WEEKLY.

Sent by mail, per year $2 in advance. Postage free to subscribers.

All communications intended for publication should be directed to the editor. Business communications of all kinds and remittances must be addressed to The Astorian.

The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be had on application to the business manager.

The Weekly Astorian, the second oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

John F. Handley & Co. are our Portland agents, and copies of the Astorian can be had every morning at their stand, 124 Third street.

The Yukon sufferer will now go into training for next spring.

The republicans have been in power four months, and can already claim that they are giving the country a business men's administration.

Our exports last year went beyond the million dollar mark. Professors of discouragement are compelled to fight shy of the statistics of 1897.

Our exports of silver last year amounted to $61,846,383, and it may safely be assumed that the business was conducted at a profit to producers.

The fogatia has a start. The mass meeting last night effected temporary organization, and permanent officers will be elected today. When once Astoria business men take hold of an enterprise in earnest, with them there is no such word as fail.

The steamers on the Yukon will not allow passengers to carry a large supply of food to the new gold diggings, but insure them enough to last a year for $400. One of the first institutions to be established on the Yukon seems to be a food trust.

The Tacoma Daily Ledger, in its new dress, presents a handsome and greatly improved appearance. Its makeup, manner of presenting the news, class of news served, and editorials are certainly a step in the right direction. If it maintains its present standard, it will be a credit to its present and future.

For a country which tries to mind its own business and to have nothing to do with the Old World affairs, the United States has a pretty large and diversified stock of complications on hand at the present time. It has a seal fishery disagreement with England, a prospective annexation difficulty, or what the Madrid government imagines is prospective annexation, with Spain, and a real annexation dispute with Japan. Then too, the Kaiser William II. has a grudge against the United States on some account or other which has not been revealed to the world. Nevertheless, the country is likely to have both prosperity and peace for the near future. Still, the government should prepare for all possible eventualities.

The fever which recently has absorbed all other interests in Astoria, and has stimulated every one who can raise five cents to go to Klondyke, seems to be increasing rather than diminishing. If one-half of those who leave Astoria for the new Eldorado bring back with them small fortunes the city will be benefited to a very large extent. Those who are going to the gold fields are well-known public-spirited men, and if fortune smiles upon them, it is safe to assume that a portion of their riches will be expended in the development of Astoria's industries. In a smaller way, at the present, the purchase of no inconsiderable amount of supplies here has stimulated business to a large extent. Those who are going have been carefully studying the situation, and fully realize the hardships they must undergo. By careful management, other this fall or next spring, these hardships can be reduced to the minimum. They also realize that they cannot simply arrive in the country, sit down on a stump, and beckon the gold to them. It is not there for everyone to pick up. Experience and hard work alone will accomplish the coveted prize. We venture the assertion, however, that as large a proportion of prospectors will be successful from Astoria as from any other coast city.

That man must have a short memory or have read history to a little purpose who can fail to see all around him and in every commercial country the signs of a revival in business similar to those that appeared in the summer of 1879, after the long depression that followed the reverses that began in 1873. The first symptoms then was the reawakening of the bourses in Europe and of the stock and grain exchanges in this country, and the beginning of a general and permanent advance in prices. No. 2 spring wheat, which in January, 1873, sold on the Chicago board of trade at 35 cents, reached $1.25 in December, and stocks and bonds showed a similar movement. Upward—all the time upward—was the trend of values. Liquidation was over and prosperity smiled.

Precisely the same thing may be seen now, both in this country and in Europe. On every hand may be observed the sweep of the tide as it moves resistlessly, "too full for sound and foam." Turn where we may, north or south, we see bountiful crops of every kind, and a demand for them that is advancing prices daily. This means a vast railway traffic, and consequent increased earnings enlarged dividends, and this entices the money of the capitalist to seek investment after its long idleness. The iron industries, an infallible sign of business improvement, are being extended, mills are opening, and there is a general and unmistakable movement forward. Look out therefore that you are not left! Eighteen hundred and seventy-nine is about to repeat itself.

REASONS WHY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY IS THE BEST.

- 1. Because it affords almost instant relief in case of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus. 2. Because it is the only remedy that never fails in the most severe cases of dysentery and diarrhoea. 3. Because it is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea. 4. Because it is the only remedy that will prevent bilious colic. 5. Because it is the only remedy that will cure epidemic dysentery. 6. Because it is the only remedy that can always be depended upon in cases of cholera infantum. 7. Because it is the most prompt and most reliable medicine in use for bowel complaints. 8. Because it produces no bad results. 9. Because it is pleasant and safe to take. 10. Because it has saved the lives of more people than any medicine in the world. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

That a dog may beat an alligator appears by the experience of the Hon. D. E. Stuart, of Victoria, Fla. His dog was swimming in a lake there, when Mr. Stuart, seeing a gator coming, called to the dog to come ashore. The dog started, but the alligator was gaining when the dog turned and seized it. Both went down, but the dog came up unharmed, and the alligator with a lacerated jaw.

The old story of Prometheus is a parable. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire and gave it to man. For this sin he was bound to the rocks at Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again as fast as it was necked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined?

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is no cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischief lies. The stomach is overtaxed, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then come the culture—the torments of a diseased liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self. Sold by all medicine dealers the world over.

When one sees a slip of a girl driving two big horses the question arises: "What would she do if the animals were suddenly to become conscious of what tiny hands are holding them?"

The best regulator to regulate people is Simmons' Liver Regulator. It regulates the liver and the liver regulates the person. If the liver is regular then health is good, but if sluggish or diseased then there is constant biliousness, indigestion, headache and all the disorders of the stomach that one hears of. Try Simmons' Liver Regulator and prove this.

Losing Flesh

You naturally lose flesh in the summer and running down is so easy. You get a little weaker each day without hardly noticing it. There is loss of appetite, headache, weakness of the muscles, disturbed sleep, weakness of memory, and these are the beginning of nervous prostration. Iron and tonics and bitters may afford some temporary relief, but what you need is a food for body, brain and nerves.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with the Hypophosphites, furnishes just the nourishment needed for those who are run down and pale and thin and weak. If you lose flesh in summer take Scott's Emulsion now. Don't wait till fall or winter before beginning. For sale at 50c. and $1.00 by all druggists.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla. Is the original Sarsaparilla, the standard of the world. Others have imitated the remedy. They can't imitate the record: 50 Years of Cures.

SUREST TRANQUILLIZER OF THE NERVES.

The surest tranquillizer of the nerves is a medicine which reminds their sensitiveness by invigorating them. Over-tension of the nerves always evokes them. What they need then, is a food, not a sedative. The latter is only useful when there is an intense mental excitement, and an immediate necessity exists for producing quietude of the brain. Chamberlain's Sarsaparilla restores tranquillity of the nerves by endowing them with the vigor requisite to bear, without being jarred or disturbed unhealthily, the ordinary impressions produced through the media of sight, hearing and reflection. Nay, it does more than this; it enables them to sustain a degree of tension from mental application which they would be totally unable to endure without its assistance. Such, at least, is the irresistible conclusion to be drawn from the testimony of business and professional men, literateurs, clergymen, and miners who have tested the fortifying and reparative influence of this celebrated tonic and nerve.

In Jewell county, Kan., when a Judge, before whom a father had brought his eighteen-year-old daughter on a charge of insanity, found that the father's real object in the proceedings was to prevent her from marrying the young man of choice, he called the lover, who was among the spectators, and performed the marriage forthwith.

"Last summer one of our grand-children was stricken with a severe bowel trouble," says Mrs. E. G. Rogers, of Philadelphia, Pa. "Our doctor's remedy had failed; then we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave very speedy relief." For sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

An Atholton, Kan., mother goes once a month to court and takes out judgments for $10 each against her two sons, the money being due according to an agreement the consideration named in which is that the mother shall refrain from annoying the sons by her presence or talk. She says that the sons have defaulted in payments since last fall.

Mr. C. L. Hasbrouck, a druggist at Mendon, Mich., says all of the good testimonials that have been published by the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy could be duplicated in this town. For sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

From the cathedral tower at Antwerp 60 bells have, for over two hundred years, rung out the grandest music for the benefit of the people living on the green fields which border on the Scheldt. Once a year, in the month of February, the authorities select the music, and the organ plays every hour from the old masters of Christian song.

Some for ten, some for twenty and some for thirty years have suffered from piles and then have been cured and permanently cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great remedy for piles and all forms of skin diseases, Charles Rogers.

Earl Banbury, governor general of New Zealand, with his wife and three daughters arrived in Montreal from Ennawoe, recently. They intend to cross the continent by the Canadian Pacific railroad, stopping off for some sport in the Rocky mountains. The party will sail direct from Vancouver to Sydney, thence to Wellington.

Don't thin your blood with sassafras or poison it with blue-mass; but aid Nature by using DeWitt's Little Early Bitters, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness and stomach and liver troubles. They are purely vegetable. Charles Rogers.

To fully appreciate the responsibilities of office and their consequent effect on masculine nature try to get a cliff answer from the potentate who sells tickets at a remote country railway station.

Don't neglect a cough because the weather is pleasant; before the next storm rolls around it may develop into a serious difficulty beyond repair. One Minute Cough Cure is easy to take and will do what its name implies. Charles Rogers.

It is a matter of absorbing interest to the people in a hotel who have heard a couple quarreling in the next room to note their behavior when they next appear together in public.

Not only piles of the very worst kind can be cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, but eczema, scalds, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers and all other skin troubles can be instantly relieved by the same remedy. Charles Rogers.

Work is the panacea for trouble, but it comes hard when both body and spirit are worn out, and to be absolutely passive is about all one feels able to embrace.

When you want a real life-like and artistic photo, don't fail to call on Snodgrass. The work he is turning out now is ahead of anything ever made in Astoria before.

THE OBJECTION NOT GOOD.

There are people who have objections to advertising matter in the columns of a newspaper. The ground of objection is that they do not want to read advertisements. Now this objection is not good, for oftentimes these advertisements convey valuable information. For instance, how else would the traveling public learn of the excellent dining car service of the Wisconsin Central line between St. Paul and Chicago, or the general comfort of traveling over this popular line. For particulars call on the nearest ticket agent or address J. C. Pond, G. P. A., Milwaukee, Wis., or Geo. S. Datty, General Agent, 216 Stark street, Portland, Or.

At Joplin, Mo., a drunken man fell down a mine shaft seventy feet on a Saturday and lay there nearly twenty-four hours before he was discovered. Beyond a few slight bruises he was not hurt. On the following Monday another miner, sober, fell down a shaft at the same place and died in half an hour.

W. B. Johnson, Newark, O., says, "One Minute Cough Cure saved my only child from dying by croup." It has saved thousands of others suffering from croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and other serious throat and lung troubles. Charles Rogers.

Among the treasures of the Passamaquoddy (Me.) tribe of Indians, it is said, is a letter from George Washington written from his army on the banks of the Delaware, December 24, 1783, in which he expresses his pleasure that the Passamaquoddy had accepted the chain of friendship he sent them the preceding February.

EFFECTUAL.—Charles J. Booth, Gilwood, Cal., says: "I have used Ayer's pills in my family for several years, and have always found them most effectual in the relief of ailments arising from a disordered stomach, torpid liver, and constipated bowels."

A bicycle race with a panther was the exciting experience of an English lady in Singapore one evening. When riding slowly homeward along a road outside the town the cyclist found that she was being quietly stalked by a huge black panther. She had the presence of mind to start off at full speed, and soon distanced her pursuer.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—It is a terrible accident to be burned or scalded; but the pain and agony and fearful disfigurements can be quickly overcome without leaving a scar by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Charles Rogers.

It is a noticeable thing that the croquet girl is generally particularly fond of ice cream, while the golf enthusiast prefers something heartier after the fatigue of a game.

"They are dandies," said Thos. Bowler, of the Crocket, Texas, Enterprise, while writing about DeWitt's Little Early Bitters, the famous little pills for sick headache and disorders of the stomach and liver. Charles Rogers.

Very long nails indicate that a woman and housework are strangers, but there is also an unpleasant suggestion of claws about them that is anything but desirable.

Hundreds of thousands have been induced to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy by reading what it has done for others, and having tested its merits for themselves are today its warmest friends. For sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

What a strange thing it is that even though we are driven to the dentist's by an aching tooth we are glad to discover that he is not at home.

You may visit the world over and you will not find another medicine equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.
