All communications intended for publication should be directed to the editor. Business communications of all kinds and remittances must be addressed to "The Astorian." The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

The regatta and carnival closed last evening. Astorians have the satisfaction of knowing that the 1897 event was the greatest in the history of her annual festes. An exceptionally good managing committee had charge of the affair, and had the support of the people and transportation lines to an extent heretofore unknown.

Few in the city realize that every day Astoria's opportunity for great advancement in her commercial business is slipping further and further out of sight.

If you see a man with a particularly beaming countenance, avoid him—he is almost surely going to tell you about that marvelous infant that is too new yet for him to have grown quite accustomed to it.

supposed. It has been unfortunate that the lovely stretch of land lying between the ocean beach and the Necanicum, and south for perhaps two miles from the mouth of that stream, has never been in the hands of men of good business ability.

There is not a more picturesque and at the same time a more salubrious and convenient location for a modern seaside hotel than that known by the far from euphonious title of "Grimes' grove"; yet a spirit of individual narrowness or shortsighted greed has retarded its development and given opportunity to places not nearly so favorably situated by nature to forge ahead.

Pioneer methods at a summer resort will do for pioneer times, but the public from which these places draw their patronage has outgrown the primitive methods that sufficed to make a seashore resort attractive fifteen or twenty years ago, and demands something in the line of modern conveniences in exchange for its money at these places.

A HEALTHY BODY AND A CLEAR HEAD.

If indigestion, constipation and biliousness torment the body, the head cannot be clear. These disorders react upon the brain most hurtfully, and produce a cloudiness in the organ of thought not experienced by a healthy man.

"Let me give you a pointer," said M. F. Gregg, a popular conductor on the Missouri Pacific railroad. "Do you know that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cures you when you have the stomach ache? Well, it does."

"The Feet of a Fly"

says an eminent English doctor, "You'll carry enough poison to infect a household." In summer time, more especially, disease germs fill the air, and these germs are carried, till they get to the lungs, by the wind.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil, is condensed nourishment; food for the building up of the system to resist the attacks of disease. It should be taken in reasonable doses all summer long by all those whose weight is below the standard of health.

Beautiful eyes grow tall and dim As the swift year steal away. Beautiful, willowy forms so slim Lose fairness with every day. But she still is queen and hath charms to spare Who wears youth's coronal—beautiful hair.

Preserve Your Hair

and you preserve your youth. "A woman is as old as she looks," says the world. No woman looks as old as she is if her hair has preserved its normal beauty.

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

A REMARKABLE CURE OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.

In 1882, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 15th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief.

The sign "Miraculous waters not charged" does not indicate that you can drink yourself into insensibility without paying the usual little checks at the cashier's desk.

Carelessness in girlhood causes the greatest suffering and unhappiness in after life. Little irregularities and weaknesses in girls should be looked after promptly and treatment given at once.

It is almost as trying on the feminine dwellers in a hotel to be obliged to pick out what they wish to eat as if they were forced to go to market every day.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so.

It is much better to use cold coffee on your growing plants than to warm it up for your growing family.

Not one complaint has ever been made by those using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, according to directions. Furthermore, we have not to learn of a case in which it has failed to afford relief.

As cold water of temperature below thirty-six has a voice of white shuffles and a cold and heavy head point here.

Don't mistake your stomach with tea and bitter herbs, but regulate your liver and attack headache by using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Travel and hypodermic strips will meet you but cannot help you.

Great satisfaction is manifested by many persons whose hair has been restored to its natural color by using Hair's Hair Restorer, a preparation of unadulterated milk.

THE OBJECTION NOT GOOD.

There are people who have objections to advertising matter in the columns of a newspaper. The ground of objection is that they do not want to read advertisements. Now this objection is not good, for oftentimes these advertisements convey valuable information.

John Griffith, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled.

Ready-made raffings of muselinos and Persian organes for skirts are a feature of the lace counters.

You cannot say that you have tried everything for your rheumatism, until you have taken Ayer's Pills. Hundreds have been cured of this complaint by the use of these pills.

White hats are seen trimmed with big bunches of white violets, with immense green leaves.

Me. C. L. Hasbrouck, a druggist at Mendon, Mich., says all of the good testimonials that have been published by the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy could be duplicated in that town.

Interceded ribbons form a panel on white satin, and every square is caught with a Rhinestone.

It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of De Witt's Little Early Riser. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, letter, eczema and all skin troubles may be cured by it quickly and permanently.

"I crave but One Minute," said the public speaker in a husky voice, and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure and proceeded with his oratory.

For business wear, the proper shirt waist is of alpaca wash silk, or silk finished gingham.

"They don't make much fuss about it," We are speaking of De Witt's Little Early Riser, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles.

If you must hold your gown up, practice before the glass, and learn to do it gracefully.

Vim, vigor and victory—these are the characteristics of De Witt's Little Early Riser, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles.

Ever so many designs in kid and leather belts are developed in bright tints and greens.

Burning, itching skin diseases instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, unequalled for cuts, bruises, burns. It heals without leaving a scar.

If you want the baby to be quite up to date buy it a plique coat and bonnet.
