Two San Francisco grocers—Ring Bros. and T. Salomon—won $100.00 each because they sent the most yellow tickets before June 15th.

But grocers and clerks can get more tickets than other consumers; so we also paid $100.00 each to the two persons named below:

Mrs. Wm. Funk, Winnemucca, Nevada, 132 tickets.

Mrs. L. During, 819 Bryant Street, San Francisco, 72 tickets.

Mrs. During got a number of friends in San Francisco and near by (one keeps a boarding house) to give her their tickets; and she used the tea herself.

By the way, she uses Schilling's Best baking powder and extracts—too bad she doesn't know how good Schilling's Best spices are! But she says the extracts and baking powder are wonderful.

A woman in Stockton, who keeps a restaurant, came very near getting a prize. She deserves one for supplying her customers such good tea.

Better read our advertisements every day—some contain suggestions how to win the prize.

By the way, grocers can't compete for the two $150.00 prizes offered for the most yellow tickets in one envelope between June 15th and August 31st. They can, however, compete for the $1000.00 prize.

TRULY GRAND!

The Lightest Store in Astoria—Wise's Customers See What They Are Buying.

That's fine! That's grand! That's enterprising! could be heard on all sides when the sun had retired to his stellar couch and wrapped his lanky mantle of darkest night over his brilliant head.

The electric sign of Wise's, the up-to-date reliable advertiser, caused these expressions of delight, and well it may.

Herman Wise follows the rule that success must surely come to him who deserves it; and he does deserve it.

"I am not ashamed to let the most searching light cast its rays on the kind of goods I keep," says he.

In the day time, the many windows in front, in the rear and on the sides of his store make the interior of his store bright, and in the evening it is lit up as brightly as possible, so that every customer may see what he is buying.

"I thought Uncle Sam's birthday was an appropriate occasion to begin the illumination," said Mr. Wise. "I have the right kind of goods and my prices speak for themselves."

Success to you, Herman; and may your example find many followers.
