ern Oregon, fair weather.

TO READERS.—The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria. It is the only paper that presents its readers with a daily telegraphic report.
TO ADVERTISERS.—The "Daily Astorian" has more than twice as many readers as any other paper published in Astoria.
It is therefore more than twice as valuable as an advertising medium.

State of Oregon, ss.
We, the undersigned, local managers respectively of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, hereby certify that the "Daily Astorian" is the only paper published in Astoria which now receives, or at any time during our control of said offices has received, a telegraphic press report.

AROUND TOWN.

No man ever distinguished himself who could not bear to be laughed at—Maria Edgeworth.

The peerless Corinne tonight.

Buy your groceries at 10th and Duane street.

Just received—Lowrey's chocolates, at The Spa.

"Standing room only" at the Columbia tonight.

The very smart girl now wears her hair in a net.

Election bets made yesterday are now due and payable.

Today is the last day on which to pay your water rates.

You can get the best potatoes at 10th and Duane street.

Don't forget the sale of fancy articles on December 11th.

Mr. W. J. Ingalls, of Lewis and Clarke, is in the city.

Mr. W. E. Tappan has gone on a fishing trip—not for salmon.

The Presbyterian sale on December 11th. Sale at 7 sharp.

Business yesterday was quiet—nearly all the people were attending to politics.

Mrs. E. J. Smith, who has been ill for some time past, is now convalescent.

Ladies can save big money by purchasing dress goods at the Low Price Store.

The sale of seats at the box office yesterday for Corinne was unprecedented.

Drop us a line if you can't get Schilling's Best of your like grocer, or if you don't like it and can't get your money back.

they can save you money both on the price of the stove and wood consumed.

C. B. Smith, the confectioner, has the finest selection of Christmas tree ornaments ever brought to this city, which are selling at less than half the usual price.

Before purchasing, don't fail to see those celebrated air-tight stoves at Ford & Stokes. They have them in a dozen different styles, and every possible size.

There will be tables of interest for all at the Presbyterian church December 11. Fancy articles—children's—candy, popcorn and peanuts. Refreshments; also cakes for sale.

Don't forget that the Low Price Store has the only perfect fitting wrappers, the handsomest line of jackets and coats, and is selling them at wholesale prices. 481 Bond street.

The charter of the city provides a way for the condemning of streets for public purposes, and there are those who believe that little time should be lost by the city in making connection between the city and the railroad depot.

Fred Sprague, engineer on the Wenona, yesterday while working about the engine, knocked his shoulder against one of the steam cocks, which was opened, badly scalding him. He was taken to the hospital and properly cared for.

Mr. Alex. Campbell spent yesterday at Seaside. He says there was no rain there during the day, but reports that at 2 o'clock yesterday morning the bridge over the Necanicum near the Seaside house was carried away by the freshet.

The condition of the road in Road District No. 1, between Milpison and Adair's, is now such as to render it impossible for teams. It is claimed by those living on the line of the road that no work was done at the proper time to prepare for the winter.

Yes, we have a few of those Burbank potatoes left, but at the prices and rate they are selling they will soon be gone. The Webfoot Commission House is selling other groceries at the same rate. For instance, a pound of Mocha, Java and Rio blended coffee for 25c.
We grind this while you wait.

J. W. Hume, Port Angeles; E. J.
Thompson, Joe M. Lewis, J. C. Barrett, San Francisco; Alfred Tucker, A. G.
Barker, Portland; C. S. Norris, Chicago;
A. C. Goerig, city; A. Bartholomew, Seaside; A. M. Gibson, Boston, and N.
H. Weber, Knappton, were guests of the Occident yesterday.

The Sisters of the Holy Names desire to announce that their bazaar will not be held on December 10, 11 and 12, as previously stated, but will open the 15th inst., at 8 o'clock p. m., at their convent on Sixteenth street and Franklin avenue, and continue the afternoons and evenings of the 16th and 17th. Refreshments will be served at all hours, and a fine musical program has been arranged for each evening.

Mr. J. A. Larsen, of the firm of Larsen & Co., who superintended the building of the big tunnel and the Eddy Point cut on the A. and C. R. R., has sold out his interest in the firm to his former partners, Messrs. Johnson and Anderson. The latter gentlemen have taken charge of the outfit, and carry on business in this territory. Mr.
Larsen, who is an old railroad man, will go to California in a few days to figure on a big tunnel near Los Angeles.

That Oregon is not the only country where it rains is shown by recent advices just received from Minnesota.
The statement says that in the latter part of November in a certain district there an inch and a half of rain fell in one day—an extraordinary record for that country—and that towards the close of the storm the weather set in cold, encasing everything in ice. Trees, shrubs, sides of houses, all glazened as if made of diamonds. The streets

Whatever else you do between now and Christmas, be sure and see our beautiful novelties in perfumes before buying any gifts for your friends.
Mind you, we do not say buy of us.
We merely say, see what we have before you buy, and then do as you choose about the place you purchase. Of course we have an idea about what the result will be after having examined our varied stock, but that need not in any way influence your choice.
We are showing our goods with the understanding that we wish no one to purchase unless we make it their best interest to do so. We have in stock an elegant line of novelty perfumes in cut glass bottles, all new styles, never put on the market before, and filled with the choicest perfumes made by Adolph Spieler and Solon Palmer, the best manufacturers of perfumes in America; also a full line of imported extracts by Lubin, Roger and Gallet, Ed.
Pinaud of Paris and the Crown Perfumery Company of London, who are known to be the leading perfumers of the world, and some of their entirely new ones in our stock are Meteorita, Orchida, Peau de Sprague, L. Iris Blanc, Bouquet des Amours, Vera Violetta, Violet de Parm, Parquinta Lily, Aurora Lily and QUEEN OF VIOLETS.
We also carry the largest line of toilet soaps of any house west of the Rocky Mountains (that is not a wholesale house). We have forty gross ranging in price from 40 cents per dozen to $1 a cake, 12 gross of tooth brushes at 5 cents to 50 cents each. Our 50c brushes generally sell for 75c. 24 dozen hair brushes at from 15c to 37c each; bath brushes from 50c to $2 each; also an endless variety of ladies brushes and shoe brushes, and hundreds of other articles too numerous to mention, and all at the lowest cash prices. We take pleasure in showing goods, whether you buy or not, knowing, after examining our stock and prices, you will call when in need of anything in our line.
