In the matter of the state taxes for 1896, the court having received a communication from the county treasurer as follows, to-wit:

Astoria, Ogn., April 9, 1897.

To the Hon. County Court, Clatsop County, Or.—Gentlemen: On mature deliberation and investigation and the advice of my bondsmen, I have decided to send the state taxes for 1896 to the state treasurer.

The law in the case is so plain that I can see no other course to pursue.

Very respectfully,
B. L. WARD,
County Treasurer.

And it appearing to the court from the above that the county treasurer and his bondsmen will not co-operate with the county court in its efforts to retain state taxes (which under the present conditions cannot be used by the state) and apply such money to the payment of Clatsop county outstanding indebtedness;

It is therefore ordered, that the county treasurer send the state treasurer only such money as has been received by him from the proceeds of the 4 mill state tax, and that he proceed at once to make a call for outstanding warrants to the full amount of the money in his hands applicable to the payment of county warrants, and that the sheriff serve a copy of this order upon the county treasurer.

Now comes C. W. Carnahan, assessor, and asks the court to provide him more office room, as his present office is very much cramped, and after consideration thereof, it was ordered that the county judge have the partition between the assessor's office and the jury room removed.

Ordered that Court do now adjourn sine die.

J. H. D. Gray, Judge.
C. PETERSON,
H. LEWIS,
Commissioners.

Attest: F. I. DUNBAR, County Clerk.

The big, hearty, healthy man is a continual irritation to his dyspeptic friend. Constipation is the root of nine-tenths of the sickness of men, and of a large proportion of the sickness of women. It can be cured easily, naturally and quickly. Nature is continually working a hard as she can to throw off impurities, and to force out poisonous refuse matter. When there is an impediment, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets set the wheels working again without any trouble. They assist nature in a gentle, healthful, efficient way. There is nothing violent about their action, and yet it is just as certain as if it were twice as violent. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill for the cure of constipation, headache and kindred derangements. Almost all druggists understand this, and are conscientious enough to tell you so. The druggist who tries to sell you a substitute is not a safe man from whom to buy medicine. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

The Boston Transcript says: "The Rev. Dr. Isaac Lansing has decided to resign the pastorate of Park street church, but the society must pay him $3,500 for so doing, in addition to $3,666 which he claims as his salary to March 31. Dr. Lansing does not look upon the amount of money as a bonus, for he declares that the action of the church committee has placed him in an unfavorable light before other societies, which is likely to affect his future prospects seriously."

The Rev. W. H. Weaver, pastor of the U. B. Church, Dillsburg, Pa., recognizes the value of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and does not hesitate to tell others about it.
