The New Year is almost here and with it a new era for Astoria will open. It is certain that Mr. Hammond has several plans for industrial enterprises which will be floated about the time the railroad is completed. The engineers are pushing the contractors on the road and but little more remains to complete the grading, which will be accomplished as soon as the weather permits.

The Astoria Progressive Commercial Association has accomplished much already for the good of this port, notably a good understanding with Commander Merrell as to range lights and the establishment of the principle of patronizing home industry.

Does ever anything happen just as we expected it? Miss Alice Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar.

Quinine pills rather than tonics have been found to be the order of the day. Mr. C. M. Dixon, a well known merchant of Pleasant Ridge, Pulmon County, Pa., has a little girl who is frequently threatened with croup.

Better order your Christmas wreaths soon if you want the best of the lot. One Minute Cough Cure cures quickly. That's what you want! Chas. Rogers.

Today is a special bargain day and a splendid chance to lay in a stock of Christmas gifts. J. A. Perkins, of Antiquity, O., was for thirty years needlessly tortured by physicians for the cure of eczema.

On hand, and they accordingly pay out the legal tenders, and thus the treasury is compelled to furnish gold for export.

On banking reform Mr. Gookin speaks with the utmost clearness and precision. Banks of issue should have a capital of not less than $1,000,000, and be permitted to issue circulating notes up to the amount of their paid-up capital.

The time is probably not ripe for Mr. Gookin's plan of banking reform in its entirety, but the time will come when it, or something closely allied to it, must be adopted.

It is the policy of the American people to pay off the national debt, and when that is done there will be no bonds to use as a basis for circulation.

However Mr. Gookin's plan may strike the politicians as a practicable measure for present action, it will certainly find favor with those who have reflected most profoundly on these interesting problems and understand them the best.

Beautiful eyes grow dull and dim as the years steal away. Beautiful, willowy tresses to whom lose fairness with every day. But she still is queen and bath charms to spare when wears youth's coronal - beautiful hair.

Preserve Your Hair

and you preserve your youth. "A woman is as old as she looks," says the world. No woman looks as old as she is if her hair has preserved its normal beauty. To be cheerful when the raining is pouring down and a good-natured note is due means a disposition akin to angelic. Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., says: "My child is worth millions to me, and I would have lost her if I had not invested twenty-five cents in a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure."
