Hometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up to keep out sicknesswhen he is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other sight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on, looked to me like this; with increasing suffering, until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, sinking spells," digestive disturbances, and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Over thirty years ago the need for a reliable remedy for so-called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. R. V. Pierce, then, as now, chief consulting physician to the World' Dis.
