James R. Christie has received the appointment as boatman to the health officer, from Governor Lord, to fill the vacancy caused by the drowning of E. R. Bradford. Mr. Christie is a competent and skillful boatman and his appointment gives general satisfaction. The republican primary elections yesterday caused little or no stir and but few votes were cast in any of the wards. The regular tickets for delegates from the three wards to the Saturday convention were elected with little or no opposition, except in the Third ward, where there were two tickets.

Captain Phillips, of the Perry, said yesterday that the movement on the part of the chamber of commerce and the A. P. C. A. for range lights at the mouth of the river and the action of the city council to establish public landing docks for small boats are two of the wisest moves for the interest of this harbor ever undertaken. He also says that more buoys and range lights are needed up the river in the vicinity of Puget Island. Owing to the changes made in the revenue cutter service on account of the fitting out in San Francisco of the cutter Itasca to go to the rescue of the whalers frozen in in the Arctic ocean, Second Lieutenant Burke, of the Commodore Perry, has been promoted and transferred and today Captain Phillips is conducting an examination, which has already lasted several days, of Lieutenant Strickland, for promotion. These examinations are very rigid and no child's play will win honors for Uncle Sam's officers in the revenue service. The best of friends made by Lieutenant Strickland believe he will pass with flying colors.

HOW IT WAS DONE. Seattle's Method of Getting to the Front Home Industry. "Speaking of the advertising of Post-Intelligencer," said Agent G. W. Lounsbury to a reporter yesterday, "I will tell you how it was done. You see, the merchants, property owners, and bankers of Seattle plunked down $30,000 in gold twenties on the corner of the Post-Intelligencer, and made that paper come Nanette to do what it thought best to bring Seattle to the front in view of the Klondike boom. I got this information from a gentleman just from Seattle. "Well, the P.-I. had the first man in the field. It had the Associated Press franchise in Seattle. It simply flooded the entire country with long and interesting reports from the gold fields, dated from Seattle. Everything was made to center in Seattle. It was not advertising and did not cost a cent except the tolls, which were paid by the receiving papers, and the salaries to correspondents and reporters. For it was the very best kind of advertising. "The P.-I. issued a special Klondike edition and sent 200,000 copies to every capitalist and business man in the east. A splendidly illustrated article on Seattle was published in a prominent New York magazine (a copy of which is in our library here), and the work was followed up systematically and thoroughly through the local columns and the Associated Press. What was the result? Everybody knew about Seattle; that they could outfit there and get passage to Alaska. Thousands stramed in there from all over the country and Seattle merchants made millions. That is the way Seattle did it—she patronized home industry."

FACTS VS. FANCY. Things and Other Things Not Always the Same. NEW ENTERPRISE IN PORTLAND. Portland, Or., Nov. 15.—George W. McNear, the well known grain buyer of San Francisco, today bought the Irving dock in this city. J. Eppinger, another grain merchant of San Francisco, is also negotiating for a wharf here. It is understood that both McNear and Eppinger intend to enter extensively into wheat buying in the Northwest. —From yesterday's Astorian. Mr. McNear seems to know where the shipping of the Pacific Northwest is going to be done. —From yesterday's Oregonian. It is supposed here that the Irving dock was sold for about $25,000. Last night the tramp steamers Pilot-ship and Florida arrived down from Portland, with four cargoes of wheat and are stuck about 70 miles from Astoria awaiting an opportunity to float into Astoria harbor. Following them are two river steamers with large barges in tow carrying the balance of the cargoes for these steamers, which will be loaded into them here.

Special Council Meeting. A special meeting of the common council was held yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The purpose for which it was called were to consider the extension of Commercial street from Seventeenth street east; to consider the feasibility of building one or more public boat landings, and for the recording of the city cemetery plat. Mayor Taylor presided and all members of the council were present. An opinion from the city attorney stating that the city was now the owner of all the property on Commercial street embracing the district condemned and also that $700.00 damages to property holders had been paid, including $90 to W. S. Kinney, was read and the report placed on file. A resolution by Parker declaring the intention of the council to improve Commercial street from Seventeenth street east was read. The resolution was unanimously adopted. A report from the ways and means committee that they found everything favorable for the extension of said street was read and placed on file. The maps and plats filed by the city surveyor in relation to Commercial street were returned. In the matter of constructing a public landing, Mayor Taylor stated that the site at the foot of Fourteenth street could be bought at a small cost, and by the expenditure of a small amount of money could be made a good landing place. A motion was made by Welch that the committee on wharves and water frontage be instructed to investigate and report at next meeting. Carried. In regard to the city cemetery plat a member of the committee on public property, Schelle, stated that the committee favored only that portion that is improved, which is about 10 acres. A motion that the committee prepare a record by sections was carried.

CATARH OF THE STOMACH. A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It. Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, feeble appetite, nervousness and a general prostration, languid feeling. There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition. The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared. According to Dr. Hartmann the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of dilute, apple-peppermint, a little nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals. Mr. N. J. Bosher, of 278 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years what I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found fresh, appetite and sound rest from their use. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals. Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores. An odd sight in Mt. Vernon, Mo., was to see the children attending school October 27 barefooted and barelegged. THE OBJECTION NOT GOOD. There are people who have objections to advertising matter in the columns of a newspaper. The ground of objection is that they do not want to read advertisements. Now this objection is not good, for oftentimes these advertisements convey valuable information. For instance, how else would the traveling public learn of the excellent dining car service of the Wisconsin Central lines between St. Paul and Chicago, or the general comfort of traveling over this popular line. For particulars call on the nearest ticket agent or address J. C. Pond, G. P. A., Milwaukee, Wis., or Geo. S. Hatty, General Agent, 246 Stark street, Portland, Or.

The British bark Brussels, 90 tons register, Captain Alsop, which sailed from Napier, New Zealand, September 11, arrived in port yesterday, having made a quick passage. Captain Alsop reports having had a smooth voyage, devoid of incident or accident. He sailed up through the Society Islands, past the Sandwich Islands, and had pleasant weather all the way after the first few days out.

The A. P. C. A. people think that the old-time custom of making half rates on the river boats to Astoria from intermediate towns for the holidays is a good one, and should be continued this year. Doubtless if the committee calls on Mr. Mohler, of the O. B. & N., and the White Collar Line, they can get the concession. The latter is an old-time friend of Astoria, and Mr. Mohler's first act on assuming control of the O. B. & N. was to subscribe $20 to the 1897 regatta fund.

Neighbors and friends yesterday came to the relief of Nelson Blaszberg and wife and eight children, who were burned out of house and home which they owned, with provisions and clothing and temporary lodgings. Both parents are hard-working people and have lost their all. It is suggested by the Rev. Mr. Shout that 50 families in Astoria could subscribe $1 each and thus easily and quickly restore the cottage that is now a pile of ashes, and make a happy Christmas for one stricken family who have been self-supporting, but have lost their all. Will the people follow the covered gentleman's lead?
