A new river service has been inaugurated between Astoria and Rainier, Oregon, including all intermediate landings. The fine steamer "Pilgrim," Captain A. L. Braze, will make round trips daily, except Sunday, leaving Rainier at 5:30 a. m., reaching Astoria at 1:30, landing at the Fourteenth street wharf, and departing on her return at 1:30. Prompt time and the best service is guaranteed for both passengers and freight.

An important and interesting letter to the chamber from the Hon. J. Barrett, United States minister at Bangkok, Siam, calling attention to the urgent need of closer trade relations between the Pacific coast of the United States and foreign lands bordering on the Pacific ocean, especially the countries of the far East or Asian-Pacific, was read and referred to the proper committee.

A memorial on Hawaiian annexation adopted by the San Francisco chamber of commerce, and forwarded to the chamber with a request to indorse, was indorsed.

The subject of a survey by the government of the mouth of the Yukon river for which the chamber requested our congressional representatives to apply in January, 1896, was again discussed, and the secretary was instructed to address a communication to the governmental department on the subject, and to communicate with the Portland and San Francisco chambers of commerce asking their co-operation.

The subject of the expected visit of a body of Eastern lumbermen to this state was introduced and preliminary steps taken toward inviting them to visit Astoria.

Informal meetings were held by merchants and business men yesterday relative to the holding of a regatta about the 20th of August. Each and every man approached was heartily in favor of having the entertainment this year, and making it a memorable one. The fishermen promised their co-operation, and it is certain that with proper organization and a head to the affair, success will meet the efforts of those who are anxious to entertain visitors this fall and maintain the reputation of the city. Astoria is a seaport and fishing town, and as yet Clatsop county has not advanced to the dignity of annual fairs, but she can keep up her annual regatta, which is an eminently proper entertainment for the city and county. It is a unique and attractive sporting event for the whole state, and will be especially attractive this year. The weather promises to be all that could be desired, and it is hoped by all that the meeting tonight will effect such organization as will insure the success of the proposition.

At the meeting of the chamber of commerce last night, the question of securing the battleship Monterey in Astoria during the regatta was informally discussed and left in the hands of the transportation committee. There will probably be no difficulty whatever in having the Monterey here, if it is decided to hold a regatta.

Not Only in Appearance, but also in the Manner of Doing Business.

Tuesday and Thursday of this week Herman Wise's store promises to be crowded, as explained in his ad. on the last page, he will have special sides on certain goods, as mentioned, for only a few hours. People who have cash should be on hand early to take advantage of the bargains offered, as the quantities are limited and the sales will begin and close promptly at the hours mentioned. For particulars read Wise's ad. on the last page of this paper.

SHOT HERSELF.
A message sent to the Astorian Sunday afternoon stated that Mrs. Eveline Wherry, of Elsie, was accidentally shot and killed Saturday evening, July 24. A large chicken hawk had been disturbing her chickens, and while watching it with her husband, she suggested that he shoot it, and ran up stairs to get the rifle, which was kept loaded, hanging on pegs on the wall. In taking the gun down, it was somehow discharged, instantly killing Mrs. Wherry. Coroner Pohl was sent for, and left for Elsie Sunday evening, but up to a late hour last night had not returned, so that further particulars were not learned.

NEW TUG BOAT FOR ASTORIA.
It was authoritatively reported yesterday that Spreckles & Company, of San Francisco, will soon send another tug boat for duty at the mouth of the Columbia river. She will be stationed at New Astoria, and arrangements will probably be made to utilize the Fort Stevens light house for a lookout station. It is anticipated that next year will be a very busy one here, and the tug company proposes to be prepared for it. One of R. G. Dun's agents said yesterday that with a good bar service and favorable freight rates Astoria would do the shipping for Oregon and a large part of Washington.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Action Concerning Astoria's Harbor Bearing Fruit.

The chamber of commerce met last night, Present—G. Winagre, president; R. Van Dusen, vice-president; E. C. Holden, secretary; Messrs. Kendall, Gray, Kinney, Thompson, Welch Tallant and Dellinger.

The usual routine business having been disposed of, the following reply of Senator McBride was read.

United States Senate, Washington, D. C., July 2, 1897.—Astoria Chamber of Commerce—Dear Sirs: I beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 24th June last, conveying the request of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce that I "frame and present at the present session of congress a resolution requesting the secretary of war to examine the harbor of Astoria, and to make comprehensive plans and estimates of cost for its improvement by increasing the depth, width and extent thereof," and requesting me, also, "if it is necessary, to obtain an appropriation to defray the expense of such work;" further, "to have such plans and estimates ready for the consideration of congress at next winter's session."

In reply, I beg leave to say that I shall present a resolution such as is indicated in your letter, but that in my judgment it will be impossible to obtain favorable consideration thereof, unless information shall be furnished showing the emergency requiring such examination, plans and estimates, prior to the enactment of the river and harbor bill, which it is understood will be introduced at the next session of congress.

In this connection, I beg leave to say that I presented this subject to the senate committee on commerce, of which I am a member, during the last session of congress, but that the committee declined to recommend any further appropriation for the improvement of the river below Tongue Point, or any investigation of the Astoria harbor. The reason for such refusal on the part of the senate committee will be found in the enclosed report of the secretary of war in answer to a senate resolution, a copy of which is printed with the report here-in referred to. You will observe that at the date of said report, namely, January 15, 1897, it was the opinion of Captain W. L. Fisk, corps of engineers, the officer in charge of the improvements on the Columbia river, that it was then "still too early to say what changes inside the mouth of the river may be due to the influence of the jetty, or what, if anything, should be done to attempt their control." If any recent report of Captain Fisk indicates any change in the conditions then existing, I shall be obliged if you will direct my attention to said report, so that I may present it to the committee on commerce in support of the resolution which I shall introduce in compliance with the request of your chamber of commerce.

I am yours very respectfully,
GEO. W. M'BRIDE

Five days in the county jail for stealing $125 from Jack Onda. The theft was made Sunday night from the latter's clothes, at his residence. There was apparently an accomplice in the case, who was not discovered. Officer Lucks made the arrest, and the money was afterwards recovered from under a water barrel.

John Roder was arraigned accused of the larceny of a fish boat belonging to Megler's cannery. As he could not raise $200 bail, he was placed in jail to await preliminary hearing today.

NOTICE TO MERCHANTS.
Please take notice of the effect of the following, a copy of a resolution adopted on unanimous vote at a regular meeting of the Common Council, held on July 15, 1897:

"Resolved, That the Auditor and Police Judge be and is hereby instructed to give notice in the official paper of the city that no claims against the city will be audited unless accompanied by written requisition authorizing the contracting of the claim."

H. E. NELSON,
Auditor and Police Judge.
Astoria, Or., July 26, 1897.

THE Y. M. I. INSTALLATION.
At a regular meeting of Astoria Council, Y. M. I. No. 196, held Sunday, the following officers for the ensuing term were installed by Council Deputy P. Shea: President, C. E. Foster; first vice-president, James Lawler; second vice-president, James Robinson; secretary, Thomas Jones; treasurer, R. Willis; marshal, J. M. Peely; inside sentinel, P. Shea; outside sentinel, T. Kearney.

The following were elected delegates to the grand council which convenes at Tacoma, Wash., on August 15: J. M. Peely and James Robinson; alternates, C. T. Foster and P. Shea.

WILL BE A WINNER.
The Astorian received a telegram yesterday from W. L. Hayward, stating that he had left Harrison, Idaho, for Boise City, where he will today compete for the all-round athletic championship of Idaho, as announced in the Sunday Astorian. Last fall Hayward was a tower of strength to the local intercollegiate football club, and was also one of the crackjacks of the horse team. It is thought he has an excellent chance of winning the championship.

TON OF FISH STOLEN.
Word was received, yesterday afternoon, that a ton of salmon was stolen from the Cadue Seining Company, located just above Tongue Point. It happened to be one of the largest catches of the season. It is a severe loss to the company. As fish are still running well and of good quality, they may be able to make it up. No trace of the thief has yet been discovered.

PASTOR CALLED.
Rev. L. Nissen, missionary pastor of the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran church for the lower Columbia district, visited his congregation at Chinook and Stringtown Sunday last, preaching his farewell sermon. Mr. Nissen has received a call from the Scandinavian Evangelical church in Eastern Washington, which he will probably accept.

THE COUNTY COURT.
The county court yesterday appointed T. Siverson administrator of the estate of Anton Hansen, deceased.
In the matter of the estate of John Nelson, deceased, administrator Dr. M. M. Walker filed his report asking for an order for citation against non-resident heirs, ordering sale of real estate. The matter will be heard on the 6th of August.
