WHAT BENEFIT?

The only reply to the requests of the committee on the outside railroads for subscriptions to the regatta fund were received yesterday from the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Northwest.

INSPECTION TRIP.

The first inspection trip over the new line east of the city was made by President Hammond Monday morning, accompanied by A. J. Megler, Captain Matthews, W. B. Scott and General Manager R. Koshier, of the Southern Pacific.

ATTENTION ALL.

Every indication points to a much larger number of visitors to the regatta than the hotels can possibly accommodate. All private citizens having room to spare are earnestly requested to hand in their addresses to the secretary at the headquarters on Eleventh street, so that apartments can be assigned.

NOTICE TO BOATS.

All sloops, fish boats and sailing craft of every description and all steamers and launches intending to participate in the regatta parade are requested to hand in their addresses to the secretary at the headquarters on Eleventh street, so that they may be decorated.

NOW IS THE TIME

Don't delay your subscriptions to the regatta fund. The event is becoming so much more popular and successful than was anticipated by the most enthusiastic friends of the regatta that the committee needs all the funds that can be had.
