YESTERDAY'S WEATHER. Maximum temperature, 53 degrees. Minimum temperature, 35 degrees. To date, 66.58 inches.

TODAY'S WEATHER. Fair weather. TO READERS.—The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The "Daily Astorian" has more than twice as many readers as any other paper published in Astoria.

State of Oregon, County of Clatsop, ss. We, the undersigned, local managers respectively of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, hereby certify that the "Daily Astorian" is the only paper published in Astoria which now receives, or at any time during our control of said offices has received, a telegraphic press report.

B. D. JOHNSON, Manager W. U. T. Co. J. K. CLARK, Manager Postal Tel. Co.

Linger not too long in the thought of thy shortcomings. "For one look at thyself, take fifty at God."

Now for a rush to the Cannon Beach gold fields.

Mr. J. TAGE, of Warrenton, was in the city yesterday.

Ekstrom has the only complete stock of jewelry in the city.

Miss Alice Munsell, graduate optician, office in Mansell building.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Mattson, Uniontown, Tuesday, a son.

Get your tickets for the Taylor sisters first thing this morning.

Have you any jewelry that needs repairing? Take it to Ekstrom's.

There was no business done in either the police or justice courts yesterday.

Lieut. and Mrs. C. A. Flagler, of Portland, visited Fort Stevens yesterday.

Mr. H. B. Parker returned from Portland yesterday considerably improved in health.

E. A. Seelye is in the city from Portland, looking after the interests of the steamer Telephone.

The Silver City bootblack stand at Seventh and Astor streets is now open from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.

Miss Munsell, the optician, can be found at her office in the Mansell building from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The most attractive and inexpensive light furniture of bamboo made to order at 818 Commercial street.

The only "Queen" heater for sale only by Fisher Brothers. Call and be convinced. Beware of imitations.

The Taylor sisters have made one of the hits of the season. The house promises to be packed this evening.

Wait for the "Husely," the best bicycle on earth for the least money. $40 and $50. F. L. Parker, agent.

Yesterday the Potter did not arrive until after 9 o'clock; hence the mail was several hours late in distribution.

Yesterday was ladies' day at the A. F. C. gymnasium and large numbers of the fair sex were in attendance.

There will be no session of the teachers' institute this afternoon, but instead all of the teachers will visit Fort Stevens.

Get prices at the Low Price Store for the latest in silk pongees, all shades, for waists and undershirts, 491 Bond street.

The devotees of terpsichore yesterday reported having had a jolly time at Miss Lewis' domino party Wednesday night.

It is understood that a new and commodious depot will be built by the railroad company at Seaside sometime this season.

Gangs of workmen are now busily engaged on the big cuts above Rainier and Mayner's and between Clifton and Westport. Work on the tunnels will begin soon, but as all of the tunnels are short ones, they can be pushed through in quick order.

Don't forget that each day work on the railroad is being pushed forward, and that before many months the grading will be entirely finished.

Little prices and big values in new spring checks and fancy black and colored dress goods just received at the Low Price Store, 491 Bond street.

A large scow of lumber from Clatsop was towed over to Warrenton yesterday afternoon. The lumber will be used in the construction of cottages.

Alex Olds went hunting yesterday at Smith's Point, but the only game he brought home was the recollection of a rabbit which got away from him.

The sessions of the teachers' institute held yesterday attracted many visitors from the general public and the exercises were extremely interesting.

The big pile driver will commence work again today in the Scow bay railroad yards, where the foundation work will be at once pushed to completion.

The driver for the Webfoot Commission Company is looking for another leap year to relieve him of the difficulty of choosing between half a dozen favors.

A private letter received yesterday stated that Mr. J. B. Copeland, lately of Astoria, is very sick in the hospital at Olympia, and that his family have also been ill.

The big pile driver at work at Scarborough Head yesterday dropped the big hammer overhead, which will necessitate the employment of a diver before the work can go forward.

The performance of the Taylor sisters tonight will be for the benefit of the Columbia marine band, and the entire proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of new uniforms for its members.

There were only a few who made any kind of a kick against the weather yesterday, and they were people of a gloomy nature who prefer a steady season of storm to an occasional gleam of sunshine.

The charming little Taylor sisters promise a grand surprise for all who attend their performance this evening. They intend to leave Astoria on their eastern tour with the praise and best wishes of all its citizens.

Capt. Hirsch, of the stranded Potrimpos, was over from North Beach yesterday and sent his boatswain and two apprentices back to Hamburg. The captain is now alone with the exception of a mate and cook.

In the county court yesterday came up the matter of the appointment of E. S. Ferguson as administrator of the estate of J. L. Moore in place of C. Bottom, who was recently appointed. Judge Gray took the matter under advisement.

Foreman Morrison, of the Western Union, and his force of men left last night for Portland, having finished the Flavel and Seaside lines, except that the wire on the Seaside line will not be strung until the new depot at Seaside is built.
