Astoria, Or., October 15, 1896.

The captain of the Machrahanish should have taken his ship to sea yesterday. There was no legal process served against his vessel, and it is a disgrace to American jurisprudence that he should be made to think so. It makes no difference what the custom has been in similar cases heretofore there is no warrant in the constitution or statutes of this country for any such procedure, and the sooner the British consul advises his countrymen to treat all such future efforts to impose upon them with the contempt they deserve, the better it will be for the reputation of this port and the standing and dignity of the American nation

"In the heart of the great desert of the Colorado-which the Southern Pacific traverses-there is an oasis called Indio, which, in our opinion, is the sanitarium of the earth. We believe, from personal investigation, that for certain individuals, there is no spot on this planet so favor-

> G. T. Stewart, M. D., writes: "The purity of the air, and the eternal sunshine, fill one with wonder and delight.
> Nature has accomplished so much that there remains but little for man to do. As to its possibilities as a health resort—here is the most perfect sunshine, with a temperature always pleasant, a perfectly dry soil, for rain is an unknown factor; pure oxygen, dense atmosphere and pure water. What more can be desired? It is the place, above all others, for lung troubles, and a paradise for rheumatics. Considering the number of sufferers who have been
