THE BICYCLE IN TIME OF WAR

REPORT OF JAMES MOSS, 25TH INFANTRY OF ITS USES.

Horses Cannot Be Abandoned—Bikes and Horses Have Their Places in Which Each is Superior.

Washington, September 21.—The war department has made public the report of James Moss, 25th Infantry, who commanded the bicycle corps which made the long journey from Fort Missoula, Mont., to St. Louis last summer.

The bicycle has a number of advantages over the horse—it does not require as much care, it needs no forage, moves much faster over fair roads.

On the other hand, in rainy weather, etc., the horse is superior. The very thought of the bicycle doing away with the cavalry is ludicrous.

Germany Content. Not Frightened Over the Franco-Russian Alliance.

London, September 21.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily News says: It is learned from a high source that Germany's want of alarm over the Franco-Russian alliance is thought to be due to an existing understanding between Russia, Germany, France and Austria.

Germany finds satisfaction in security from attack. She will thus be at leisure to develop her internal resources, postponing any dispute with France.
