TO READERS: The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria. It is the only paper that presents its readers with a daily telegraphic report.

TO ADVERTISERS: The "Daily Astorian" has more than twice as many readers as any other paper published in Astoria. It is therefore more than twice as valuable as an advertising medium.

State of Oregon.
County of Clatsop, I—We, the undersigned, local managers respectively of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, hereby certify that the "Daily Astorian" is the only paper published in Astoria which now receives, or at any time during our control of said office has received, a telegraphic press report.

AROUND TOWN.

Signs—See Signs.

Want anything painted? See Swope.

Want anything decorated? See Swope.

Decorated fern jars at the Palace Jewelry Store.

The steamer Harrison sailed for Seattle yesterday.

Eckstrom has the only complete stock of jewelry in the city.

Have you any jewelry that needs repairing? Take it to Eckstrom's.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Rossau parlor this afternoon at 2:30.

World's Almanac for 1897 just received. Mailed to any address on receipt of $1. Griffin & Reed.

Captain Copeland, with the scow Vigilant, arrived yesterday and discharged 250 cords of wood from Goble.

We offer all our cast iron stoves at 10 per cent below cost. The latest airtight stoves also on hand at 41 Bond street.

Three furnished rooms, on ground floor, suitable for light housekeeping, and centrally located. 41 Exchange street.

Bargains in Laces at Dunbar's Clearance Sale.

Sheriff Hare was yesterday very busy attending to the wants of the circuit and county courts, both of which were in session.

The greatest sale of fine goods commences this week at Cooper's. This is the only reliable sale of the year where genuine reductions are made.

That 20 per cent reduction sale at Norman Wise's is proving a success. At no time have goods been sold at such prices as Wise is quoting.

Mrs. John H. Trullinger went to Portland last evening to attend at the bedside of her sister, Miss Annie Gilbert, who is reported to be very ill.

In the office of the county clerk yesterday A. Simonsen and Oscar Simonsen declared their intention of becoming citizens of the United States.

Call and see the Queen air-tight heater at Howell & Ward's before buying; they can save you money both on the price of the stove and wood consumed.

Before purchasing, don't fail to see those celebrated air-tight stoves of Ford & Stokes. They have them in a

You can expect too much of Schilling's Best—it is only tea.

But your grocer gives your money back if you don't like it.

In packages, full weight.

The famous Friedlander Brothers are now at the Louvre, appearing nightly.
They are two of the best specialists on the coast. Go and hear them. If you don't, you will miss a rare treat.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Martha Powell, widow of the late Henry Powell, will be held at the Presbyterian church at 1 o'clock p. m. tomorrow. Interment at Greenwood.

The "Old Corner" saloon will be reopened on Saturday, the 10 instant, by Cartier Bros. A bar lunch will be served, and all customers will be offered soups made without.

Clearance Sale prices on Corsets as Bustiers.

General Land Agent W. G. Gosdin returned yesterday from a trip over the line, and reports that the people at Rainier are one and all very happy over the prospect of the soon completion of the railroad.

You will never be able to buy a good watch or clock or anything in the line of jewelry or silverware for so little money as you can now at the Palace Jewelry Store, as the entire stock must be sold by January 15.

Deputy County Clerk H. G. Smith returned yesterday from Portland. He says that general business is quiet in the metropolis, but that politics are getting hot. Around the hotel corridors the usual amount of buttonholing is now in progress.

Owing to manufacturers' restrictions the following goods are exempt from special sale prices advertised at C. H.
Cooper's: Royal W. C. C. corsets; Con-temper kid gloves; O. N. T. cotton and bedding; spoon silk; E. and W. cutlery and cutters; rubber goods and oil cloth- ing.

Word was received yesterday that the Rich Miles bar of the Snake river has been opened by miners and that rich results have been secured from the hydraulic operations. Placer mining in Oregon is rapidly coming to the front and the state is bound to take its place among the gold producing districts of the continent.

The entertainment to be given by the Columbia Marine Band promises to be something out of the ordinary. Among other celebrities, who will take part in the entertainment, are Al. Frith, Mona LoCompt, and William Shaw. The first part of the entertainment will consist of one of the best minstrel performances ever put upon the boards at Astoria.

Mr. Eugene Sherry, manager of the Wells-Fargo Express Co., with offices in Portland, was in the city yesterday and closed an agreement with President T. H. Curtis of the Northwest Construction Co., by the terms of which the Wells-Fargo Express Company will handle the express business on the A. and C. R. R. R. Evidence the railroad company is preparing for the opening of business at the earliest possible date.

He will buy an all steel hand-embroidered handkerchief at Dunbar's Clearance Sale.

Auditor Nelson yesterday had a strange visitor. About 2 o'clock a regular was heard at the outer door, and in response to an invitation to come in, a small dog entered and marched up to the counter for his new home. He evidently knew that his tag must pre-cure him before the 10th, or an additional percentage would be added to the expense. The same dog last year made a similar application. His master ought to give him a leather medal.

The Fort Canby and Astoria football team will meet once again to decide the question of supremacy. The match will be played at Fort Canby tomorrow afternoon. The steamer will leave this city with the local team and its friends at about 12 o'clock m. The soldiers will not be handicapped by the water this time as they claimed was the case at the last meeting, but will play on their own ground. The Canby field is the best to be found anywhere in this vicinity for contests of this nature. The boys from the fort promise to show the true metal of the soldier in the attempt to snatch victory from what has thus far been defeat, and the Astorians think they have a surprise or two of their own which will be disclosed at the game.
