By Mrs. Omens-Adair, M. D.

of 'C. acting as guide and general as- months, known as Fort Trask. He thor-City they were married. This little com nany while on the plains, fell to with Fitzpatric, an old trapper, who rendered

A LOVE STORY.

"Since Polly Slauguer accepted Bob

Billings, major, she pretends not to be in wants. But a man like Bob Billings can to loosen its tobacco enough so that it "Is it a real love story?" Mrs. Max

"A real love story," the major responded.

comfortable, so that I won't have to move stool, settled herself snugly and said, foined our regiment, he was only a second germans in Washington.

"Well," began the major, "when Bob will.

thought it was to be a love story."
"To be sure, to be sure!" continued the your reach without disturbing you? Thank lieutenant, and therefore filled with enthusiasm when he was assigned to the mocracy of intercourse which prevails in company I commanded, because I was or-dered to chase an ugly hand of Indians by degrees saw more and more of the young back on to a reservation from which they woman until Starlight—that was her had wandered in search of scalps. I was not so enthusiastic, for I'd been there has You have guessed the result. Bob fell in force and it's all here we have guessed the result.

fore, and it's all hard work and no glory, and it's all hard work and no glory, and the officers who do the hard work on threatened to no longer share our tent

the frontier are always overlooked in Wash. with him. Needless to say, I gave him ington when the department is giving out good advice; needless to say, he scoffed it soft builts—overlessed in favor of these who have been playing tennis and leading and say: 'See, I have brought you this "Major!" interrupted Mrs. Max, "I mountains. It needs but to be polished to wach without disturbing you? Thank Well, Bob was young, handsome, ad his color wals was a soung, bandsome, woman who lives-if she gets the man she good nature.

Mrs. Ann Perry, daughter of Mr. and life. She was respected and appreciated to live in Oregon City for a number of Mrs. William Abell, was born December by all who knew her. In gathering plon- years, but returned to their home of 17, 1818, in Indiana, Tipacanoe county, in ser data, I find that Mr. Eldres Track did Clatsop plains in 1850. Then their eldest sight of the General Harrison home. She more to assist the ealy settlers to reach son, the third child, died. married, W. T. Perry, July, 1839. They Clatsop and to get them comfortably lo- Mrs. Taylor was always energetic and left Indiana April 1, 1842, and crossed the cated than any other one person. He was interested in every good movement. Alplains that year. With them came a a large, strong man, with a big heart and though not a member of the Presbyterian ter; "ha-ba," in very high notes; "ha. loss it in the sir, catching it like a ball. sister of Mrs. Perry, a young widow good genoous nature. For several years church at that time, no one was more hather, in the deepest bass, then a it was at this time that the guils, perhaving a baby girl, Rosalthie. They jour- be assisted every family, meeting them interested in the building of that little chorus of wild cries that appeared to haps Jack, Tom or Smoker, would duri neved as far as Green river in wagons, eithe at Tanzy Point, now Flavel, or at church on Clatsop, which was really the come from anywhere, everywhere, great, in and selze it, and with a chorus of there they left their wagons, they com- Skipanon and taking them to his own first Presbyterian church in Oregon. After by astonishing a little boy that stood on ories so flying away with the twice pleted their long trip on horse-back. On bome or wherever a place had been pro- Astoria became a port of entry Mr. and the spray-washed deck of an outbound stolen fish. Platte river they met a Mr. Eldreg Trask, vided for them. Later on, in Tilamook, Mrs. Taylor moved there, where they steamer. Platte river they met a Mr. Estree 17028.

a young trapper, and be travelled on during the Indian war of 1855-56. Trask resided until Mrs. Taylor's death Cet. 33. "It is the laughing gulls," said the bleak rock, about seventy miles distant, brick and mortar on its head.

ESTHER D'ARMON TAYLOR.

Mrs. Esther D'Armon Taylor, daughter was to be gotten out of life. them Ivaluable service, he being familiar of Esther and Samuel D'Armon, was born with the Indian character and language in Lancaster county, Penn., July 17, 1821. and thereby preventing serious trouble Her parents moved to Ohio when she was while passing through the Sioux country, but a child, and there, in 1823, she - Arried The Perrys and Thasks spent their first James Taylor. They made a home in Kalwinter in Oregon City and as far as I ida, and two children were born to them ca find, lived in the first frame building there, the eldest dying when only two in Oregon, built by Mr. Perry, who was years old. In 1844 there was much talk of a millright. Early in the spring of '45 the great country on the northwest coas; families down to Clatsop plains and took grants the next season and to take the How ardently I admired her then! Tall of that then beautiful flower garden, for the love of adventure and also for eyes and rich black hair, her every move- "I should think so," said the officer They built themselves a home on the the benefit of his health, which at that Perry farm, which both families occupied, time had been greatly impaired. He ex-On Oct. 15, 1863, a daughter was born to pected to leave his wife and infant daugh-Mr. and Mrs. Perry. This little girl was ter in Ohio until his return or at least at all times and under all circumstances. named Mary, and she has the honor of until he had seen what this far off land I speak from personal knowledge, for the boy again, being the first white child born in Clat- was like-but Mrs. Taylor would not our pioneer homes were adjoining farms sop county. She is now the wife of Mr. listen to this plan and insisted that she dairyman of Coos county, living on the So they made all arrangements, leaving gette in all good movements." She was along. When they get lived they alight Fred Shrowder, a wealthy farmer and was quite as able and ready to go as be. banks of the beautiful Coquelle river, Lima, Objo, March 5, 1845, for Indepen-Mr. Perry lived and prospered in Clatsop dence. Mo., where their company was an admirable example, most worthy to fond of trying to balance themselves on county, but he was of a migatory nature forming. They left Independence May to, be imitated. and not contented to remain long in one and arrived in Oregon City on the 18th After moving to Astocia, Colonel and and when the boat is rolling about they place. In 1861 he moved, with his family, of the following October, after an exceed- Mrs. Taylor's home became the center of have to work very hard, especially Jack. to Douglass county, locating in Roseburg, ingly pleasant journey across the plains, attraction for the best society in the who has but one leg. and buying a large tract of land on Deer Mrs. Taylor was then just 21. They land. They entertained much, Mrs. Tay-"creek. Roseburg now stands on part of experienced many hardships and priva- for always presiding, and her great viva- little boy, who was greatly interested in this land. In 1832 Perry built at Roseburg tions, but Mrs. Taylor was always cheer- city, dignity and grace of manner made the birds. the first grist mill of Douglass county. ful and hopeful and quite enjoyed the their home altogether delightful to her "That's a very easy matter," responded In 1888, he again moved, this time to Coos long journey. She was often heard to family and a large circle of friends. This the officer. "Go into the cabin where the county and settled on the Coquelle river say in later years that the months spent worthy couple fived to celebrate their birds can't see you, and I will have Jack . What an only thing it is " said the about two miles below Myrtle Poist, on the road were among the happiest of golden wedding an event long to be re-down here in no time? where Mrs. Perry assisted her husband to her life. The last week of their journey membered, especially by their plonser build their third and last home in Oregon. came near being a very disastrious one. friends. She dast as she had fived, re-At this home Mrs. Perry died in June, They were caught in the snow in the Cas-1872, at the age of 54 years and 6 months, cade mountains, and fearest that they Surrounded by her loving husband and to the side of the straimer. INE at the age of M years and a month, case mountains, and tearer that the base, surrounded by her husband andchildren, would not be able to get their teams and observed, shapping but having a handle by which it might Mrs. Perry was a true pioneer and never cattle through that winter. So it was in their beautiful Asteria nome. Some his fingers over the mill and thrusting his he lifted, and with four ejecular blind. objected to giving up a comfortable decided that Mr. Taylor should take the pronths before her death, feeling that her other hand into the pocket of his pass, holes arranged apposite to any another home, which had taken years to acquire, women and children of the party and least of life was uncertain, with her jacket. bome, which had taken years to acquire, women and children of the party and built stid off, while should be selected the spot that should and going uncomplainingly with her hus- push through to Oregon City. They were husband, she selected the spot that should and going uncomplainingly with her hus- push through to Oregon City. They were husband, she selected the spot that should and stirred will really and husband, she selected the spot that should and stirred will really and husband, she selected the spot that should and stirred will really and husband, she selected the spot that should and stirred will really and husband, she selected the spot that should and stirred will really and husband, she selected the spot that should and stirred will really and stirred w and going uncomplainingly with her hus- push through to Oregon City. They were the wagons be their resting place-in that beautiful a fluttering cloud of white wines, pro- was certainly not a preparameter of part where the wagons be their resting place-in that beautiful a fluttering cloud of white wines, pro- was certainly not a preparameter of part where the wagons be their resting place-in that beautiful a fluttering cloud of white wines, pro- was certainly not a preparameter of part where stood and the cloud of their resting place-in that beautiful a fluttering cloud of white wines, proheighbor, a true and faithful wife and them much longer and their provisions the Plant in the provisions to the Plant in the provisions that the provisions the Plant in the provisions that them much longer and their provisions the Plant in the provisions that them much longer and their provisions the Plant in the Plant in the provisions to the Plant in the provisions that them much longer and their provisions there are an loving than and brinks the plant in the provisions to the Plant in the provision to the Plant in the provision to the Plant in the provision to the Plant in the Plant of the burdens of life. There were the settlement before they had honored and blessed her incommon and honored and honored and blessed her incommon and honored and honored and blessed her incommon and honored and honored and honored and blessed her incommon and honored and honored and honored and blessed her incommon and honored and ho

"Our guide was what in the Indian saw-excepting the lady I married. Do you suggest another bottle? Well, if you

"For some time she kept closely to her winter frontier camps and hay rides, w magnificent jewel from the hears of the spine as the chiciest glory of our trood

"Wherespon I am afraid I said 'Rats!"

Sketch of Mrs. W. T. Perry and Mrs., well as for her benevolence and whole and Col. Taylor, leaving his family there heartedness. She lived to a good old age, pushed on and joined the volunteer How the Gulls Amused the Purser of struggling for the prize. seeing her children grown and settled in troops then in the field. They continued

. The above sketch was, at my request, by gulls of various colors. furnished me by one of Mrs. Taylor's "Are they laughting at us?" asked the daughters and while it is true in every bear member her myself, in my early girlhood. them their dinner. siender and graceful, with dark spackling boy. ness. She was hospitable and generous day except Sunday, indeed, a type of noble American woman-

Trask remained in Classop county until the long journey, or in all the years after service, Oakland, California; Edward A. window. Tillamook, settling on a river since herself out on the plants again. The days mixed with the popped corn in the same them as Kirkpatricks, and in the course known as Trask river. They were among year was spent in Oregon City. In 186 ent mayor of Astoria, and a prominent probably been wounded, hong directly What can our boos be thinking about to manner, being presend into shape as soon of time the effort to rectain the family the first settlers of Tillamook county and Col. Taylor bought a tract of family to shape as soon of time the effort to rectain the family of the course of the c did their share in opening up that part Classop plains, and early the following Fred R Strong so well and favorably to shake hands did their share in opening up that part Classop plains, and early the following proof it. Strong the share in opening up that part Classop plains, and early the following proof it. Strong the share in opening up that part Classop plains, and early the following plains, and early the coupling is only it for old from and the sooner it granulated sugar was belied with four of our state. Mrs. Trask lived as did spring moved as land, or only ht for old from and the officer. "He rarely misses a trip: is melted up the better."

happy and good natured disposition, as 1847; when they went back to Oregon City & Co. and Bob was missing son after. My them my laughing travelers," continued gimblet. on horseback, loved fighting and was striker, the parson, was absent, but with the purser, tossing some ment into the "What do you think" exclaimed this adored by the troopers. We had a cheerful game of hide and seek with the Indians, returned without any game, but with a killing a few, with the loss of a few of our story. Bob had been captured by the indians, travel with me all day, and are always the side of a house without taking down thoroughly expanding the purser, tossing some meat into the "What do you think?" exclaimed this thoroughly crystalized. The grains may fool "The boss has contracted to lift have a tendency to stick at first, but if travel with me all day, and are always the side of a house without taking down thoroughly stirred while the syrup is killing a few, with the loss of a few of our story. Hob had in captured by the in men, until we went into winter camp dians while outside our camp with Star laughing. Whether it is really laughing, a brick!"

As we could not follow the Indians any light. Parson suggested the plan I pur- I don't know," added the officer. "When "Nonsense! It can't be done" shricked and trystalized, and be flaky and tender Billings, major, she pretends not to be in the least sentimentally concerned over her cour vicinity, so that we would not be engagement. Now, every women is, or without winter sports in addition to those turned safe below sandown he, the guide, ought to be, for she is in good luck—any Bob and I arranged to keep the soldiers in would be shot at that time. He professed touches the ground, then they raise if Company, which was considered a clover have any woman for his wife he asks. So country is known as a 'squaw man'-that I said, at the parson's suggestion he has no reason to be a fool over getting any woman. And why Polly, I'm sure!"

The major was slient for a long time shot, a renegade from society, but a fellow guide an hour bestear out with his terry I gave the guide an hour to clear out with his boutiful daughter and seemed deeply engrossed in the ma- of considerable education. He served our nipulation of a cigarette, rolling it carefully purpose, and as we were ordered to contolosen its tolacco enough so that it she knew the takery are larger exclaimed when the imager consect.

"She took it very quistly," remarked me."

"We are now going to raise the nouse," anonneed the little Gimblet with an emphasis on the "we." would draw easily and not too easily, and talks became passable, even in winter, if a placeting just enough of the redundant freak of the weather should make them weed from one end to make a proper so, as it sometimes does, I kept the guide the major with us in camp. I gave him permission fabed this nice and precise work, lighted for a few days leave, during which he are a few days leave, during which he "Yes," and the major "I told her, at the little boy. the cigarette and blown a ring for the sat- said he would be able to make his way to Bob's request, below he proposed to her."

"I suppose has got hed until heir like ter to jump at and swallow-to his re. his home and bring his daughter back surprise—the major said with him. I thought it remarkable be Polly's, and an arrand.—New York day ?!

thoughtfully, "I'm going to tell you a could go any distance in the condition of story about Bob Billings I never told to the country, and I think now that he did but one other person, just to prove to you not—that he brought his daughter from that Bob has a right to show some delight and even surprise in winning the girl he wants."

A pretty way or remaining an extra large doorway, which makes an awkwardly large opining, to the normal size is by use excessive largrange when I'm dry; putting in a grillwork frame at the top thank you when we saw that young and one side. The decreasy then may have woman. He told to she was 16, and post a pole put across under the top piece of "A real love story," the major responded. | White the did not in the was tall, slender, grillwork, and rescens be hung and the mfortable, so that I won't have to move straight, emission of the grace and bead effect in excessingly pretry a bit while you talk." Mrs. Max took an easier chair, arranged cushions and footens, and the hames meet woman I ever

His Profesence.

The Savage-You shall be executed at once. By what means do you prefer to die? The Victim-I should like to be

The Savage-That was our-The Victim-In effigy, if you please,

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

THE LAUGHING

a Steamer and a l'assenger.

BY CHARLES F. HOLDER.

purser, who noticed his amazement, then, where they laid their speckled eggs, proved of great service to the emigration settlers were protected for five or six fond of excitement and always ready for following the motion of his hand, the which the sun hatched out. In time the of 'E, acting as guide and general as-sistant. He soon fell in love with the oughlyunders tood the Fdian charucter. from ill health, and with many family the cause of all the noise. On the gill way south, some, perhaps, joining the life, she was always ready to help others rolling steamer, sat a large white gull, across the Santa Catalina Channel. and to make and enjoy whatever pleasure swaying to and fro in its efforts to preserve its balance. On the foremast perch. ed another, while the booms and other points of vantage were similarly occupied particular, I feel that much more should No, indeed," replied the good-natured be said of that beautiful and in every purser. "I am not quite sure, but I! way exacellent woman-so well do I re- imagine that they are asking me to give

"Why, do they know you" said the ment was grace itself. Her home was "Why they follow me from San Pedro to always the perfection of order and next- the island and back, sixty miles, every

"Oh, yes, " was the rely, "but the truely said, " Mother was always ence- every other day they join me and fly on the steamer, and they all seem to be the musthend. You see it is very slippery.

are married and have families and are The most discouraging time for the pionnow respected residents of Coos county.

The most discouraging time for the pionlast sleep, within the sound of the grant this way and that in expectation than I could jump the rope, except the interception by the country of the interception of the country of the c

other pioneer women, devoting her time outst the first traine to the pioneer women, devoting her time outst the first traine to the pioneer women, devoting her time outst the first traine to the pioneer women, devoting her time outst the first traine to the pioneer women, devoting her time outst the first traine to the first traine traine to the first traine traine to the first traine to the first traine to the first train to her husband, her children and her settlement and it was their two from the firm of Taylor, Young Smoker, because he once picked up a tool kept the shop lively for several days, quarts of buttered popcorn. But instead cigar that some one threw over; but he subsiding only before a most exciting of allowing the bot syrup to harden as very soon found out his mistake. I call piece of news brought in by the fittle it cooled, the whole mass was well-stir. sued. I sent for our guide and told him they are standing on the shore, they a concert of voices how their heads so that the bill almost | "I'll believe it when I see it," said the surprise and indignation. How would be high in the air, and just then comes the tool. "I'm afraid there's a cave-in in our recover the neutenanch 'bend Starlight,' hasha. Now, what would you say "" bess's upper story." "Why, I should think they were laugh- in spite of the unbelief prevailing in the ing at something among themselves," shop, however, one bright sunny morning was the reply have a good deal to laugh about, as every nortation.

"I did once," was the reply. "And did they bugh just the same, that base, saying nothing, and apparrently thus describes them:

"I think they did," said the officer birds," said the boy.

In two or three feet of H, and caught any moment. the piece of ment he tossed, while the "Where's all your help" asked the affects of London that her nature has ful sight, as, despite the fact that the at least half a dozen men." steamer was moving rapidly, the birds of guess Mike and I and the Liftle. Her manners are simple and sincere overed overhead, without moving wing retlow can manage it," was the bose's Bhe is thoughtful of the feelings of r pinion, seemingly carried along with confident answer.

They are much tamer when there is no presently among the tools. The Saw tuz on public occasions that she honors be no around," said the purser, "and I ex- god loudly as it divided a great piece of subjects and desires to promote their comsert some time to be able to feed them timber in two, and the sound of the fort and happiness. from my hand. When I was on a steam- Slodge-hommer might have been heard. Another quality is a business-like talent er in San Francisco bay," he continued, a quarter of a mile away.

next day, and many were the pranks and tricks that they played upon the scals, the pelicans and the fishermen. If a fisherman left a fish exposed for a moment. they would alight on the beach and walk ally grasp it directly from under the little. man's eyes and fly away with resounding laugh, pursued by all the other gults, pleased, "Another turn!"

The seals were great pests, diving down and taking out the fish as they became gilled in the nots, but they had one habits that gave the "laughing travelers" an advantage. The wals would combine pleasure with work, and when they had

A GOOD THING TO DO.

Hold it back, the it down. Bind it fast and tight. Set your lips together close-Which will win the fight?

Running reckless riot? Surely that will quickly be An end of peace and quiet Strongest men of all you know

Let it go wild and free

Find it hard to do: If you try your very best, Victory for you.

Try it hard. Bring to it Firm determination. You can rule a nation.

To all the heroes who have been Tried and told and sung. Let us sold the sturdy boy What our hold his tongue.

THE LITTLE PELLOW

A Fabble. No Less Interesting the It is Modern.

Saw as the Carpenter, baying deposited a new tool in a corper of the shop, turned in its round upper section. Alterether it the Plane "I can't imagine what it can To an empful of brown sugar was added rick in the other

Why, it would disgrace a junk shop. It | For crystalized popcorn, one cupful of the tools big and little, all found them-"Anyway," continued the purser, "they selves stowed away in a wagon for trans ing the womanly queen whose reign t phrads on the "we."

taking no notice of the general contempt. One of the marked traits of the queen in which it was held.

There was a good deal of excitement right way. She shows by her demean

"my little girl often crossed with me, and But how is this going to raise the she performs it in an orderly, methodical more than once the gulls took bits of house?" inquired the Gimlet, in an inter. way. Her life at court is conducted by val of quiet. "The 'Little Pellow,' who the clock. Everybody in attendance upon The little boy made the trip across the ever he may be, that is going to help the her is required to be punctual to the minhannet several times, and always found Boss and Mike, must be a preity strong ute, and every day's arrangements are the galls. Sometimes they were joined by little fellow, though he's not very prompt carefully ordered so that she may have other birds with long delicate wings sea for he hasn't made his appearance yet." time for every detail of public business wallows, the purser said; and often away in the flurry and commotion of getfine seen-Mother Carcy's chickens. | new tool, until it was noticed that the signing public papers. Some of the gull= left the steamer at the carpenter had taken it to the cellar and She is thorough and precise in everyig island, and did not return until the placed it under a heavy piece of upright thing she does. A part of each day is ular Science Monthly.

"Aha!" said the Saw, finding itself and denly thrown uside. given so little to do that it wondered ling of the secret worries of royalty, why it had been brought at all.

and inserting one end of it into one of the herself to the conditions of constitutional round cavities of the strange tool, turned rule, under which the continuance of the body of the latter half-way around, monarchy has been possible in a revolu-At the same time it was noticed that the tionary age. by it with a very innocent air, then dn. sunken end of the house mayed up a

All the tools looked on in wonder and of her own relations to the state. almiration, and all knew new who the Her greatest virtue as a sovereign has Little Fellow was. To think that that un been her womanliness. As a wife, pretentious little object, which seemed to mother, widow and first lady of the them good for nothing but to be melted realm, she has never unsexed herself, but up, had such power within it! Even the has remained an example of womanly owner of the house came down to the cell graces of character. far to pay his respects to the Little Pol | Short of stature and without beauty of low that stood so bravely and quietly feature or grace of carriage to impress Once a year the gulls made a visit to a bearing the weight of several tens of either a well-ordered court or the throngs any emergency. Although suffering much little passenger glanced opwards and saw little birds learned to ity and made the remaining to say, while the Plane. He, her devotion to her husband's memhouse had been completed, Skw and Ham she commanded respect by her purity of cares and privations inchlental to pioneer ball that surmounted the topmast of the "laughing travelers" that journeyed daily the Augur, and all the rest, looked crest-senuine womanty qualities with its little friend the Chisel, as well as ony and her children's welfare, and her Tallen and ashamed.

"Well, my good friends, it is best not en era of progress, -Youth's Companion. to despise people that you do not understand. You should not assume that, because they are not like yourselves, they are necessarilly useless or contemptible A Queer Story of the Kilmatricks and And don't fluint your poor little posses stone, either of knowledge or of strength

the Little Fellow, otherwise known as JANE BEES BOY

A POPCORN SURPRISE

Subsey Dayre, in Youth's Companio How the Thoughtful Boy Surprised : Picnie Party.

The "thoughtful boy" popped quite a such a sacrifice. panie the other day. After dinner—the going ship bound for New York, and great event of the day—there was a good white she was somewhere in mid-Atlantic but of couls left from the fire on which the war of 1812 between England and the the coffee had been heated by the older United States broke out. The ship, when people, and they were appropriated by the nearing our scaboard, was overtaken by large who then produced a dozen oars of a British cruser, which put her about poscorn, a bottle of syrup, a bag of sugar and casorted her to Hallier, Nova-Scotia, and a corn-popper, together with an ac- The officer in command of the cruiser ommoduting sister, who fad several re- declared his intention of impressing sattceipts for preparing the corn.

Fresh buttered popoors was the first sengercorn was just into this, and stirred well-now respected residents of Cook country.

In December 1842 a pair of twin girls were of their long journey. When they expect—old "Pacific" whose never enting more it was not assured the long journey. When they expect—old "Pacific" whose never enting more it was not assured to the long journey. When they expect—old "Pacific" whose never enting more it was not assured to the line attract a bit of meat into the air, which a spoon until it was peace was restored the two Kirkpatrick born to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor was often of Colonel and Mrs. Taylor are force to get back their plains, Harriet and Martha; after these of civilization. Mrs. Taylor was often red of civilization. Taylor was often r all made unfavorable comments. I was then bolled with a tempoonful of back. Those who had come to know Track remained in Classop county until the long journey, or in all the years wished the summer of 1851 when they removed to wards, and that many times she wished the summer of 1851 when they removed to wards, and that many times she wished to see it start the first the first the first the first the first the first them as Kilpstricks refused to know mixed with the popped carn in the same them as Kilpstricks, and in the course > tablespoonfuls of water until ready to not, they may be kept well separated when cool enough to serve.

> > THE WOMANLY QUEEN

Something About Victoria's Sterling Per sonal Qualities.

When the world has united in honor without a parallel in English bistory, and give them a feast, and they all know anounced the little Gimblet with an em- of the personal qualifies that have not And then there was a general laugh deared her to her subjects, and r ndered as they saw the new tool in a corner of her the most useful sovereign of the the wagon. It still stood on its tell-like century. Our correspondent in England

Is fact. "Gracious" is the word that it "Then I think they are very cheerful. The wagen, with the boss and his men, most frequently used when her name jogged along out of the town, taking π is mentioned. It is kindness of heart "So they are," laughed the purser, country rout, and finally stopping in that enables her to set visitors at eas "Here, Tom," he called, holding up his front of an old-fashloned brick house when they are presented to her, and t hand; whereupon a gull approached with- that looked as if it might fall over at convince the multitudes who witnesses her triumphal progress through the other birds came howring about house-owner, coming out to meet the car- not been hardened, but softened and To the little passenger it was a wonder- penter. "I expected that you would bring swistlenest by sixty years of exalted others, and says the right thing in the for retening. She has work to do, and and courtly ceremontal. She never allows atern, a cloud of little black tirds might to work every one seemed to forget the herself to be hurried in examining and timber supporting the sunken corner of taken up with the business of state, What remains is divided so that she has time for an afternoon drive, social life at "Oho" said the Plane, which had been hold and adequate rest. She knows noth-court, the direction of the royal house, Another trait is sterling common sense And now Mike grasped a thick iron bar, Throughout her reign she has adapted

She has respected the will of the people in every election; she has taken no "All right, Mike," said the boss, well interest in party politics; she has followed the advice of the ministers of the day; The next turn of the little tool revealed and she has shown sound judgment in he presence of a powerful screw inside making the crown the instrument of With every turn of the lever more of popular government. One prime minister the screw appeared, and with a success after another has found her a capable, sion of gentle little creaks the side of the experienced ruler, well informed in home house went up as if by the aid of magic, and foreign affairs, and with clear ideas of sightnesers crowding the streets When the work of straightening the through which she passed on Jubilee days, Eligabeth, with her inflexible will and Perhaps because the wise Spirit-level hard, masculine order of mind, was a had been silent so long it felt that it had kingly queen in a iron age of conquest. a right to be heard now, so it took breath Victoria has been a womanly quest in a home-loving empire, relating in a gold.

HOW A NAME WAS CHANGED.

the Kirkpatricks. A gentleman fixing in Boston teld an you must all now appear in the eyes of how some of his blood relatives hapinteresting story, the other day, shout petied to have a family name different from his own: It so me that during the treestions in Scotland these porticular hirkpatricks went over to frefand and settled in Belfast. Subsequently the head of the family come across the cest, and, as soon as he was establish.

ed, sent for his wife to join him, bringing with her their four sons, two of whom were old enough to make stripling sofilers had some exigency demanded folightful surprise upon his friends at a The fourney was undertaken in a slow-ors and soldiers from among the pasom on the program. When a popier. A mother having more than two years rul of corn was ready, all the round and would have to give up all over that and in one of the tins a temporarial of Mrs. Kirkpotrick, who was a quick-wife of butter was placed and method, with ted woman, instantly planned a ruse, half a freespoonful of salt added. The which she testified in her own mind by

Top of column, next to pure reading matter. -Printers' Ink.

A Popular Street Masher.

In older times Korea had public schools. For centuries it has had none. Private Buddhists have no schools, but have stated schools are kept in private houses. No land. In honny Confucian temples free classes are supported by the priests, but only Confucian doctrines are taught times of teaching and expounding .- Professor Edward S. Morse in Appleton's Pop-

—San Francisco Examiner.