Information has just been received that a warrant was sworn out Thursday by Mr. Bender, of Knappa, against James Goulter, a former waiter at Jeff's restaurant, on a charge of seducequally as proud of the new quarters ling his daughter. It seems that Bender came down from Knappa in the afternoon of Thursday and had a talk with Goulter, but getting no satisfaction, went to the city attorney and swore our a warrant, and asked for two policemen. Officers Sinnott and Oberg were detailed. During this time Gueiter, it is claimed, made his escape by chartering the steamer Eclipse and going up the river. The Eclipse was only gone a short time from the city, and on her return reported that she had been to Skamokawa. Bender was then given the warrant and left on the Friday evening boat to search for his man. No report has yet been received from him, and the result of his mission
