There are quite a number of people who are hoping that President-elect McKinley will take a backward step by undoing some of the work of his predecessor. When Cleveland took of- fice four years are only 43,000 places had been brought within the classified ser- vice; now the number is 87,107. This brings the new administration face to face with this problem. More men want- ing office than ever before, and a much smaller number of places wherewith	when a man is slowly wasting away with nervous weakness, the mental forebodings are ten times worse than the most severe pain. There is no let up to the mental suffering day or night. Steep is almost impossible, and under such a strain men are scarcely respon- sible for what they do. For years the writer rolled and tossed on the troubled sea of sexual weakness until it was a question whether he had not better take a dose of polson and thus end all his troubles. But providential inspira- tion came to his aid in the shape of a combination of medicines that not only completely restored the general health, but enlarged his weak, emactated parts to natural size and vigor, and he now declares that any man who will take the trouble to send his name and ad- dress may have the method of this wen- derful treatment free. Now when I say free I mean absolutely without cost, because I want every weakened man to yet the benefit of my experience. ' I am not a philanthropist, nor do I pose as an enthusiast, but there are thousands of men suffering the mental
