If congress allows a $40,000,000 German syndicate to slip into this country and purchase and operate the Union Pacific road under mortgage sale because of its refusal to pass the funding bill, it will be a reflection upon our national good sense and patriotism. One good result, however, from the contingency of foreign dominion over this great railroad system might be to arouse in the people of this coast a better sense of gratitude and appreciation for the American genius which has given and so far maintained for them, in the opinion of competent critics, a commercial convenience more than a century ahead of their actual needs and the development of their section.

It is to be hoped that Japan will call the United States government to account for the outrage inflicted on some of her subjects in uncivilized California yesterday. It is high time public sentiment in this country was aroused to the fact that California is rapidly becoming in certain respects one of the most disreputable and discreditable induced to do any manual labor.
