AROUND TOWN.

SUNDAY.

Oh, friend, let us be true To one another. —Arnold.

Mrs. Granville has returned from Gearhart.

Cucumbers, very cheap, at Ross, Higgins & Co.'s.

Fine cabbage for kraut at Ross, Higgins & Co.'s.

Lemons at great reduction at Ross, Higgins & Co.'s.

In the police court yesterday, John Doe forfeited $20 for fighting.

Ice cream and other refreshments at the lawn party on Friday evening.

At the bowling alleys, yesterday, Herman Wise made the high score of 66.

Ask for sample of Chase & Sanborn's famous teas, at Ross, Higgins & Co.'s.

Jack Peterson, Neils Olsson and Sol Coplinger have gone to Klondike via Seattle.

For roofing and skylights go to the Astoria Roofing and Cornice Co., 34 Ninth street.

Miss Mallet, of San Francisco, and Miss Scott, of Portland, are visiting in the city.

A large horn of plenty was delivered at Fisher Bros.' store yesterday evening.

Mr. Zora Snow, the well-known railroad lawyer of Portland, was in the city yesterday.

If your tea is not good, why don't you drink water? It is cheaper and better for you than poor tea.

If it is good, your stomach is glad to get it; does its work better.

Schilling's Best is good tea—at grocers' in packages.

A Schilling & Company San Francisco

Charles Loomis, who a short time ago had his eye badly hurt by a spike while doing some work on one of the streets, is now improving.

Last chance to buy dry goods at less than half price, at the Great Sacrifice Sale of Cohen's stock, 401 Bond street, corner of Eleventh street.

When you want a real life-like and artistic photo, don't fail to call on Snodgrass. The work he is turning out now is ahead of anything ever made in Astoria before.

Merchants yesterday reported business as being exceptionally good. A large number of visitors were in from the country, and the fine weather brought out the townspeople.

Miss Clara Young, eldest daughter of Hon. Benjamin Young, returned yesterday from Europe, where she spent two years in prosecuting her studies in music and art.

Silk waists, silk dressing gowns, silk wrappers and silk skirts at prices to close regardless of value, for the next 10 days, at the Great Sacrifice Sale of Cohen's stock, 401 Bond street, corner of Eleventh street.

The county judge and commissioners yesterday returned from Bear creek, where they inspected roads and bridges. The new road from Howell Lewis' place at the ferry to Knappa will soon be opened.

In the county court yesterday, an order was issued for the final settlement of the A. K. Barrows estate and the administrator was discharged. An order was also entered for the sale of personal property in the estate of Martha Goodwin.

In the justice court yesterday, the case of the state vs. Blaser and Milbousen, accused of setting fire to the forests on the Klatskanie, was tried. The settlement of the matter was referred to Chris Peterson, who will make a special trip to the scene of the fire and report his investigations to the court.

The water hydrant at the corner of Ninth and Duane street burst yesterday afternoon, flooding the entire district north. The court house yard was converted into a lake, in which the small children and dogs paddled to their hearts' content. The department promptly repaired the break.

E. W. Rowe, Zora Snow, Roderick L. Mackey, Portland; Robert Livingston, Drumtoehey; W. J. Honeyman, Drumalt; William Mackenzie, Neschox; J. Smith, Sioux City, Ia.; J. E. Gerlick, St. Paul; Harwood Morgan, Seattle; H. S. Elliott, Chehalis; John Brown, North Cove; C. H. Callender, Knappa, registered at the Occident yesterday.

Word was received yesterday from Ogden that the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wattis, born in Astoria about a year ago, died in Ogden September 5, after a brief illness. This affliction, falling upon the bereaved parents within five months after the death of their daughter Florence, has caused keen sorrow to their many Astoria friends.

Music-lovers of Astoria have a rare treat in store for them. The ladies of the Library Association have secured Mrs. Walter Reed, the first contralto of Portland, and Miss Agnes Watt, the leading soprano of the First Unitarian church of Portland, for a recital, to be given early in Astoria. The date of the entertainment will be announced later.

The Clatsop Mill Company is so rushed with orders that it is necessary to run the mill day and night. They are now working on a large order for boxes from San Francisco, and five teams are now kept busy all day hauling the shooks to the dock for shipment on the next steamer, which will carry 500 tons, being the largest consignment ever made at one time by this mill.

Mr. Johnson, one of the superintendents for Honeyman, De Hart & Co., the railroad contractors, who was in the city yesterday, said that the report published in an evening paper the other day, that they had lost the railroad contract, was a fabrication, pure and simple. As stated in the Astorian some time since, the work is being pushed more vigorously, and wages have been raised. It is still a matter of uncertainty whether Corey Bros. will assist in finishing the job.

105 STORES IN OPERATION.

Last evening a very pleasant little party was given at Kearney's hall by the Misses Clara Simpson and Winnie Holt. Progressive games, for which prizes were awarded, dancing, music, and a short literary program, filled out the evening's entertainment. Delicate refreshments were served at midnight.

The John Day temporary railroad bridge was removed yesterday, to make place for the new steel bridge. A large work train and gang of men are on the east side of the river and well supplied with rails and ties. While the new bridge is being erected, they will lay the rails as fast as possible. The track is already considerably beyond Svensen's. When the supply of rails is exhausted the men will commence surfacing the track until such time as the bridge is finished and more rails can be had. Contractor Wakefield expects to have the bridge done in ten days or two weeks time.

The most beautifully decorated stone window ever seen in Astoria was completed last evening by H. H. Ingalls and Gus Hillebrand at the Ford & Stokes Company's store. The window is the central one on the Commercial street front. A forest of young trees planted on a good imitation of the Nehalem hills. On the ground at the foot of the trees are seen all manner of small animals and fowl. In the branches above them are birds of all kinds, sizes and colors, from the tiniest humming bird to the large owl and hawk perched high above. There are 10 specimens in the window, all of them having been collected in the Nehalem and mounted by a local artist. The specimens are excellent ones, and are certainly most artistically displayed.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

Astoria Four Hundred Royally Entertained at Knappa.

A merry party of young people from Astoria were delightfully entertained at Knappa Friday evening by Mr. Chas. Callender.

The party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Helborn, Mrs. Will Warren and Mrs. Horace Thing, left Astoria at 8 o'clock on the Winona, returning at 1:30 a. m. by the light of the moon. The entertainment was given in honor of Miss Mae Lynam, of San Jose, Cal., who has been visiting Miss Pearl Holden, and will return home Tuesday. Mr. Callender is a royal entertainer. Dancing to the music Weavers' orchestra, instrumental selections by Miss Laura Fox, and vocal music filled in the hours, which were only too short. A sumptuous luncheon was served at midnight, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. On the return trip the full moon, shining through an extremely clear atmosphere, produced a charming effect on the water. Among the guests were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Callender, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Helborn, Mrs. W. E. Warren, Mrs. H. D. Thing, Misses Pearl Holden, Mae Lynam, Louise Tallant, Olga Helborn, Nan Reed, Nellie Sherman, Harriet Tallant, Sadie Crang, Gene Lewis, Mollie Morris, Maud Stockton, Susie Elmore, Polly McKean, Clarabelle Botte, Alice Wood, Frankie Holden, Violet Bowler, Laura Fox, Rose Scott, Hattie Mallett, Mansour, Chambers, Messrs. E. G. Roberts, C. H. Callender, W. A. Sherman, R. E. Carruthers, Dr. A. A. Finch, F. D. Shields, R. F. Wilson, C. R. Higgins, J. P. Badollet, Walter Moore, Chas. Helborn Jr., C. C. Berkeley, Dr. R. T. Burnett, John Young, S. T. McKean Jr., J. R. A. Bennett, L. E. Howe, Geo. Johnston.

MAYNARD-COFFEE CONTEST.

A happy contingent of sports assembled last evening at Erickson's Lounge to witness the 20-round contest between the "little fellows." Fred Maynard, the clever little bantam, of San Francisco, who never gets left in a draw in any contest, and Jack Coffey, an ambitious little pugilist who hails from Portland were the principals. Kid Maynard is a favorite with the boxing element of this city, as he has often sparred here, and, although handicapped by weight and other odds, has invariably given a clever account of himself.

The fight was called at 10:30. Coffey was to the beat over ten pounds and stood several inches over his doughy little antagonist. The entire twenty rounds were fought out and during the main contest Coffey was exhibited by both contestants. At the end of the twelfth round, both men appearing in good condition, Referee Nace Grant pronounced the fight a draw.

During the contest, Jack Hays, of Portland, who officiated as Coffey's second, took offense at some remarks of Tommy Morris, directed at the ring, and challenged Morris to get in the ring. Morris, with his usual sangfroid, quickly accepted the challenge, and after the little fellows had finished, the big one went on. Neither man was in boxing costume and the bout was decidedly impromptu. Hays is somewhat larger than his stocky opponent, but in ten rounds was not able to make good his brag about outdoing Morris. It was a very clumsy exhibition, and Hays did not carry the good will of the crowd for being too provous.
