The Western Union Telegraph Company have a force of men at work which is rapidly building the new telegraph line east of the city along the railroad grade. Before another winter is here it is probable that there will be an up-to-date telegraph line between Portland and Astoria.

A visitor in the Nehalem valley, who has just returned, says he was struck with the fine crop of hops raised this season, and says it is one of the coming staples of that region. They also have a fine cattle country, and by turning the wheat and turnips they raise into bacon, can get 10 cents a pound for their produce. Home-made Oregon bacon is far sweeter and better than the imported, and will compare with the celebrated Irish home-made bacon, which brings such high prices on the London and New York markets. In the Nehalem is plenty of maple wood, which is just the thing for smoking the meat.

The O. R. & N. Alaska steamer George W. Elder arrived from the north yesterday. She anchored in the stream off the O. R. & N. dock, because Captain Jensen said on his last trip here he was advised by the collector of customs not to tie up to the dock, when coming from a foreign port, until after inspectors had boarded the ship. The Elder hailed from Nannimo this trip, having taken a lot of coal on there, so did not go to the dock at all, having neither freight or passengers for Astoria. Besides the regular passenger list also brought down 8 Chinamen who have been working for the season in Alaska canneries and belong in Portland. There was no news of importance from the gold fields. After making some repairs in Portland the Elder will make another trip to Alaska, remaining on the run all winter.

Mr. H. C. Thompson received a telegram yesterday afternoon from Oakland, announcing the death of his father, Rev. Lewis Thompson, in that city. Rev. Lewis Thompson was the first Presbyterian minister who came to Oregon, having crossed the plains in 1845. About 15 years ago he retired from the active ministry and removed to Oakland, California, where he has since resided. At the time of his death he was in his 87th year. He leaves surviving him a widow and four living children. His daughter, Mary Thompson, who made her home with her parents and Mrs. Captain Woodside, of San Francisco, were with him when he died. One of his sons, E. P. Thompson, is a resident of Colorado, and H. C. Thompson, his other son, is a prominent business man, one of that school directors and the present county treasurer. The telegram received by Mr. Thompson gave no details as to the arrangements for the funeral, but as it is presumed it will take place immediately, Mr. Thompson will be unable to arrange his various business affairs in time to attend.

Bowling during the past week has been unusually active. The Astoria players were elegantly entertained on the occasion of their Portland trip, and a magnificent banquet was given them by the Oregon Road Club. The games were a great success, and thoroughly enjoyed by all the members of the visiting team. The members of the Astoria Football Club are very anxious to have the clubs play a return match in Astoria, and it is very possible a ladies team from the Oregon Road Club will play here. The Manhattan games for the Wise trophy for gentlemen, and the Cooper trophy for ladies caused no end of interest. M. M. Picken won from scratch the Manhattan game with a grand score of 24 pins, and an average of 51. L. D. Burroughs bowled well with an average of 44. Mrs. H. P. Prall carried off the ladies' trophy with an average of 39. The club monthly bowling tournament for the gold medals now held by Mrs. G. C. Fulton and W. C. Laws, commences with the ladies October 28th, entries closing with Mrs. Glenn, October 19th, at 4 p. m. The gentlemen bowl on October 28th. Entries close with handicapping committee, Messrs. Trembhart and Ashbury, October 21st, at 10 p. m. The entries must be made before the time set as the committee has decided not to receive any entries after the time set for closing.

THE OLD WAY Of Treating Dyspepsia and Indigestion by Dieting, a Barbarous and Useless One. We say the old way, but really it is a very common one at the present time and many dyspeptics and physicians as well, consider the first step to take in attempting to cure indigestion to diet, either by selecting certain foods and rejecting others or to greatly diminish in quantity usually taken, in other words the starvation plan is by many supposed to be the best essential.

The almost certain failure of the starvation cure for dyspepsia has been proven time and again, but still the moment dyspepsia makes its appearance a course of dieting is at once advised. All this is radically wrong. It is not, and unscientific to recommend dieting or starvation to a man suffering from dyspepsia, because indigestion is not self starves every organ and every nerve and every fibre in the body.

What the dyspeptic wants is abundant nutrition, which means plenty of good, wholesome, well-cooked food and something to assist the weak stomach to digest it. This is exactly the purpose for which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are adapted and this is the method by which they cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. In other words the patient eats plenty of wholesome food and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest it for him. In this way the stomach is nourished and the over-worked stomach rested, because the tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not. One of these tablets will digest 1,000 grains of meat or eggs.

Your druggist will tell you that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the purest and safest remedy sold for stomach troubles and every trial makes one more friend for this excellent preparation. Sold at 50 cents for full sized package at all drug stores.

A little book on stomach diseases mailed free by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

WARRENTON NOTES.

Ducks and geese are very plentiful on the lake and creeks, but they are rather wild, having been chased from one place to another so much by Astoria's would-be sportsmen.

The temperance principle of our town has been shocked beyond repair this week, caused by the arrival of several of the tanks used in Kopp's old brewery, which will be used for water now.

Quite an interest is being manifested here over the proposed county bridge across Young's Bay. That is a matter which should interest every citizen on the west side as well as every business man in Astoria.

Plasterers are at work this week on the new store building of D. K. Warren. The lower floor, which has been finished, is now being lathed and plastered and as soon as ready, shiving and counters are to be put in, preparatory to putting in a large stock of goods.

Warrenton is one of the healthiest places we know of. There has been two doctors here for some time, but one of them leaves for the East soon, and the other for the law for any one in our town to transgress to such an extent that he would require the attention of an M. D.

THE OBJECTION NOT GOOD. There are people who have objections to advertising matter in the columns of a newspaper. The ground of objection is that they do not want to read advertisements. Now this objection is not good, for oftentimes these advertisements convey valuable information. For instance, how else could the traveling public learn of the excellent dining car service of the Wisconsin Central lines between St. Paul and Chicago, or the general comfort of traveling over this popular line. For particulars call on the nearest ticket agent or address J. C. Pond, G. P. A., Milwaukee, Wis., or Geo. S. Batty, General Agent, 248 Stark street, Portland, Or.
