City politics culminated yesterday in the naming of two tickets for city officers to be elected December 31st. For weeks much speculation has been indulged in as to the make-up of the incoming city administration. Now that the nominations have been made the people are as much at sea as before. Republicans have named a ticket which is a sort of compromise between the stalwarts and the younger fry, while the non-partisans so-called, or citizens, have slated candidates who are a compromise between the independents and straight democrats.

THIS WEEK'S LONDON LETTER

Birthday Party at Windsor in Honor of Prince Alexander.

GLADSTONE GONE TO FRANCE

The Duke of Teck's Financial Condition Causing Much Anxiety to the Royal Family.

London, Nov. 27.—(Copyrighted 1897 by the Associated Press.)—England generally throughout the week has been enveloped in fog. The weather has been usually mild, though there was a sharp frost on Thursday night.

MINE IN DANGER

Aspen, Col., Nov. 27.—Smuggler mountain is in trouble again, and from indications all the miners in the Cowhaven tunnel, Della S., Johnson, Park, Bush, Wheeler, Mineral Farm and Alta Argent will be driven out by the deadly gases from the fire that is still smoldering in the big shaft of the Smuggler mine. The gas is finding its way into the lower workings of the Della S. in great volume. All the Della S. and Johnson men were compelled to drop their tools and flee for their lives last night. The gas is rapidly increasing in the Cowhaven tunnel and it is expected that the men will have to come out. It is believed that all workings connected with and lying above the Cowhaven tunnel will have to shut down until the draft changes or the Smuggler fire is settled for good. This means the throwing out of some 600 miners for an indefinite period.

OVERDUE VESSELS

San Francisco, Nov. 27.—British ship Netuna is now 61 days overdue from London to this port. Reinsurance on the vessel and cargo is quoted at 15 guineas. Reinsurance on the overdue bark Pag-mount, now out 29 days from Liverpool, is quoted at 25 guineas. Shipping and insurance men believe that the bark may have taken the route around the Cape of Good Hope, a fact that would account for her long passage.

OREGON REPUBLICANS.

Portland, Or., Nov. 27.—The executive committee of the Republican League of Oregon met today to prepare for the regular biennial convocation of the league, which the constitution fixes on the first Tuesday in February. There were present: C. H. Carr, president; W. M. Coker, L. A. McNary, Portland; M. A. Moody, The Dalles; W. H. Moore, Moro; H. L. Wells, secretary; J. A. Nelson, Albany; and Charles Gatch, Salem.

CRAMP'S LINE.

San Francisco, Nov. 27.—Omska trade committee has addressed a communication to the owners of the Cramp-Hoadley steamship line that is to put five steamers in the Alaska trade next spring, asking them to make this port their southern terminus. Similar requests from other local trade organizations will back this request. A petition will be circulated asking congress to close Dyce as a substitute for the closing of the port would put its merchants on an equal footing with the merchants of Victoria and other foreign ports.

TROOPS FOR PORT TOWNSEND.

Port Townsend, Nov. 27.—A telegram received here today from Washington states that Major-General Miles has submitted to the secretary of war a letter in which he recommends that Fort Townsend be occupied by troops immediately.

Berlin, Nov. 27.—(Copyrighted 1897, by the Associated Press.)—The presence of Emperor William at Kiel on the occasion of the swearing-in of naval recruits has had the expected effect of clearing the situation so far as Germany's attitude toward China and Hayti is concerned.

WHOLESALE DEATH IN PHILIPPINES

San Francisco, Nov. 27.—A typhoon which swept over the Philippine islands on the 6th of October was the cause of the worst disasters reported from the southern ocean in many years. If not in the history of that section of the world, thousands of lives were lost, including many Europeans, and the damage to property was something appalling.

WORST TYPHOON IN THE HISTORY OF THE SOUTHERN OCEAN.

Millions of Dollars of Property and Thousands of Lives Destroyed—Whole Towns Swept Away.

JAPANESE MURDERED.

San Francisco, Nov. 27.—As the outcome of a quarrel between two Japanese on the cutter Rush, K. Imal, the captain's boy, was shot and killed this morning and the ship's steward, Charles Wishmurt, is in jail at San Rafael, charged with the murder. The two had been on bad terms and each had notified the captain that unless the other was discharged the complainant would leave the ship.

SAW MILLS FOR ALASKA.

Seattle, Nov. 27.—The A. S. Kerry Lumber Company announced today that it would construct three saw mills in Alaska this winter to meet the anticipated large demand for lumber for boats to descend the Yukon next spring. One mill will be located on Lake Tagush, one on Lake Bennett, and one on Marsh Lake. The material for the mill will be carried in on sleds. The daily output of the mills will be 60,000 feet.

J. S. SARGENT, THE AMERICAN PAINTER

J. S. Sargent, the American painter and member of the Royal Academy, is finishing a portrait of Miss Mary Letter for the academy of 1898.

There is a marked change in the prevailing style of fashionable hair dressing, which shows an inclination to return to the chignon.

The doubts raised as to whether an English aristocrat was permitted to marry an Indian have been dispelled by the announcement that Lady Coventry and Prince Dhuale Singh are to be married on December 29. The Coventrys are opposed to the union, but their objections have been overruled and the Indian government has agreed to settle upon the bride the sum of £2000 annually.

It is understood that Henry D. Trull is the author of "A Life of the Prince of Wales," which will be published in the near future.

It is claimed that the electrical railroads in Cairo, Egypt, are beating those of Brooklyn in the record of the number of people killed. The Egyptian roads have been running a little over a year and 140 people were killed or injured by their cars during the first 12 months.

The Prince of Wales has had a successful shoot with the Earl of Durham at Lamberton castle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley-Martin's party in Scotland is also establishing big records. Its members killed over 600 pheasants and other game last week.

At a public meeting in Dublin on Wednesday last, Lord Dufferin presiding, in commemoration of the centenary of Edmund Burke, a letter from Mr. Gladstone was read in which the veteran statesman said:

"I regard Burke as to Ireland and America with fervent and unfeigned admiration, and as to France and the revolutionary war, with grief; but throughout with the reverence due to his noble combination of character and genius. As regards Ireland, it is indeed painful for me to cover bleeding wounds inflicted by her children, but neither my faith in her eventual destinies, nor my anxiety for their accomplishment have in the smallest degree abated."

George Askwith, the lawyer who accompanied Lord Darnley to the United States, has been appointed junior counsel for Great Britain on the Venezuela arbitration commission.

There have been no novelties at the theatre during the week. Helen Bertram, formerly of the Bostonians, successfully replaced Florence St. John in "La Perichole" on Monday last.

Queen Victoria has also been very busy at a family council which has been discussing the affairs of the family of the late Duchess of Teck, at which the Duke of Teck and his children, including Prince and Princess Adolphus of Teck were present. Jewelry of considerable historical value goes to the Duchess of York, the daughter of the duke. Queen Victoria substantially compensating the other members of the family. The White Lodge at Richmond, hitherto the residence of the Duke and Duchess of Teck, has been granted to the Duke and Duchess of York. The future of the Duke of Teck has not been settled upon. It is rumored that a parliamentary grant will be sought, but this is not likely to be obtained as it would be most distasteful to the people generally, and the house of commons after the promises made upon the settlement of the Prince of Wales' children that no more appropriations would be asked for the royal family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone crossed the channel on Friday on their way to Cannes, where they will arrive on Sunday. Dr. Habershorn reported that the general health of the former prime minister is very good, and that there is every prospect of his neuritis disappearing in a milder climate.

The touchiness of litterateurs had two voluic demonstrations during the week. Swinburne, the poet, having been named in the academy as one of 40 to form an English academy of immortals, wrote a furious letter to the Times, saying:

"The notion of an English academy is too seriously stupid for a farce and too essentially vulgar for a comedy."

In conclusion Mr. Swinburne remarked: "It seems to me that the full and proper definition of so preposterous an impudence must be left to others than the bearer of a name selected for the adulation of such an insult."

Sir John Lubbock's latest book is caustically criticized and the authors of "The Heavenly Twins" has written a letter to the Daily Telegraph's book reviewer.

Among other things she says: "That you are of ancient lineage, I am willing to admit, since your putting in my mouth words and sentiments not mine shows you are infected with blood from Ananias. That you should take upon yourself to be a serious judge of art is a crime for which it is painful to think you must one day settle between you and your God, but that you should write yourself down an admirer of mine is the ugliest blow my art has dealt me, and I take this opportunity to publicly apologize for it."
