Mr. M. E. Hoxter, of Portland, is in the city in the interest of the W. C. T. U. Refuge Home, which is just now in pressing need of assistance on account of the loss of the regular state appropriation, because of the failure of the legislature to organize this year. This home receives unfortunate girls from every part of the state, and has sheltered a number from Clatsop county, among whom is Annie Ward, a young girl turned over to Sheriff Hare by her father as being beyond his control. Papers of adoption issued by her father surrendered Annie to Mrs. Briggs, the Matron of the Refuge Home. At first she was very insubordinate, and difficult to control, but the exercise of the utmost Christian love and patience softened her.

THE OBJECTION NOT GOOD. There are people who have objections to advertising matter in the columns of a newspaper. The ground of objection is that they do not want to read advertisements. Now this objection is not good, for oftentimes these advertisements convey valuable information. For instance, how else would the traveling public learn of the excellent dining car service of the Wisconsin Central line between St. Paul and Chicago, or the general comfort of traveling over this popular line. For particulars call on the nearest ticket agent or address J. C. Pond, G. P. A., Milwaukee, Wis., or Geo. S. Batty, General Agent, 244 Stark street, Portland, Or.

A NICKNICK BOOK. The Chicago Record's book for gold seekers is now ready. A reader of this book will know more of Alaska and the wonderful Klondike district than he could learn by months of personal observation and research on the ground. In comparison with other works on the subject it is the "Webster's Dictionary of Alaska,"—a perfect and peerless volume, at once the model and despair of rival publishers. It tells of the richest and most extensive gold fields the world has ever known—how they were discovered—fields yet unexplored—Ten years' work already in sight—Where is the mother lode?—The fortunes already made—The millions to be taken out next year—How to get there—R. R. fare and other expenses from all points—Medical hints—Climate—Official maps—Government reports—All land and water routes—Projected railroads—Mining laws—Customs. In brief, all that is known of this wonderful land of fabulous wealth. It is the only authorized, practical book, official and endorsed. About 60 pages. Handsomely bound in art canvas. Price, $1.50.

Agents are wanted to handle this valuable work. It is a chance of a life time. Experience is not necessary, as full instructions are sent and the whole people are clamoring for the book. Dealers from agents just started show wonderful success. Sales run as high as 25 books an hour. Big commissions and valuable premiums are allowed. Credit is given and freight paid. It is an opportunity to gain a competence in a short time. The book is not sold through book stores or newspapers. Complete canvassing outfit will be mailed for 25 cents, and to places where we have no agent a full copy of the book will be sent to customers, prepaid, on receipt of price. Address, exactly, Monroe Book Company, department K, 219, Chicago.
