MORE VICTIMS OF THE COLUMBIA

Captain "Charlie" of the Jessie, Missing--Another Man Drowned.

THE SMALL BOAT ADRIFT

A Short Time After He Started from Shore for the Jessie--Harry Banquist the Second Victim.

A lone boat, drifting down stream yesterday afternoon with a strong ebb tide, without an occupant, suggested to those on the O. R. and N. dock that perhaps some one was in distress or had been foully dealt with. Investigation proved that in all probability Captain "Charlie" Swanson, of the schooner "Jessie," had been drowned while attempting to go aboard from his small boat yesterday afternoon.

Sunday afternoon the pilot schooner Jessie, in charge of Pilot Malcolm, with Captain Swanson and crew, came into the harbor and anchored just above the O. R. and N. dock in the main channel; it being the schooner San Jose's turn to go outside. Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock the crew were paid off in full, and the captain, according to custom, drew his wages and prepared to return on board, as he is the watchman of the vessel while she is in port. At 1 o'clock he went down to the dock, and started in one of the small boats of the Jessie for his vessel. As he passed the San Jose he hailed the captain and asked him to go out with him and look at his trim little ship. The San Jose skipper replied that he could not just then, to which Swanson answered that he would return in half an hour. That was the last heard of Capt. Swanson, as he was seen to go on towards the Jessie.

Only a few minutes after this the small white boat of the Jessie was seen floating down the main channel in a direct line with the Jessie, with no one in it. O. R. and N. Watchman Erickson at once covered his boat and went to capture the runaway. By hard work he succeeded in getting around the dock into the channel, and despite the swift ebb tide caught the painter of the Jessie's boat and towed her to the rear of the dock. There it was discovered that the runaway boat had no water in her, and that the rowlocks had been taken down and the oars placed on the seats--all ship-shape. An investigating force was at once organized, and towed the small boat back to the Jessie, where it was seen found that no captain, or watchman was aboard.

When seen last night Captain Caruthers, owner of the Jessie, said that he only knew his skipper and watchman by the name of "Charlie," and could only account for his disappearance upon the theory that after leaving the San Jose he proceeded to the Jessie, got alongside, took down his rowlocks, placed his oars inside, took the painter in his hand and in attempting to climb over the rail onto the deck of the Jessie lost his hold by the rolling of the boat in the gale and slipped into the swift current of the river.

"Charlie" Swanson was a well known and popular pilot, having lots of friends in Astoria. For years he was in the employ of the O. R. and N. Co. on the San Jose, and last night Agent Lounsbury said he was one of the most faithful and skillful men they had ever had. His friends are still hoping that there is some mistake and that he will yet be found somewhere ashore, but up to a late hour no further tidings had been received.

HARRY BANQUIST DROWNED.

The Columbia claimed two victims yesterday, the second being Harry Banquist, a fisherman in the employ of the Scandinavian cannery. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock last evening. From what could be learned last night, Banquist had been fishing on the river and was returning home. All went well till the boat arrived off the Scandinavian cannery, when, in attempting to come about, the boat was struck by a heavy squall. The boom swung around so quickly that Banquist had not time to get out of the way, and he was struck a terrific blow on the head, knocking him into the icy water. He was probably rendered unconscious and sank before assistance could reach him. The body has not been recovered. The weather was very rough all day yesterday and the unfortunate man chanced to be a victim. It could not be learned last night whether or not Banquist had a family. He was an old-time fisherman.

FREE COURSES OF STUDY BY CORRESPONDENCE.

To meet the needs of large numbers of people both old and young who live in remote sections of country or in places where the schools are not advanced, the University of Oregon has made arrangements to conduct a four years' course of study by correspondence. The plan is to make this course entirely free except a small charge which will cover the actual expenses. This charge will be in the form of a small sum for each lesson sent out. It will not exceed what is actually paid out for postage and clerical work in conducting the

DEMAND MADE FOR SURRENDER

Startling Turn of Affairs in the Turkish-Grecian Fight Over Crete.

THE PEOPLE WILD WITH JOY

Powers Have Landed Troops--Effort Will Be Made to Prevent Further Hostilities in Candia.

Athens, February 15 (Monday evening).--Colonel Vassos, aide de camp of the king of Greece, and commander of the Greek army corps at Platones, only an hour's distance from Candia, has issued a proclamation to the Cretan people. He has also demanded a surrender of the Turks.

GREECE'S POSITION.

Athens, February 15.--Replying to a collective note of the powers, the Greek government had declared that its intervention in affairs in Crete is justified by a desire to disarm the island. The Greek government announces that it is determined to continue to dispatch troops for the purpose of restoring order. Great excitement prevails here. The reserves of 187-78 have been called upon in order to rejoin their colors within forty-eight hours. Crowds continue to throng the room of the legislature chambers, anxious for news from Ierapetra, Candia and Crete, where the Christians are in the minority. Two steamers full of insurgents started for Crete at midnight.

PEOPLE WILD WITH JOY.

Candia, Crete, February 15.--The people here are wild with joy over the news of the landing of Greek troops on the island of Crete.

POWERS TO INTERFERE.

(Copyrighted, '97, by Associated Press.) Constantinople, February 15.--The opinion in official circles here is that the fleet of the powers will be instructed to occupy the island of Candia very shortly and that pressure will be brought to bear upon both Turkey and Greece in order that open war may be avoided. Should actual hostilities commence, Turkey would have little difficulty in sending an overwhelming force of troops into Thessaly. But the Turks fear that the island of Crete in any case is practically lost to the Ottoman Empire.

NORTHERN PACIFIC SALE.

Milwaukee, Wis., February 15.--The sale of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company's property and the transfer to the Northern Pacific Railway Company, the purchaser, has been fully completed. Judge Jenkins having entered an order in the United States court confirming the action of Master Carey in executing the deeds transferring the property and sanctioning a disposition of the proceeds as made by the master. This is the last act in the disposition of the property, but years will elapse before the court is done with the litigation.

SETTLERS DESTITUTE.

Juliaetta, Idaho, February 15.--Ranchers in today from the Nez Perce reservation report considerable destitution among the settlers. Many who went on the new lands with insufficient funds to tide them over to the first crop are subsisting entirely on potatoes and using burned barley for coffee. Neighbors are doing everything to tide them over till the spring, but seed wheat must be brought in to enable them to put in a crop.

THE MARKETS.

Liverpool, February 15.--Wheat, spot firm; demand poor; No. 2 red spring, 64d; No. 1 hard Manitoba; not quoted; No. 1 California, 68 6/8d.
Hops--At London, Pacific Coast, 43 1/2s; San Francisco, February 15.--Hops--#911c fair to choice, and 120/125c for fancy.
Portland, February 15.--Wheat--Walla Walla, 80 1/8c; Valley, 82 1/8c.

MAJOR MCKINLEY ILL.

Canton, Ohio, February 15.--Major McKinley was confined to his room tonight and his doctor advised him to see no visitors until tomorrow, or until he has recovered from his cold. This is the first time he has been inaccessible to callers since his return from Columbus over a year ago.

Mr. D. Slaughter was in from the Ne-dayhead yesterday, and brought thirteen head of cattle which will be purchased, it is said, by Ross, Higgins & Co. at 5 1/2 cents per pound, dressed.

APPROPRIATIONS BILL.

Carries An Enormous Amount--No Action on Arbitration Treaty.

Washington, February 15.--The coup arranged by the house leaders for the passage of the sundry civil appropriation bill, under suspension of the rules, was a complete success and this big appropriation bill, carrying $50,444,743, was passed without opposition or amendment just as it came from the committee. The main opposition was directed against the river and harbor items in the bill. The house made the best of the fact that today was suspension day, and quite a number of bills of more or less importance were passed, among them the senate bill appropriating $250,000 for closing the crevasse at Passo l'Outre, on the Mississippi; to equip the national guard with uniform Springfield rifles, 45 calibre; and the senate resolution to authorize the secretary of the navy to transport the contributions of the Pacific coast states to the famine sufferers in India.

The report in the contested election case of Benoit vs. Boatner, from Louisiana, confirming the latter's title to his seat, was unanimously adopted.

Owing to the brief time of this session yet remaining, extra night sessions will be held, beginning tonight, for consideration of private pension bills, of which many hundred still remain on the calendar.

ARBITRATION TREATY.

Washington, February 15.--The arbitration treaty was not pressed in the legislative session today and it may not be called up again until Thursday. Senator Sherman said today that he would press the treaty against all other legislation except the appropriation bill. He did not intend to have it stand in the way of the appropriation bill. Sherman will not make a motion to postpone the treaty, but it is understood that such a motion will be made. It is believed by many senators that the motion will prevail. It is the desire of Senator Sherman to have a vote, as he does not feel that he should consent to put the treaty over without testing the sense of the senate. No one now believes there is any hope of a direct vote on the treaty at this session.

THE ROBBER'S FRIEND.

Joined a Posse and Successfully Effectuated the Prisoner's Escape.

Kingman, Arizona, February 15.--Sheriffs Cameron and Ruffner, with a posse, were following the trail of the Rockout train robber to Grand Canon of the Colorado. When the trail got hot the intrepid sheriffs sent one man ahead, with Indian trappers, while they rested. The trappers found the robber asleep by a fire and, covering him with their guns, captured him. The white man's name with the trappers is Rogers, who told the Indians to gather wood to make coffee and to stack their guns. While the Indians were gathering wood the robber jumped for their guns, breaking one over a log, and threw one in the river and kept the two others, with all the ammunition, ordering the Indians to "git," which they lost no time in doing. It is supposed Rogers was a friend of the robber, as he is a cowboy of unsavory fame. The whole posse abandoned the chase and returned to the railroad.

IDAHO BANK FAILURE.

Salt Lake, Utah, February 15.--A special to the Tribune from Blackfoot, Idaho, says: The banking house of C. Bunting & Co. was placed in the hands of a receiver today. There have been heavy withdrawals from the bank of late and a receiver was appointed at the request of the principal owners of the bank for the protection of creditors. The liabilities are estimated at $200,000 and the assets will probably be sufficient to pay in full. The bank was one of the oldest institutions of the kind in the state.

STORM ON THE SOUND.

Tacoma, Wn., February 15.--One of the severest storms of the winter is prevailing in the Sound country. During part of last night and today a gale has blown from the southwest at a rate of forty-two miles per hour. During the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. one and a third inches of rain fell.

FIGHT TWENTY ROUNDS.

New York, February 15.--The Dixon-Downey fight was declared a draw in the twentieth round.

Steve Campbell, the Mill Creek logger, was in the city yesterday.

Mooney is the leading tailor, and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

TO REGULATE FISH TRAPS.

Washington Senate Appoints a Committee to Investigate the Matter.

Olympia, February 15.--The lower branch of the legislature convened this morning at 10 o'clock and the senate at 2 o'clock this afternoon, after a Sunday recess. The house passed several bills, none of which are very important, but devoted most of the day's session to routine matters. The senate
