TODAY'S WEATHER.

Portland, December 11.—For Washington and Oregon, light rain or snow, cooler.

TO READERS.—The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria. It is the only paper that presents its readers with a daily telegraphic report.
TO ADVERTISERS.—The "Daily Astorian" has more than twice as many readers as any other paper published in Astoria.
It is therefore more than twice as valuable as an advertising medium.

State of Oregon,
County of Clatsop,
We, the undersigned, local managers respectively of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, hereby certify that the "Daily Astorian" is the only paper published in Astoria which now receives, or at any time during our control of said offices has received, a telegraphic press report.

County Clerk Dunbar, City Auditor Nelson and Justice Abernethy yesterday canvassed the vote for councilmen and found that Clinton had a majority of 39 votes, Trullinger 10, and Britz 5.

Mr. John Kopp had steam up in his new brewery yesterday and made a test of the new machinery. Everything worked satisfactorily, and he expects to have the machinery in full operation in a few days.

Mrs. Gus Iverson, whose husband died from heart disease Thursday night, is not rich in this world's goods, but the Red Men, of which order her husband was a member, were never known to desert the needy.

A well known housekeeper of experience says, "Don't buy your husband's cigars for Christmas. You are about as competent to select them as he would be in discriminating between a godst and a baquet.

Mr. Frank Surprenant is in from the Nehalem and will today prove up on his homestead claim, the north half of the northwest quarter and the west half of the northeast quarter of section 21, township 6 north, range 7 west.

Lyman Smith, an employee of the Box Factory, met with an accident yesterday afternoon while at work at the planing machine. His left arm was broken by being caught in the belting. Dr. Fulton dressed the wound.

Sheriff Hare yesterday received a genuine American eagle from Eastern Oregon. His royal highness was very much alive and very indignant at his captivity. He would not eat beefsteak.
The sheriff might as well have a white elephant on his hands.

Messrs. Holland, Johnson, Goodall and Wingate, together with a number of prominent Astorians, yesterday took a trip through Clatsop county on the Seashore railroad. The gentlemen are determined to learn all they can about the valuation of Clatsop county land.

Captain A. C. Fisher and Frank Cook have gone on a hunting trip for snipe up the river. They took the steamer Lurline and expect to be gone a number of days. They will visit a part of the country infested by snakes, and did not forget to take along the necessary antidote.

Judge A. A. Cleveland returned yesterday from Portland where he attended a reception given by the Red Men, Minnehaha Tribe, to the great chiefs of the Great Council of the Great Reservation of Oregon. The entertainment was a most enjoyable one and was largely attended.

Yes, we have a few of those Burbank potatoes left, but at the prices and rate they are selling they will soon be gone. The Webfoot Commission House is selling other groceries at the same rate. For instance: A pound of Mocha, Java and Rio blended coffee for 25c.
We grind this while you wait.

Auren A. Stafford, son of D. F. Stafford, a young man whose boyhood days were passed on Clatsop Plains, and who got his first start in education in District No. 3, graduated December 8 from the Cooper Medical Institute, San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Stafford will begin the practice of medicine at Alameda, Cal.

From reports made yesterday by County Clerk Dunbar, it appears that the cost of holding the June and December elections in this county was $1193.65 for the first, and $698.33 for the second, covering the expenses in twenty-two precincts, where 3143 votes were cast. The average cost per vote was sixty cents.

Mr. J. Q. Jamieson, engineer in charge of the A. and C. R. R. R., returned yesterday from a trip over the line. He says that the work on Honey-

Whatever else you do between now and Christmas, be sure and see our beautiful novelties in perfumes before buying any gifts for your friends.
Mind you, we do not say buy of us.
We merely say, see what we have before you buy, and then do as you choose about the place you purchase. Of course we have an idea about what the result will be after having examined our varied stock, but that need not in any way influence your choice.
We are showing our goods with the understanding that we wish no one to purchase unless we make it their best interest to do so. We have in stock an elegant line of novelty perfumes in cut glass bottles, all new styles, never put on the market before, and filled with the choicest perfumes made by Adolph Spieler and Solon Palmer, the best manufacturers of perfumes in America; also a full line of imported extracts by Lubin, Roger and Gallet, Ed.
Pinaud of Paris and the Crown Perfume Company of London, who are known to be the leading perfumers of the world, and some of their entirely new orders in our stock are Mescalita, Orchida, Peau de Sapraque, L. Iris Blanc, Bouquet des Amours, Vera Violetta, Violet de Parm, Parquinta Lilly, Aurora Lily and QUEEN OF VIOLETS.

We also carry the largest line of toilet soaps of any house west of the Rocky Mountains (that is not a wholesale house). We have forty gross ranging in price from 10 cents per dozen to $1 a cake, 12 gross of tooth brushes at from 5 cents to 30 cents each. Our hair brushes generally sell for 75c. 24 dozen hair brushes at from 15c to 25c each; bath brushes from 5c to 12c each; also an endless variety of lather brushes and show brushes, and hundreds of other articles too numerous to mention, and all at the lowest cash prices. We take pleasure in showing goods, whether you buy or not, knowing, after examining our stock and prices, you will call when in need of anything in our line.

man, Delfart & Co.'s division is progressing well. The force of men is gradually increasing, and doubtless they will succeed this winter in doing a large amount of tunnel and rock work.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the ladies of the Presbyterian church held a fair in the basement of the church building, for the sale of fancy work, linen, candy, cake, etc. The fair closed at 10 o'clock, and the receipts figured up $130, 150 of which goes to the new organ fund. The lady managers are certainly entitled to credit for their hard and successful work.

Speaking of the question of establishing a smelter in Astoria, Dr. Kinney said yesterday that the seaboard was the place of all places for such an enterprise. Astoria has every requisite necessary for success, with the advantage of cheap water rates from the mines in Alaska on the ore, as well as the advantage of flux produced at the factory door. The rich mines on the Washington and Idaho will furnish the ore for reduction.

The following have been appointed by Mayor Taylor's committee to act with them in the revision of the city charter: W. B. Adair, G. C. Flavel, T. O. Trullinger, D. H. Welch, E. A. Taylor, B. Van Dusen, C. S. Brown, J. O. Hanthorn, J. A. Fulton, S. Elmore, M. J. Kinney, C. W. Shively, J. Q. A. Bowley, W. W.
Parker, C. R. Thomson, J. P. Hamilton, and W. L. Robb. The first meeting will be held Friday afternoon in Judge Bowley's office. Suggestions as to revision of the charter will then be received in writing.

The brilliant little comedienne, Katie Putnam, who plays a two night's engagement here at the Columbia Theatre is quoted as the richest actress today.

Mans on application.

Thursday night, is reputed to be an intensely business-like woman. She lives at the famous Michigan summer resort, Horton Harbor, and to visit her when fully in the home element, is to get into an atmosphere so essentially practical that only had pleasant nature and sightliness hint at the remotest affiliation to anything dramatic.
She owns two big fruit farms at the great insular fruit town, given over to peaches and blackberries so plentiful and excellent that she derives a handsome income from this source alone.
When the late Emma Abbott saw the possibilities of Portland really and invested heavily, Katie Putnam did likewise, and pays today taxes on some 200 lots, which she holds in great expectation of Portland's future. Odd lots and parcels of land scattered from here to New Orleans, representing occasional "flash" investments, are also among her possessions, but they do not count. On her perfect home and the farms that pay, the owner expends most of her pains and energy, and the result is an existence pretty near ideal when taking a rest after her annual tours, which are usually protracted ones.

"In her stage work she finds a pleasure and an enervating tonic that benefits her active nervous temperament." Miss Putnam will appear in two beautiful plays written expressly for her—Monday night "The Old Line Kiln," and Tuesday night "Love Finds a Way," both of which tell beautiful stories and abound in attractive scenic effects.
