NEW YORK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Extends Its Congratulations to Queen Victoria.

THE AMERICANS IN LONDON

Will Have the Best of It During Jubilee Week - Dinners, Balls, Receptions will Follow in Quick Succession.

New York, June 21.—The chamber of commerce of this state today sent the following telegram to the queen:

"Her Gracious Majesty the Queen of England: The chamber of commerce of the State of New York, which received its original charter directly from the hand of your illustrious ancestor, King George III., tenders its congratulations on this happy occasion, and in the spirit of national unity unites with your loving subjects in the earnest prayer that God may bless the queen."

"ALEXANDER ECTOR ORR, President."

New York, June 21.—A Journal dispatch from London says:

The Americans will have the best of it during Jubilee week, as they will enjoy the hospitality of their English friends and reciprocate their attentions after the tumult is over. Preparations are being made to exhaust all possible resources. Dinners, receptions, balls and afternoon teas will follow each other in quick succession, interspersed here and there with the weather permits with garden parties and river trips. William Waldorf Astor has already set the ball rolling by entertaining the masses before he receives the aristocracy. He has published a jubilee edition de luxe of the Pall Mall Gazette for one penny, against 6d is charged by the other newspapers. He has done this without any hope of possible gain, as there is no chance of profit accruing from it. In addition he will receive royalty and any distinguished foreign visitors in finished style at his town mansion, Christon house terrace; will have his doors open wide all this week, while three special functions will occur during the week following. Mrs. Mackay, one of London's greatest hostesses, will remain secluded. This is a matter of deep regret to many of her American and English friends, but she is observing her strict mourning.

Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, formerly Miss Endicott, will be one of the foremost of American entertainers. Her home, once the mansion of Sir Julian Goldsmith, has been brilliantly decorated and will be the scene of several elaborate balls, the first of which occurs on the 28th. It promises to equal if not eclipse that of the Duchess of Westminster, which precedes it on the 25th. Mrs. Ogden Goelet, whose dinner for the Prince of Wales at Wimbome house was pronounced the social success of the season, will repeat the affair on a still more gorgeous scale. The long rows of German kings and Russian princes will fill her spacious corridors and listen to prominent operatic artists free of charge, for carriage hire, even to being provided for them by the British government, whose generosity has been evinced by the occasion of the diamond jubilee. The Duchess of Marlborough will entertain very little. It is said, however, that Spencer house will be open to her intimate friends the week following the jubilee. In the meantime, it is said in some quarters that she will not be in town on the great day itself, but will wait in the country until the first outbreak of loyal tumult has subsided.

Mrs. Eugene Kelly has taken a house in St. James square. It is her first season as a full-fledged hostess in London society and she has signalized it by having her residence adorned by perhaps the most startling illuminations of any private dwelling in the city. At night it is one blaze of colored lights, in which the initials "V. R." are most prominent.

Strange to say there is not the slightest vestige of any American device in the whole set of decorations. Most of the other Americans sport the stars and stripes conspicuously, sometimes lovingly intertwined with the British emblems, sometimes alone, as a national display.

Mr. Jefferson M. Levy, of Monticello, will entertain a party of Americans at Walsingham house, Piccadilly, where they will have an excellent view of the procession. It will be an all-day affair, during which luncheon, tea and dinner will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gould are at present at the Savoy Hotel. They have not yet succeeded in getting a suitable house. They will speedily do so, and not be behind in hospitality.

George Vanderbilt is living quietly at Long's hotel. He has one of the highest priced seats for the parade and will be a guest at some of the affairs of Mrs. Goelet and Mrs. Chamberlain. Beyond that he will do little but drive daily in the park.

JOHN I. BLAIR DYING.

The Great Millionaire Was Also a Great Philanthropist.

New York, June 21.—John I. Blair, New Jersey's great and most generous millionaire, is dying. For months he has been

GIANT STRIDES ON TARIFF BILL

Senate Covers Fifty-Six Pages and Reaches the Free List.

THE NEW TORPEDO BOATS

Bids Opened, Among Them Being One from Portland - Nominations by President and Confirmations of Senate.

Washington, June 21.—The senate made giant strides on the tariff bill today, covering fifty-six pages and establishing a record for progress during this tariff debate.

The last two schedules of the dutiable list, covering paper and manufactured sugars, were completed with the exception of the paragraphs on hides, gloves, coal and some lesser articles, which went over. This advanced the senate to the free list, which was taken up at 2 p. m. and completed in three hours.

Early in the day the wool and silk schedules went over, with an agreement that wool would be taken up tomorrow. After that the tobacco schedule, the reciprocity provisions and the internal revenue portions of the bill, and many paragraphs passed over, remain to be considered. The progress today was so marked, however, that for the first time there was a feeling that the end was not far off. While the free list was under discussion Bacon gave notice of an amendment placing cotton ties on the free list, and McLaurin gave notice of another amendment taking raw cotton from the free list, thus completing the action heretofore taken of placing a duty of 20 per cent on cotton.

EXPLOSION IN PORTLAND

Postoffice Building Wrecked by Escaping Gas.

Portland, June 21.—A terrific explosion of escaping gas wrecked the basement and lower part of the Federal building at 123 this afternoon.

Pat Maloney, the head janitor, was very severely burned and his arms and hands badly mangled. His escape from being blown to atoms was nothing short of miraculous.

William Carlyle, a post office clerk received a bad scalp wound from the flying debris.

Doors were torn down and every window in the basement was blown out and all while a shower of shattered glass and wood littered the post office grounds.

The explosion broke the windows in many of the buildings in the neighborhood, causing great alarm for some time. It is really wonderful that there was no loss of life or more injured.

RYAN THE CHAMPION

Knocks Out Tom Williams in the Second Round.

Syracuse, N. Y., June 21.—Tommy Ryan knocked out Tom Williams, the champion welter-weight of Australia, in the first minute of the second round of their fight before the Empire Athletic Club tonight. The Australian started in to rush matters in the first round, and Ryan contented himself with ducking and side-stepping until the latter part of the round, when he drove a right to the body that sent his man staggering against the ropes. In the second round Ryan started in from the first to mix matters and landed rights and lefts on the face and body. Williams dropped to his knees three times to avoid punishment and when he got up Ryan jabbed him right to the heart and then hooked his left on the temple. Williams dropped like a log and was counted out.

WILL CALL BRYAN TO ACCOUNT

Prof. Bateman, of Maine, Accuses the Silver Man of Political Forgery.

BRIBERY IS ALSO CHARGED

Freeman Knowles, of South Dakota, Says Bryan Paid $1500 for an Agreement for so Action Against Faslos.

Lewiston, Maine, June 21.—Prof. L. C. Bateman, of Auburn, who was the candidate of the people's party of Maine for governor last year, and who is a leader of the middle-of-the-road forces in this state, today published an attack on W. J. Bryan.

Prof. Bateman says that the populist congressman Freeman Knowles, of South Dakota, while on his recent trip to his old home in Skowhegan, Maine, gave out the information that Mr. Bryan's recent gift of $1500 to the populist national committee was made with the distinct understanding that no action against fusion would be taken by the populists at the next national convention. This, Prof. Bateman also says, is nothing more than direct bribery. Prof. Bateman also says that Mr. Bryan has appended his (Bateman's) name to Senator Allen's letter of notification given out last September.

Bateman was secretary of the notification committee, but did not sign the letter in question. He says that Mr. Bryan's action in printing his name on the letter in the new book is an action of political forgery. Bateman is a delegate of the middle-of-the-road national conference at Nashville, Tenn., July 4. He says he will bring these matters before that body.

San Francisco, June 21.—Although the inquest into the death of Isaac Hoffman has already lasted a week, its only result so far has been the bringing to the surface a condition of affairs which, while it is sensational and interesting, does not tend to elucidate the mystery. ### SENSATION IN WALL STREET

Bucket Shops and Discretionary Pools Must Go.

New York, June 21.—The Herald today says: Wall street is promised a sensation growing out of the war with the bucket-shops and alleged discretionary pool houses. A complaint is to be raised by way of retaliation for recent raids which involve money whose names have been synonymous for probity and honesty. The charges which it is intended to make against them involves rather a technical violation of the law sanctioned by custom than any suggestion of unfair dealing. Nevertheless, it is not improbable that they may be found liable to punishment under the statutes and be forced to undergo some disagreeable experiences in court.
