TO READERS.—The "Daily Astorian" contains twice as much reading matter as any other paper published in Astoria. It is the only paper that presents its readers with a daily telegraphic report.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The "Daily Astorian" has more than twice as many readers as any other paper published in Astoria. It is therefore more than twice as valuable as an advertising medium.

AROUND TOWN.

TUESDAY.

Poetry is the breath and finer spirit of all knowledge.—Wordsworth.
"Gypeline"—see Swope.
Did you see that "Nutmeg Match"?
Dailey's people are great mirth-makers.
"Gypeline"—the only durable wall finish.
Ekstrom has the only complete stock of jewelry in the city.
Pure ice cream and ice cream soda today at C. B. Smith's.
Lappets, the latest fad in waist fabrics, at Shanahan Bros.
Have you any jewelry that needs repairing? Take it to Ekstrom's.
Shirt waists, separate skirts, capes and belts. See Shanahan Bros.
Buy your sweet cream at the Bonbonniere; it will not fall to whip.
Fresh fruit and vegetables received every day at the Pacific Grocery Co.
New Bicycle Leggings arrived today. Columbia Shoe Co.
It is expected that the new engine and cars for the railroad will arrive today.
The funeral of the late Michael Blake was held Sunday from the Catholic church.

at once with an empty scoop for another load.

It was reported that a boat and net were stolen Sunday from the Seaside cannery, and that the boat was recovered, but no trace of the thieves was found.

The rendition in Knappton, Saturday night, by Astorians, of "A Peppering Situation" met with the greatest success, and the visitors were accorded a royal good time.

The bids were opened yesterday for the building of the bridge near Seaside by the Hermosa Park Association, but the contract will not be awarded for a day or two.

H. J. Carman Tacoma; Chas. M. Davis J. A. Cranston K. E. Vale, Portland; Irene Eastman, Salem, Ohio, were in the city yesterday, the guests of the Occident.

The Crescent Riding Academy is again open. Special arrangements made for private lessons. Wheels rented for 25 cents per hour. Academy, 506 Bond street.

In the justice court yesterday Carl Swan was fined $50, upon conviction of the offense of breaking into Matsui's house about a week ago. Geo. Wrothen was also fined $15 for assault.

De Witt Clinton was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Wickman, charged with the larceny of two milk cans. The case will be heard before Justice Abernethy this morning.

Tomorrow evening the Alert Hook & Ladder Company will give another one of their popular and delightful whist parties, to which all who have held previous invitations will be most welcome.

It is said that Clatsop county possesses as many acres especially adapted to raising Virginia peanuts, and it is suggested that there is big money in raising this crop. Another chance for the farmers.

In the probate court yesterday, upon final hearing, C. R. Thomson, administrator of the estate of Sarah G. Saxe, formerly of San Francisco, Cal., was discharged and his bondsmen exonerated.

American Bible Society Repository, Bibles and Testaments of all descriptions, and in all languages desired. Sold at cost price. Suitable for distribution, presents, etc. Repository at Griffin & Reed's, Astoria.

Ross, Higgins & Co. have taken the agency for the famous "Corvallis" flour. Three carloads arrived here for them yesterday and they will from now on furnish dealers with the same at mill prices in lots to suit.

Elaborate arrangements are being made for the grand invitation ball to be given by the Chrysanthemum Club on Friday, the 30th inst., at Ford & Stokes Hall, and a good time is anticipated by those who are to attend.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions will be held in Grace church Thursday afternoon (April 29) at 2:30 o'clock. It being the annual meeting the officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

Don't carry a lot of tools. Ride G. and J. tires for your comfort's sake. Then your hands are the only tools ever needed. Rambler bicycles are fitted with G. and J. tires. '97 wheels, $49; '96, $46. W. E. Warren, agent, 547 Commercial street.

W. F. Scheibe, the popular cigar manufacturer, is now established in his new quarters, 474 Commercial street, where he has a full line of domestic, Key West and imported cigars and the best brands of smoking tobaccos and smokers' articles. Give him a call.

The opening of Burleigh's new cash grocery, which is fitted strictly on the Eastern style and is, perhaps, the cleanest and neatest store in town, attracted much attention yesterday, particularly the handsome candy, cigar and canned goods displays.

Captain E. P. Parker spent yesterday out in the Walluski and reports that, with the exception of one or two bad places, the roads are in good condition. Twenty-five dollars would put the roads in such condition that buggies could be driven out into the country.

Ladies who enjoy an afternoon spin on their bicycles have asked the question why it is they cannot go out without being followed by some of the female denizens of the bowery tugged out in tight, who stop at every other corner and enter a saloon for drinks?

The new engine and fifteen box and flat cars for the railroad are lying at Goble on one of the Northern Pacific big transfer boats and will be towed down the river as soon as the weather permits. The stiff northwest wind yesterday prevented moving the big boat.

Those who like to drive, and own or rent teams, have intimated, it is said, a willingness to join the county court in putting the Nehalem road in passable condition for vehicles. A little work and probably not more than $50 would make a nice driveway for the summer.

The Astoria Box Company was the lowest bidder for the lumber for the Peoria Creek bridge, at $50 per M at the mill. The Clatsop Mill Company was the lowest bidder for the lumber for the Adair and Holbrook slough bridges, at $6.95 per M, delivered on truck at Sunnyside.

Contractor Pastabend is rushing the repair work on Bond street, which will soon be completed, and when the job is done it will be a fine piece of work. Mr. Pastabend has also secured from the city the contract for the rebuilding of the crossing at the corner of Twelfth and Bond against all competitors.

To what extent patriotism can be carried was illustrated Saturday night when some half dozen Greeks, having just at the beginning of the fishing season sold out their nets, gear, etc., and with the money started on a 15,000-mile journey to the aid of the mother country in her struggle against the Turks.

Track-laying to the new depot will commence now at any day convenient to the workmen, and when the train will be running into that handsome little station. It is a conundrum with some people, however, how the passengers and baggage will be put ashore until the city streets are connected with the depot. It is summer—almost—and swimming is good.

Pursuant to proclamation by Grand Stire Fred Carlsson, the Astoria Lodge of Odd Fellows last night celebrated the 75th anniversary of the order in America by appropriate ritualistic services. The Robekahs afterwards sumptuously entertained the members with a repast, and dancing followed up to a late hour. The setting of the tables, filled with all good things, and the decorations, were most tastefully arranged.

In another column, will be found Herman Wise's ad. He has just received an immense stock of men's, boys' and children's suits, hats, shirts, ties, trunks and other goods usually kept in a first-class store, and having bought the goods for cash, he is in a position to offer the public unusual bargains. He is so sure of his ability to please that he wants you to call at his store, whether you buy or not. His efficient and polite force of clerks will be glad to show you through.

J. H. Imhoff has purchased a half interest in the marble and granite business at 321 East Morrison street, Portland, Or. One of the largest and finest stocks of granite and marble in the state will be carried. The business will be known under the firm name of Imhoff & Minor, and they will be pleased to give estimates on all classes of work in their line. Parties here wanting anything in the monumental line may buy at great reductions before May 1st. After that date the stock of the Astoria Marble Works will be moved to Portland.

After an illness of over one year Mr. James Stone, of Skipanon, passed away Saturday afternoon, April 24th, and was buried yesterday in the new Clatsop cemetery. Mr. Stone was born January 27, 1840, in York county, New Brunswick, and emigrated to Wisconsin in 1865, and came to this coast in 1876, locating at Cathlamet, Wash. Deceased leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss, the youngest child being seven years of age; also two sisters in Maine, one brother in Hamilton, Montana, and one at Kelso, Wash. Mr. Stone was at one time a prominent contractor in Astoria, but has made his home near Skipanon for the past two years.
