Everyone is familier with the story of the verse quoted and the succeeding ones of the chapter, as well as the account in Luke; "What have we to ize its spectacular effects. do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God?" "If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine." "And the man out of whom the devils were departed" was found "sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind." Such scientists as Huxley pooh. pooh! the idea of such a miracle ever being performed and say that a righteous Lord would not destroy the life such writers is only equalled by their determined ignorance and unbelief.

(From the San Francisco Argonaut.) "In the heart of the great desert of the Colorado-which the Southern Pacific traverses-there is an oasis called Indio, which, in our opinion, is the sanitarium of the earth. We believe, from personal of the earth. We believe, from personal investigation, that for certain individuals there is no spot on this planet so favor

G. T. Stewart, M. D., writes: "The purity of the air, and the eternal sun-shine, fill one with wonder and delight. Naturé has accomplished so much that there remains but little for man to do. As to its possibilities as a health report—here is the most perfect sunshine, with a temperature always pléasant, a perfectly dry soil, for rain is an unknown factor; pure oxygen, dense atmosphere and pure water. What more can be desired? It is the place, above all others, for lung troubles, and a para dise for rheumatics. Considering the number of sufferers who have been cured. I have no hesitancy in recom mending this genial oasis as the haven of the afflicted."
