THANSGIVING DAY IN ASTORIA

Brilliant Reception on Board the Commodore Perry.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCHES

The l'oor Substantially Remembered-Day Generally Observed Throughout the City.

Thanksgiving day in Astoria was duly observed by all. All public offices and banks were closed and the stores closed at noon. A general air of comfort perunded the city and it was evident that all had something for which to be thankful and that Astoria had in the past year received her share of prosper.

The notable feature of the day was the afternoon and evening reception is in the city, registered at the Parker given by the officers of the Perry. The house ship bad been thoroughly cleaned from too to bottom, inside and out and shone was open to inspection and was as next Parlor. as my lady's chamber. The boys were In their Surainy best and enjoyed the eabin the invited guests were entertained by the officers-Captain Phillips, Lieutenants Emery and Sturdevant, Assistant Engineer Ross-Mrs. Emery and Miss Phillips. The quarters were bandsomely decorated and a delicious luncheon was nerved to the guests who were made to feel at home at once by their gental en- Land & Investment Co., Commercial and distress, got to sea without having an ple tertainers who spared no pains to give all a pleasant afternoon.

The officers of the Columbine and Man. manita called in a body, and hundreds of Men's McKinley club at 8 o'clock totownspeople pald their respects to the Perry and her gallant officers.
