Occident yesterday.

The Mahara Minstrel Company last night put up another good bill at Fishers', and made many friends. The musicians of the company are excellent and the specialty acts particularly good. While some of the jokes have been heard before, the entertainment on the whole was probably up to the average.

The Western Union Telegraph Company did not succeed in getting its

SEASONABLE GOODS!

Blankets... Of Oregon and California manufacture, in all colors and sizes, at bottom prices.

Comforts... In Eider Down and Carded Cotton, made of the very best material. Very cheap.

Warm Underwear We have the largest selection of Ladies' and Gents', Misses', Youth's and Children's Underwear to be found in this part of the country, and at reasonable prices.

C. H. COOPER

The Leading House of Astoria.

wires up yesterday, so no regular Associated Press report appears in this morning's issue.

A Little Chicago Girl Has a Playhouse Which Cost Over $3,000.

From the New York Times. A little girl out in Chicago who has a very rich and independent father is the owner of the most beautiful and complete doll house, probably that ever was built.

A novel feature of the doll fair, which has been planned for the benefit of the little ones, is a letter box into which the children may place any letter they may wish to send Santa Claus.

Yesterday the ice which has been for days obstructing navigation in the upper river, began to float past the city water front.

Word was received yesterday that the tug Traveller was on hand at North beach, ready for service in case the Glenmorag was pulled off the sands.

The Bazaar held yesterday afternoon and evening by the Ladies' Guild, of Grace Church, proved to be a most successful affair.

The Society Minerva held a large and enthusiastic meeting at their hall last night. A splendid program was rendered and the debate on the question, "Are lawyers detrimental to the people?"

The new Russian Imperial yacht Standard, in its final trial trip in the Kattagat, made an average speed of 21.18 knots an hour.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

NOTICE To the Sons of Hermann—All members of this order are requested to meet at their hall on Thursday, December 30 at 12:45 p. m.

The new Russian Imperial yacht Standard, in its final trial trip in the Kattagat, made an average speed of 21.18 knots an hour.

CASTORIA is the best for all ailments of the throat, chest and lungs.

Use Webfoot Corn Cure. No cure no pay. For sale at Estes-Conn Drug Store.

A Neat Dress Is what every lady wants. Miss Florence McMillen, Room 7, Maxwell Building, has already established a reputation for making nicely fitting garments.

ROSS HIGGIN & CO Grocers, : and : Butchers Astoria and Upper Astoria

Cedar Shingles BEASIDE LUMBER YARD, OFFICE 355 COMMERCIAL ST.

McKinley and Good Times!

Columbia Harbor Land Co. CORNER... BOND and ELEVENTH STS.

Remember that prices on these lots, which are the best situated on the west side of the bay, within a stone's throw of the Warrenton depot, and where 600 people are now living, will be advanced January 1, 1897.

Now Is Your Opportunity

Warrenton and Warrenton Park • LOTS At Special Prices

New Columbia Opera House

Dec. 10, 1896

THE CORINNE EXTRAVAGANZA CO.

NORTH PACIFIC Steamship Company's STEAMER CHILKAT.

Will be dispatched from Portland, Oregon on or about November 9, 1896, on the route from that point to the Coquille River, touching at all intermediate points as inducements offer, and will remain permanently on that route making regular trips.

SNAP A KODAK.

at any man coming out of our store and you'll get a portrait of a man brimming over with pleasant thoughts.

HUGHES & CO.

COLUMBIA IRON WORKS FOUNDRYMEN Blacksmiths, Machinists and Boiler Makers

Astoria and Columbia River Railroad TIME CARD.

Trains leave Seaside for Astoria at 7:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. daily. Trains leave Astoria for Flavel at 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. daily.

Fisher Brothers Sell ASTORIA

Ship Chandlery, Hardware, Iron & Steel, Coal, Groceries & Provisions, Flour & Mill Feed, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Loggers Supplies, Fairbank's Scales, Doors & Windows, Agricultural Implements, Wagons & Vehicles.

F. B. Morgan PASSENGER AGENT O. R. & N. Company

254 Washington St. Portland, Or.

"The Louvre" ASTORIA'S GORGEOUS ENTERTAINMENT HALL

3 FLOORS Fine Music, Games of All Kinds, Two Magnificent Bars. EVERYTHING FIRST-CLASS Good Order and Everybody's Rights STRICTLY OBSERVED.

The Palace Cafe

Is the Place for a Good Meal... Eastern Oysters in the shell or can Served to Order or Sold at Retail W. W. WHIPPLE THE PALACE

SIGNAL SERVICE REPORT. YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Maximum temperature, 52 degrees. Minimum temperature, 40 degrees. Precipitation, .89 inch.

Total precipitation from September 1st, 1896, to date, 25.37 inches.

TO READERS.—The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The "Daily Astorian" has more than twice as many readers as any other paper published in Astoria.

State of Oregon. County of Clatsop. We, the undersigned, local managers respectively of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, hereby certify that the "Daily Astorian" is the only paper published in Astoria which now receives, or at any time during our control of said offices has received, a telegraphic press report.

Manager W. E. T. Co. J. B. CLARK, Manager Postal Tel. Co.

AROUND TOWN.

How void of reason are our hopes and fears!

Just received—Lowrey's chocolates at The Spa.

Picnic hams 10c lb., the Pacific Commission Co.

Pianos for rent—Griffin & Reed, City Book Store.

The merchants report collections easy this month.

Mr. J. K. Stanley, Seaside, spent yesterday in the city.

Oregon apples one dollar per box. Pacific Commission Co.

Money to loan—Astoria Abstract, Title and Trust Co.

Fresh buckwheat and pancake flour. Pacific Commission Co.

James Fox, of Olney, called on his Astoria friends yesterday.

Mrs. C. F. Harder, Lewis and Clarke, visited the city yesterday.

The slucing down of the 10th street hill is progressing favorably.

Gunter's, the only candies in the city. C. B. Smith, sole agent.

Great reduction in syrups and maple syrup. Pacific Commission Co.

Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday afternoon—the Doll Sale.

The only genuine apple cider to be found, at Pacific Commission Co.

The Alice Blanchard arrived from San Francisco and way ports yesterday.

A heavy fog prevailed last night over the river and a large portion of the city.

See our window this afternoon, one door east of Ekstrom's. All dolls for sale.

Just take a look at C. B. Smith's famous Gunther candies. It will do you good.

The steamer Lurline has not missed a run, day or night, during the ice storm.

Ladies can save big money by purchasing dress goods at the Low Price Store.

The Telephone arrived down about 6:30 last night and laid over until this morning.

Mrs. H. T. Crosby will furnish the music for the Elk's Memorial service Sunday evening.

THREE SIZES OF QUEEN HEATERS now in stock and for sale only by Fisher Brothers.

The M. E. Church have secured the Flavel building for their bazaar for December 17 and 18.

Auditor Kuetner has returned from Portland. He says that business in that city is very dull.

A new line of hand-painted china just received at the Women's Exchange in the Library rooms.

More comfort and pleasure from tea—try Schilling's Best. No risk—if you don't like it, the grocer returns your money in full.