The steamer Florida left up for Portland yesterday. The Alice Blanchard is loading lumber at the Clatsop Mill.

The schooner Garfield arrived in yesterday and will load lumber at Knappton. The Hutton Hall, which left Portland at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, is expected to arrive down today.

The steamer Chikita arrived in yesterday from Eureka and way ports. She had a large passenger list and a full cargo of freight. The steamer Amaraopora is en route to the Sound. James Ward, of Baudiers, Ward & Co., agents for the ship, said yesterday that the steamer will go on the berth for Central America again, and will not doubt continue on the run as long as it proves a profitable one.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company's Queen is now, indeed, the queen of the coast. For no more splendid craft goes in and out of the Golden Gate, says the San Francisco Call.

The handsome British ship Annie Thomas, the most recent of the famous Thomas line, dropped anchor in the stream yesterday, after completing her maiden voyage around the Horn from Liverpool in the excellent time of 134 days.

She is a modern three-masted ship of 1763 tons, was built at Glasgow for William Thomas of Liverpool, and is the thirtieth ship of the fleet owned by him.

THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN

Established 1873

As an advertising medium the Weekly Astorian is unsurpassed by any paper in the State outside of Portland. Thirty-three hundred copies are mailed each week to every home in the territory, both in Oregon and Washington, tributary to the City of Astoria.

Advertisers Who Wish to Reach the Country People should call to their aid the columns of the Weekly Astorian. There are several reasons why the Weekly Astorian's circulation is so large. One is that its columns contain more reading matter than any other paper in Oregon excepting a Portland publication.

The News of the World foreign, interstate and local, is published in its columns. It is absolutely reliable; hence its popularity. The Weekly Astorian contains 56 columns of reading matter every week. Just think! All the news of the world for $2 a year. If you are not a subscriber to this great paper you should send in your name at once.
