visit Wise before the stock is depleted.

Contractor Normile has made a good start on the improvement of Bond street west of Ninth. The local lumber mills have all of the material already cut and ready for the work, so that there will be no delay for lack of lumber. Normile says he believes in patronizing home industry when possible.

A certain Uppertown policeman and a citizen had a little difference of opinion last night. The citizen claimed the officer was off his beat and had no right to meddle with him west of 12th street. For a time matters looked a little warm, but finally were settled without bloodshed, the officer withdrawing.

A pleasant afternoon tea was given yesterday by Miss McKean, in honor of her cousin, Miss Charibel Battee, of San Jose. Progressive proverbs was the leading amusement. The parlors were daintily decorated with roses, sweet peas and ferns. Among the guests were the Misses Nellie and Katie Flavel, Helborn, Reed, Bowley, Battee, McKean, Woods, Tallant, Hattie Tallant, Sherman, Upshur, Sayre, Lewis, Nims.

Mr. George Connors, who has been connected with the Western Union for some years past, is going to Reno, Nev., to work for the company. Mr. Connors has become an efficient operator and has fallen into a very lucrative position. He will work with Foreman Morrison, who superintended the construction of the line between Astoria and Seaside, and will leave next Tuesday. The young gentleman has a host of friends in the city who will congratulate him on his good fortune.

A hunting party made a start last evening for the North Shore with the expectation of having a jolly time. They had all the accessories for such an occasion, besides guns and ammunition. Among the party were Messrs. McDonald, Brice, Howes, Brendes, Hanson, Dell, Brown, Frael and McLean. Just as the boat was shoving off Brice, loaded down with a gun, ammunition, grub, tackle and candy, sunk his foot in a hole and fell overboard. He was soon fished out, changed his clothes and rejoined the party. All of his effects were lost, except the gun.

LOVE'S STRANGE POWER.

Love has long been recognized as one of the strongest influences upon human affairs in the world. Through it kingdoms are made and unmade, happiness is secured or misery entailed. One of the strongest instances of this mighty power occurred in Joliet, Ill., the 26th of September. Mrs. E. Z. Clow, of that city, sister of Mrs. Alex. Campbell, of Astoria, on that date died of a broken heart over the loss of her 18-year-old daughter Mary, who was carried away the night before by the diphtheria consumption. The sad news was received here yesterday through the columns of a Joliet paper.

The young girl had been ailing for some time, but the mother could not believe in the fatality of the disease. When the blow came she was overpowered, and for hours mourned at the deathbed and pleaded for the life of her beloved child.
Finally, overcome by her emotions and love for the one gone on before, she exclaimed, "I can stand it no longer," and died. A double grief was precipitated upon the home and two funerals were held upon the same day. Mrs. Clow was 44 years of age and leaves a husband, several children, sisters and brothers.

THE WEEK IN THE ALLEYS.

The week on the alleys has been an interesting one. The match game between the ladies and gentlemen was the principal feature, and the victory of the gentlemen by a single pin is considered remarkable.

Last night there was some excellent boxing. Two teams of ten men made very good scores. The winning teams and scores follow.

Herman Wise 55, Percy B. Sovey 45.
C. J. Trenchard 35, F. Woodfield 25, J. E.
Higgins 35, J. Strauss 34, G. Gillette 34.
Gus Woods 33, P. A. Fisher 30, Dr. Beckman 25. This is an average of 263.

Mr. Wise boxed in fine form yesterday. In seven games he averaged 44.7.
His scores were 63, 50, 55, 53, 50 and 54. This is the best average for that number of games ever made on the local alleys.

The daily records for the week are as follows:

Gentlemen—Monday, 34, J. D. McGovern; Tuesday, 35, M. M. Picken; Wednesday, 36, H. Wise; Thursday, 30, Chas.
McDonald; Friday, 45, H. Wise; Saturday, 61, H. Wise. Ladies—Tuesday, 4, Mrs.
Normile; Wednesday, 46, Mrs. Stine; Thursday, 60, Mrs. Stine; Friday, 51, Mrs. Dellinger.

The alleys were very slow Friday night, which accounts for the low scores.
Mr. Wise offered an oyster supper to the person making 50, but although all the good bowlers were playing, his score of 67 stood.

No man or woman can enjoy life or accomplish much in this world while suffering from a torpid liver. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the pills that cleanse that organ, quickly. Charles Rogers.

After the world has ceased wondering why a certain woman marries a certain man, it comes as a great shock when the old-fashioned reason of being in love with him is discovered to be the right answer to their queries.

THE CHURCH.

God holds the key of all unknown,
And I am glad;
If other hands should hold the key,
Or if He trusted it to me, I might be sad.

I cannot read his future plan,
But this I know,
I have the smiling of his face,
And all the refuge of his grace, While here below.

Enough; this covers all my want,
And so I rest;
For what I cannot He can see,
And in His care I sure shall be Forever blest.
