All communications intended for publication should be directed to the editor. Business communications of all kinds and remittances must be addressed to "The Astorian."

The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be had on application to the business manager.

The Weekly Astorian, the second oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state. John F. Handley Co. are our Portland agents, and copies of the Astorian can be had every morning at their stand, 124 Third street.

There are a number of objections to Mr. Bryan, but the greatest is that he preaches the gospel of discontent. In hard times such as we are passing through, when all men agree that things are out of joint, it is the duty of everybody, especially those who set themselves up as leaders, to calmly, fairly and dispassionately ascertain the cause, and to peacefully suggest a remedy. Mr. Bryan would have us believe that everybody who has been unfortunate in business is a slave, and everybody who has a dollar is a tyrant. That the slave should strike for liberty and the tyrant should be crushed to earth. That prejudice and passion should take the place of fairness and calmness. That revolution is better than conservatism.

The fact that an important port like Astoria has gone all these years without a government quarantine station certainly reflects either upon the people of Astoria or Oregon's representatives in congress, in a way which is not altogether flattering. It is, in fact, a matter of the highest importance to the entire state of Oregon that there should be a quarantine station at the mouth of the Columbia. With from seventy-five to a hundred and twenty-five foreign vessels arriving in this port from Japan, China, India, Australia, Honolulu, South America and Europe, it is highly essential that all danger of the spread of contagious diseases should be stopped at the very mouth of the river, instead of permitting vessels to come up the stream and dock at Astoria or Portland, or resorting to the alternative of turning the ships about and sending them to Port Townsend, Port Orchard or San Francisco for quarantine. The United States government owns Sand Island, just off Lewis and Clark, and just within the harbor where a quarantine station can be established without danger to commerce passing through the main channel, and without danger to the cities of Astoria, Ilwaco or Chinook, and of convenient access to the port officials. It is certainly to be hoped that those now pushing this matter with our congressmen will be successful in their efforts, and that the people and the press of the state of Oregon will heartily support a movement of such vital importance to all.

Much is being said throughout the country about the poor farmer and his support of the general government and the people at large, and his lack of protection under tariff bills and like measures of congress, when all values and all business successes hinge upon the farmer's prosperity. It is well to remember that the producer from the soil is the most independent man on earth, and that all others more or less depend upon him; but if his avocation was so highly protected that everybody would rush into the farming business there would be no consumers and his protection would amount to nothing. It will be found by experience that the Dingley bill probably affords all the protection demanded by the farming interests of the country. The farmer's best protection is in the establishment and maintenance of factories employing thousands of workmen receiving wages enabling them to buy the farmer's product, and the extension of American farm produce into all the markets of the world. Establish a merchant marine that will carry our goods to every land, and in every year there will always be found some corner of the earth which will want our wheat, corn, wool and potatoes. These principles are the farmer's best protective tariff.

WHEAT AND SILVER.

Maurice Halstead.

We notice in The Journal that "stocks respond to the rise of wheat." Will the farmers look this over? They are the fellows who are exciting Wall street. It is their wheat on the way to markets at home and abroad that booms railroad stocks. It is not water in the stock that is doing it, but wheat. We hope the inflation of values by the virtues of wheat is no objectionable. The embittered and inflammatory Alford is raising the false cry that wheat should be about two dollars a bushel. It would be worth cheaper than ever; that the modern improvements in machinery that interfere for a time and superficially, in some industries, cheapen the white bread to the workingman; and then, again when the many millions of the grand army of labor become consumers of wheat, they increase and steady the demand for it. Wheat is still rising. It was sold yesterday for immediate exportation for over one dollar a bushel, and the dollar is as good as gold right here, where the Cleveland and Carlisle theories were so successful and rampant for reform of the currency when they lost their party and had nothing to do, and could not have done anything if it had been put into their hands. Wheat will probably jump higher and stay there, and silver drop lower, and stay down, for a while, and the populists will mourn with the whang-doodle, and the silver democrats roar as the hawk and the wind-blown demagogue beat their own chests with their own wings, as the pheasant pounds himself when he sits in the shadows of the underbrush and meditates to the sound of his own drum.

A TRIED REMEDY FOR BILIOUSNESS.

Those who suffer from disorder or inaction of the liver will never get the upper hand of the unruly organ so long as they use such irrational remedies as blue pill, calomel and podophyllin. But from the tried and popular medicine, Hockett's Stomach Bitters, they may expect relief with a certainty of obtaining it. The influence of the Bitters upon the great biliary gland is direct, powerful and speedily felt. The relief afforded is not spasmodic, but complete and permanent. The sallowness of the skin, furred appearance of the tongue, indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, pains through the right side and shoulder, in fact every accompaniment of the obstinate complaint are entirely and promptly removed by a course of this inestimable medicine, in behalf of which testimony is constantly emanating from every quarter, and from all classes of society.

It is not always well to jump to conclusions regarding a woman's coiffure. Do not deem her hopelessly untidy until you are sure that she is not passing through that annoying stage known to the feminine initiated as "the day after shampooing."

The camel is a beast of great strength and endurance. Nothing hurts it until the proverbial "last straw" is added to its burden. The human digestive system is very much like a camel. It is really astonishing how much abuse it will stand. Sometimes, however, something worse than usual will be eaten, and will go through the stomach into the bowels, and there it will stick—that constipation. Nine-tenths of all common sickness is due to constipation. Some of the simplest symptoms are coated tongue and foul breath, dizziness, heartburn, flatulence, salivaceous, distress, headache, and lassitude. A little thing will cause constipation, and a little thing will relieve it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a certain cure for constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, mild and natural in their action. There is nothing injurious about them. Sold by all druggists.

Why is it that nine out of ten cases where a man murders his wife and endeavors to end his own miserable existence that the sequel is summed up in these words: "There are chances of the murderer's recovery?"

Not one complaint has ever been made by those using Ayer's Sarsaparilla according to directions. Furthermore, we have yet to learn of a case in which it has failed to afford benefit. So say hundreds of druggists all over the country. Has cured others, will cure you.

Losing Flesh

You naturally lose flesh in the summer and running down is so easy. You get a little weaker each day without hardly noticing it. There is loss of appetite, headache, weakness of the muscles, disturbed sleep, weakness of memory, and these are the beginning of nervous prostration. Iron and tonics and bitters may afford some temporary relief, but what you need is a food for body, brain and nerves.

Scott's Emulsion.

of Cod-liver Oil with the Hypophosphites, furnishes just the nourishment needed for those who are run down and pale and thin and weak. If you lose flesh in summer take Scott's Emulsion now. Don't wait till fall or winter before beginning.

For sale at 50c and $1.00 by all druggists.

A REMARKABLE CURE OF CHRONIC DIARRHŒA.

In 1882, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 16th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhœa. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 5-cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, HENRY STEINBERGER, Allentown, Pa. Sold by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

What is there attractive in a case filled with false teeth? Something, surely, judging by the groups that cluster about these advertisements of dental skill displayed on certain thoroughfares.

"Let me give you a pointer," said M. F. Gregg, a popular conductor on the Missouri Pacific railroad. "Do you know that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy cures you when you have the stomach ache? Well, it does." And after giving this friendly bit of advice, the jolly conductor passed on down the aisle. It is a fact that thousands of railroad and traveling men never take a trip without a bottle of this Remedy, which is the best cure for bowel disorders in the world. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

It is considered very bad luck to remove your wedding ring, but you can't convince a widow of this when she takes off the first one to give place to the second.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist of Olney, Mo.; and he has used the remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for years, he should certainly know. For sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

Even the least experienced traveler has a way of making attendants do more running up and down stairs than even a sudden outbreak of fire would necessitate.

John Griffith, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering again, until a box of Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Charles Rogers.

There is a time for everything; and the time to attend to a cold is when it starts. Don't wait till you have consumption but prevent it by using One Minute Cough Cure, the great remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Charles Rogers.

Many men sporting fine diamonds have not as much money in their pockets as the gray-haired laborer whose presence offends their refined tastes.

You can't say that you have tried everything for your rheumatism, until you have taken Ayer's Pile Remedy. Hundreds have been cured of this complaint by the use of these little pills. They were admitted on exhibition at the World's Fair as a standard cathartic.

The newspaper correspondent of the seashore is the feminine flit, but finds when he returns to town that he is not such a great personage after all.

Mr. C. L. Hasbrouck, a druggist at Mendon, Mich., says all of the good testimonials that have been published by the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy could be duplicated in that town. For sale by Estes-Conn Drug Co.

If you wish to imagine you have every ill that flesh is heir to read the symptoms of diseases in a medical work. You will have every one of them.

Don't nauseate your stomach with teas and bitter herbs, but regulate your liver and sick headache by using those famous little pills known as Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers. Charles Rogers.

THE OBJECTION NOT GOOD.

There are people who have objections to advertising matter in the columns of a newspaper. The ground of objection is that they do not want to read advertisements. Now this objection is not good, for oftentimes these advertisements convey valuable information. For instance, how else would the traveling public learn of the excellent dining car service of the Wisconsin Central lines between St. Paul and Chicago, or the general comfort of traveling over this popular line. For particulars call on the nearest ticket agent or address J. C. Pond, G. P. A., Milwaukee, Wis., or Geo. S. Batty, General Agent, 214 Stark street, Portland, Or.

A KIDNAPING BOOK.

The Chicago Record's book for gold seekers is now ready. A reader of this book will know more of Alaska and the wonderful Klondike district than he could learn by months of personal observation and research on the ground. In comparison with other works on the subject it is the "Webster's Dictionary of Alaska,"—a perfect and peerless volume at once. It tells of the richest and most extensive gold fields the world has ever known—how they were discovered—facts already unexplored—two years' work already in sight—Where is the mother lode?—The fortunes already made—How to get there—R. R. fare and other expenses from all points—Medical hints—Climate—Official maps—Government reports—All land and water routes—Projected railroads—Mining laws—Customs. In brief, all that is known of this wonderful land of fabulous wealth. It is the only authentic, practical book, official and endorsed. About 500 pages. Handsomely bound in art canvas. Price, $1.50.

Agents are wanted to handle this valuable work. It is a chance of a life time. Experience is not necessary, as full instructions are sent and the whole people are clamoring for the book. Reports from agents just started show wonderful success. Sales run as high as 20 books an hour. Big commissions and valuable premiums are allowed. Credit is given and freight paid. It is an opportunity to win a competence in a short time. The book is not sold through book stores or newspapers. Complete canvassing outfit will be mailed for 25 cents. To place where we have no agent, a full copy of the book will be sent to customers, prepaid, on receipt of price. Address, exactly, Monroe Book Company, department K, 279 Chicago.

It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, tetter, eczema and all skin troubles may be cured by it quickly and permanently. Charles Rogers.

The man whom a woman really cares for is always the one to imagine that he is the one who is being treated the worst.

"I craved but One Minute," said the public speaker in a husky voice; and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure and proceeded with his oratory. One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled for throat and lung troubles. Charles Rogers.

Don't assume a ruffian, lest you if you can't keep it in good condition. Silken tatters are as tawdry as paste diamonds.

"They don't make much fuss about it." We are speaking of Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles. They never gripe. Charles Rogers.

The linen bicycle gown is not altogether a thing of beauty after coming in contact with a layer of graphite.

Vim, vigor and victory—these are the characteristics of Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness and all stomach and liver troubles. Charles Rogers.

Though the tip-tilted hat is said to be going out, it certainly retains its hold on feminine favor a long while.

Burning, itching skin diseases instantly relieved by Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, unequalled for cuts, bruises, burns. It heals without leaving a scar. Charles Rogers.
