RED LETTER SALE

The spirit of '49 is abroad again. Next spring will witness a commercial commotion that will send the thrill of progress coursing through the arteries of commerce. Riches will come to those who will be prepared to reach out for them and hustle; to every one who will watch the tide and take it at its flood. Where we shall be? What we shall do? When we shall strike? 'That is the question. Wherever and whenever the tide of prosperity shall flow, there we intend to be, but we must be prepared, and we intend to so prepare ourselves at any cost. We will sacrifice our
