NATIONAL SOUND MONEY LEAGUE

Annual Meeting of the Executive Committee in New York.

OREGON GETS NEEDND AID

J. Sterling Morton Reports That Nebraska May Be Overrun by Bryan and His Followers.

New York, Nov. 9.—The semi-annual meeting of the executive committee of the National Sound Money League was begun here today. There were present: President, George E. Leighton, St. Louis; Secretary, E. V. Simpfy, Henry Villard, J. Henry Todd, Edwin Burritt Smith, J. K. Owen, M. E. Ingalls, J. W. Norwood, W. C. Conway and Treasurer E. P. Hepburn.

General Secretary Smalley in his report of the work of the league said that there was lodged in its credit in the Bank of Chicago a balance of $1,000 over all expenditures. Treasurer Hepburn reported that the total amount in the bank up to the present to the credit of the league was $19,384. A donation of $50 to the Indianapolis Monetary League was granted without dissent.

General Secretary Smalley read a communication from M. C. George, vice-president for Oregon, who wrote that he was with the league in all the great questions relating to currency and realized the necessity for aggressive work. As to the state, in many places, the league would find it honey-combed with financial ignorance and errors.

On motion of Mr. Ingalls, of Cincinnati, it was voted to appropriate $1,000 to aid Mr. George, of Oregon.

J. K. Cowen, of Baltimore, reported that things were satisfactory in his territory.

J. Sterling Morton, vice-president of the League in Nebraska, writes: "Mr. Bryan and his disciples are actively engaged in the propagation of money fallacies. They have united in one conglomerate mass all the fanatical bigots and idiots in this state for the purpose of upholding the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. It is very painful to observe that this aggregation may quite possibly take a majority of 20,000 at the coming election, for the candidates who represent all that is harmful and disastrous to agriculture, and in fact, to sound government everywhere."

ADMIRAL RHIND DEAD.

Full Sketch of the Old Hero's Life and Martial Career.

New York, November 9.—Rear Admiral Alexander Golden Rhind, U. S. N., is dead at his home in this city. He had been confined to his bed for five weeks.

Admiral Rhind was born in New York October 13, 1821, his father being a prominent shipowner in those days, who afterwards became distinguished in the diplomatic service of his country as plenipotentiary to Constantinople in 1871. After receiving an education in that city the future admiral entered the navy as midshipman in 1838, receiving his appointment from Alabama. At the breaking out of the war he was in command of the Crusader, of the South Atlantic blockade squadron. He performed operations in Edisto sound for which he received the thanks of the navy department and was in command of the Keokuk during the attack on Charleston, April 7, 1863, when he ran his ship to within 50 feet of the walls of Fort Sumter, drawing the fire of all the forts upon her. She was struck 30 times in 20 minutes and 19 shot hit her below the water line. She floated during the night, but sank early in the morning, but all hands were saved. Through the next year Commander Rhind was in James river assisting General Grant, and commanded several vessels, among them the Paul Jones and Wabash. It was at the attack on Fort Fisher, however, that he won the greatest renown. Assisted by Lieutenant Preston and a volunteer crew from his own vessel, he commanded the Louisiana, which, loaded with 215 tons of gunpowder and bombs, set to explode by clockwork, was towed close to the fort. The officers and men were taken off by the steamer Wilderness. The powder boat blew up as was expected, but did little injury to the fort. This operation was suggested by Benjamin F. Butler, and Admiral Porter, who detailed the officers, in his report said: "Commander Rhind and Lieutenant Preston engaged in the most perilous adventure that was perhaps ever undertaken. As an incentive to others, I beg to recommend them for promotion. None in the squadron considered that their lives would be saved, and Commander Rhind and Lieutenant Preston had made an arrangement to sacrifice themselves in case the vessel was boarded a thing likely to happen."

At the close of the war Commander Rhind served for a time on the Congress and was commissioned commodore, was president of the board of inspectors in 1863, and on October 20, 1883, he was promoted to rear admiral and was retired the following day, having reached the age limit. He never married.

GRAVE SITUATION IN BRAZIL

GENERAL CANTURIA IS NOW THE MINISTER OF WAR.

Conspiracy Discovered Against the Government—Police Watching the Newspapers

New York, November 9.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: "The Herald's correspondent in Rio Janeiro sends word that Vice-President Victorino did not visit President Morel after the attempt to assassinate the latter last Friday, nor did he attend the funeral of Minister of War Betancourt, who was killed in that affair. His attitude has caused a great deal of comment.

General Canturia has been appointed to succeed General Betancourt as minister of war.

The government officials of the navy have expressed to the government their adherence to its policy.

The situation is still regarded as grave in Rio Janeiro. The police are watching the offices of opposition newspapers, fearing they will be attacked by citizens. The troops remain under arms ready to quell any outbreak. Imprialists in particular are preparing to make a demonstration at the funeral of Count Motta (Mota), who was physician to the late Emperor Dom Pedro, and whose death occurred yesterday.

A message has been presented in the chamber of deputies demanding that martial law be continued in Rio Janeiro because of the existence of a conspiracy against the government, and that a pension be granted to the family of General Betancourt.

Five members of the opposition have gone over to the opposition in the chamber. It is asserted that the murder of General Betancourt has made revolutionaries and that the government now knows the plans of the conspirators who have been plotting its overthrow.

An official statement has reached Rio Janeiro that in the recent fight in Santo Spirito, in which 49 Jacobins killed eight Italians, the aggressors were the Italians.

COAL MINERS IN ILLINOIS

Put a Fence Around Star Mine Number Two.

BACKBONE OF STRIKE BROKEN

Call Made for Chinese Miners—United Mine Workers Object—Trouble is Probable.

Chicago, November 9.—The Tribune says:

Work is in progress on a proposed eight-foot board fence to be placed around the Star mine No. 2 at Carbon Hill in the Broadwood, Ill., mining district. All the company's buildings are to be moved inside the enclosure. Along with the reports of the stockade there came to Chicago reports that the backbone of the strike was broken and that thousands of men who have been idle for half a year will return to work within ten days. The stockade may have the purpose of answering the company's demands, or it may be that the significant aim is protecting imported Monaghan workmen. The men formerly employed by the general Wilmington Coal Co. at the Braceville mine, voted yesterday to return to work tomorrow. This mine is the largest in the Northern part of the state, and is said to be one of the keys to the situation in the Broadwood district. Last night miners at neighboring plants were declaring that these resolutions to go back to work would carry but few men, and would end in a fiasco. General reports were that the preparations to bring Chinese miners from Wyoming to take the strikers' places had created a stampede among the Italian and non-English-speaking men. And local coal operators say this break in the strikers' ranks marks the beginning of the end, and there will be no necessity for the importation of the Chinese.

General Manager Taylor, of the general Wilmington Coal Co., says the news from Braceville regarding the action of the strikers is correct and he expressed the hope that it would be unnecessary to carry out the idea of importing Chinese. He declared, however, that unless the remaining strikers returned to work within a week the company would be opening the mines with the Chinese miners from Rock Springs, Wyo.

In the Chinese quarter in Chicago signs written in Chinese were posted here and there calling for Celestial workmen to take places in the mines, but the answers to these advertisements were few if any.

Lu Chie Chi, a Chinese contractor from Rock Springs is in the city. With two of his local agents he called on General Manager Taylor of the coal company and held a long conference behind closed doors. The same Chinese officials inspected the mines in the Broadwood district and declared they could furnish one thousand skilled miners to take the places of the miners. As to the importation of the Chinese the reports are to the effect that they were to be brought in under contract to work for six or eight months for a period of five years and the company officials say they will be protected by guards.

AGAINST COOLIE LABOR.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9.—A remonstrance against allowing Chinese coolie miners to be imported into the state for the purpose of mining coal at the Wilmington coal towns in the place of the striking miners will be placed before Governor Tanner in the name of the United Mineworkers of Illinois. The governor will also be asked to co-operate with the secretary of the Miners' Federation in keeping out coolie labor. State Secretary Ryan of the Miners' Federation states that if the Chinese are imported and set to work in the northern coal fields, bloodshed will surely result. If Governor Tanner refuses to interfere Secretary Ryan says the matter will be referred to the president.

MUCH EXCITEMENT.

Streator, Ill., Nov. 9.—The announcement that Chinamen would be placed in the mines of the northern Illinois field has caused an immense amount of excitement here and a call has been issued for a full convention of the district to be held next Wednesday afternoon in this city. Every shaft will send delegates, and in the meantime the various organizations will get together and take action. It is understood that Wednesday's meeting will be of tremendous importance to the craft throughout the state, as it was claimed that if Chinamen are allowed to go to work here and elsewhere, it will only be a matter of time when mines employing that kind of labor will be able to undersell those employing skilled hands, and thus the price will be again forced down. The situation here is looked upon by business men as most serious. The Chinese question has put an entirely new phase upon it. It means to Streater alone, the displacement of about 3,000 men.

AND CHICAGO, TOO.

Chicago, November 9.—The author of the theater hat ordinance, Alderman Platke, will introduce this evening a measure to prevent the playing of football within the limits of Chicago, in speaking of his football ordinance, he said:

"Why do I introduce it? Because it is an inhuman game; a game that should have been stopped long ago. Somebody gets hurt every time football is played, and many have been killed. It is forty times worse than prizefighting. I'd rather see a prizefight any day than a game of football. It teaches school children to be brutal."

It is thought likely the aldermen may take the ordinance seriously and possibly pass it. It would cause consternation among lovers of football, for it would put a bar to the big game next Saturday, and to the other big games scheduled for Thanksgiving day between Chicago and Michigan University.

LAST OF DALTON GANG.

Muskogee, I. T., November 9.—"Duck" Wakeman, alias George Thorne, alias Red Buck, said to be the last of the famous Dalton gang of outlaws, has been killed near Checotah, I. T., in a fight with United States Marshal Bennett's deputy, Lawson and Busie. Wakeman was a partner of "Dynamite Dick" and was one of the gang who broke jail at Guthrie last year with "Ned" Doolin, "Dynamite Dick" and others. His body has been brought here. A reward of $250 had been offered for his capture.

PRIZE FIGHT ON A FARM

TAKES PLACE ON STATE LINE BETWEEN OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

Result was a Surprise to All—Cassidy Had Murphy Downed, But Lost the Fight.

Walla Walla, Nov. 9.—A prizefight for a purse of $50 took place this morning at daybreak on the farm of Mrs. Pepp, at Tumatum, on the state line, between Washington and Oregon, six miles south of this city, between a man named Cassidy, of San Francisco, and Murphy, of Salt Lake. It was attended by a large crowd from Walla Walla, Pendleton, and LaGrande. The affair was kept very quiet, nothing being known about the fight outside of those interested, till today.

The men were evenly matched physically, Cassidy weighing 145 pounds and Murphy 150. Fifteen rounds were fought and from the first round Cassidy seemed to have the best of it all through, succeeding in knocking Murphy down in nearly every round. In the fifteenth round, when Cassidy had Murphy down, in an unguarded moment he gave Murphy an opening, when the latter landed a terrific right-hand blow on Cassidy's chin, knocking him out. The gate money and purse of $50 was awarded to Murphy. Cassidy was badly punished, while Cassidy showed only a few marks. As soon as the mill was finished the principals disappeared, and the officers, who are now looking for them are unable to catch them.

TUPPER ON AMERICANS.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 9.—The citizens of Vancouver tonight entertained Sir Charles Tupper with a non-political banquet. In replying to the toast of "Health," he said if the Americans kept up their policy of hostile tariffs the Canadian government should meet them on their own ground. The Canadian government should show the United States that though they were big and powerful they could not coerce Canada.

GENERAL WEYLER IS EULOGIZED

Robledo Makes an Important Speech Against the Conservatives.

PRIVATE COUNCIL TO BE HELD

Populace in a Crowded Meeting Criticize Weyler's Behavior—Carlists Applaud Him.

New York, November 9.—A dispatch to the Herald from Madrid says:

On Monday Senor Romero Robledo made an important speech to his adherents. About 400 persons were present, and he spoke for two hours. After alluding to the national loss sustained by the death of Canovas, he proceeded to say that the conservative party in Spain no longer exists. He directed bitter recriminations against the conservatives who have gone over to Silveira, and severely censured Marshal Martin's Campos for his behavior since Canovas' death. He eulogized General Weyler and praised Canovas' memory for having kept him in office in Cuba through thick and thin. He said that if the liberals fall in their program it is all up with Spain. He declared that the Spaniards recognized General Weyler's successes and condemned the autonomist regime. He said the liberal government has dreams every night as to where General Weyler is going to disembark, but that the government does not know what General Weyler thinks, because it is going to ask him. He concluded his speech by saying that he approved of General Weyler's views and that he was resolved to come to an understanding with him.

Robledo's speech is regarded throughout Madrid as a wonderful piece of oratory, very wary and skillful, and it has caused a sensation here.

On Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock Romero Robledo's leading adherents will meet in private council. This meeting, it is understood, will treat of an assembly to convene early in December to consult as to a memorial in honor of Canovas, to propagate the doctrines of Romero Robledo and to arrange a manifestation in favor of Weyler.

News is at hand of important gatherings held Monday in Santander. One was a crowded meeting, nominally of socialists, but the socialists present claimed a very small portion of the assemblage. At this meeting, on motion of the celebrated socialist orator, Pablo Iglesias, it was unanimously resolved to abstain from any manifestation in General Weyler's favor on his arrival. The meeting, at which General Weyler's behavior in Cuba was very severely criticized, was packed. The populace greeted the resolution, "That we do not attend any manifestation in General Weyler's favor," with tremendous applause and ringing shouts of "Never! Never!"

The other gathering was at a Carlist banquet of fifty covers held at the Hotel de Europa. During the speech General Weyler was flatteringly spoken of. His health was drunk and those present resolved to attend the manifestation in General Weyler's honor on his return to Santander.

New goods arriving daily and all the latest novelties will be shown from now until Xmas at C. H. Cooper's.

ENGLISH RACES.

London, Nov. 9.—At the second day's racing at Longfield Park, November 9, nearly every round. In the fifteenth round, when Cassidy had Murphy down, in an unguarded moment he gave Murphy an opening, when the latter landed a terrific right-hand blow on Cassidy's chin, knocking him out. The gate money and purse of $50 was awarded to Murphy. Cassidy was badly punished, while Cassidy showed only a few marks. As soon as the mill was finished the principals disappeared, and the officers, who are now looking for them are unable to catch them.
