The letter signed "Observer," published in the Astorian several days ago, relating to the necessity for some action to avert the possibility of trouble over the fishing industry during the coming season, continues to attract much attention all over this section of the state. It will not do to neglect any precautions that can be taken to avoid a repetition of the disturbances and loss to the entire community which resulted from last year's disagreement between the fishermen and cannerymen. There is reason to believe the cannerymen would be willing to meet the fishermen half way in any fair solution of the probtem as to what the price of fish shall be, and it is probably also true that they will co-operate in any movement looking to the regulation of the whole fishing question so as to reserve the benefits of the industry as largely as possible for our own res-Sent by mail, per year 18.00 ident and tax-paying fishermen, and Sent by mall, per month 50 one in which many others besides Delivered by carrier, per month 45 the cannerymen and their immediate employes have an Interest, and all classes of business men cannot be too forward in their endeavors to forestall the dispute which it now seems must in-All communications intended for publi- evitably arise on the opening of another season, by bringing about an honorable Business communications of all kinds understanding between the packers and ishermen while the subject is susceptible of calm and rational consideration. OLD PROPLE

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky or other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50 cents per bottle at Chas. Rogers' Drug Store.
