THE DUKE CRITICISED.

Blamed With Bringing About the Crisis in Cuban Affairs.

New York, May 24 -- A Herald dispatch

The Heraldo in Madrid devotes an ar ticle to the Tetuan incident, strongly urging the duke to resign. Each party blames the other for the attitude of the United States since the heated personal

El Imparcial in an editorial this morn ng criticises the government severely. saying that its policy has always been one of indecision and simulated optimism, and it fears the duke of Tetuan's act brought the party conflict to an acute stage. El Imparcial also condemns the government for allowing Americans in Hayana openly to interfere with Spanlab concerns.

The Madrid press generally displays great anxioty about President McKin- Co., demurrer overruled by ley's attitude.

El Liberal makes no original comment however, and only quotes the opinion of the foreign press relative to the American attitude. The Caritsts are anxious ly awaiting the outcome of the incident.

NURSES FOR ALASKA.
