CANADA'S WARNING TO THE WORLD

Will Collect Duty on Everything Going Into the Klondike.

SHE MUST HAVE REVENUE

To Sustain Her Police and Banking Conventions—Those Without Food to Be Turned Back.

Washington, Jan. 13.—In a few days the treasury department will make known the details of the arrangements recently concluded with Canadian Minister of the Interior...

It is believed that the Canadian government is about to issue new customs and mining regulations to that region. Last year the Canadian government permitted the free entry of miners' blankets, personal clothing and cooking utensils in use, and 100 pounds of food for each person...

The Canadian government does not wish to be beggarly, but it is going to great expense to maintain police and establish port officers, treasurers for the safe keeping of miners' gold, officers, where drafts may be obtained for gold, and other conveniences, and must obtain a revenue to meet the outlay.

The Canadian authorities warn the public against the so-called transportation companies which are offering for sums of from $50 to $150 payable in advance to convey persons from the eastern states to Dawson via Canadian routes and to provide them with food.

Persons going to the Klondike this spring are recommended to take plenty of food and clothing, otherwise on reaching the frontier of the Canadian Yukon district they will be turned back by the Canadian mounted police.

NO STARVATION.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Adjutant General Beck has a telegram from General Merriam, at Vancouver barracks, forwarding a telegram from Quartermaster Robinson, at Seattle, as follows:

"United States Commissioner Jones reports to me as follows: 'Left Dawson December 2. No danger of starvation there. Captain Guyger, of the steamer P. B. Weare, left Circle City November 21, arrived at Dawson, December 4. Ray and Richardson (two army officers), were at Circle City west and comfortable when Guyger left Circle City. Joaquin Miller also brought the same news to Dawson regarding Ray and Richardson. The steamer Al-KI arrived this morning bringing 35 Klondikers, many of whom confirm the statement of Jones as to the food supply.'

SHORTAGE OF VESSELS.

San Francisco, Jan. 12.—The unprecedented demand for steamers to engage in the Alaska trade, taken in connection with the engineers strike in England, has the effect of increasing the price of vessels from 10 to 50 per cent. Available tonnage on both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts has been requisitioned and shipowners and shippers are being called upon to supply the demand.

BISHOP UNDERWOOD.

New York, Jan. 12.—Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley of Kentucky, has been nominated to the office of general secretary of the domestic and foreign missionary society of the Episcopal church to succeed Dr. Langford, who died last July. The nomination is considered equivalent to an election.

TROUBLE IN THE CUBAN GOVERNMENT

Secretary of Interior Charged With Improper Behavior.

AUTONOMY A TOTAL FAILURE

Spaniards Asking American Protection—Contraband Goods Captured.

Havana, via Key West, Jan. 12.—The assistant secretary of the interior, Senor Fontaveja, is hotly censured by the autonomists and others for his improper behavior in office appointments. He has removed employees in good standing and of many years' service. All are Cubans and many belong to the blue blood of the population, representing families who have made large donations in past years for religious and educational enterprises.

La Discussion asks that article 4 in the new constitution be abolished. This refers to the protection of Spanish products. The paper says the articles are fully designed and does not allow the "reconcentration of the island," but kills the sugar industry. It continues:

"The actual state of affairs justifies the belief that autonomy is a complete failure which will bring about a state of anarchy. This condition of things is dangerous not because Spaniards are loyal, but because they need protection for their property, and seek it, or annexation to the United States, which would guarantee the lives and property of resident Spaniards."

La Libertad, an ardent conservative organ, protests editorially against the insinuations of the American press that rich Spaniards in Cuba favor protection or annexation to the United States. It says these statements are falsehoods. It invites Spaniards to deny them. Three days have gone by and no denial has appeared, which seems to confirm the statement already made, that Spaniards in Cuba will demand American protection, not because they lack patriotism, but because they are forced by the need of self protection.

ORDER RESTORED.

Spanish Minister Says the Insurrection Has Descended Into a Riot.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The Spanish minister has been kept constantly advised of every development within 24 hours at Havana, and he summed up his advice this afternoon by saying that they show the uprising to have been a riot pure and simple; that order has been completely restored, and that the authorities have ample force to afford every protection; that the tumult was confined to the Spaniards and Cuban residents and that no indignity was put upon any American interest or citizens, public or private.

PASSES FROM THE SCENE.

Durrant's Body Cremated Without Ceremony at Altadena Yesterday.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 12.—The body of murderer W. H. T. Durrant was incinerated at the crematory of Reynolds and Van Nuy's at Altadena this morning. At an early hour the body was placed in a plain rosewood coffin and carried through the bright green fields and orchards and orange groves that line the way from Los Angeles to Pasadena. Following the hearse came the back in which were Mr. and Mrs. Durrant and an undertaker. There had been no crowd to see the little procession leave the city, and few people were at the crematory at Altadena. The fire had been burning for three hours, and at 11:30 the remains of Durrant, still in the casket, were slid into the furnace. At 2 o'clock the ashes were removed and deposited to his parents, and the final act of a great tragedy was completed.

ASKS FOR U.S. MONEY.

Sacramento, Jan. 12.—Ex-President Cleveland has made a second appeal to Governor Hall for emergency in the case of Salter D. Woodin, convicted of murder in connection with the rail wrecking during the great railroad strike of 1891.

OUTBREAK IN INDIA.

Calcutta, Jan. 12.—News has been received from Metram in Belochistan, of an outbreak against a British surveying party there numbering 200. A number of the native guards were killed or wounded.

THE CELEBRATION IN COLUMBUS

Hanna Addresses a Large Delegation of His Friends.

NO TRAITORS ARE WANTED

His Election Means More Than Appears on the Face of It—Denies That He Is an Autocrat.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—The Columbus Glee club headed a large delegation of citizens that called on Senator Hanna late last night. Mr. Hanna addressed them at considerable length. The following are extracts from his speech: "You have made it a hot time for me since I have been here. (Laughter and cries of 'What about the other fellows?') I am not talking about the hot time you have made for the other fellows. I call mine, then, by way of diversion, a warm time, because it has been a warm welcome that comes from you. I can read in the face of every man I see. I am sure that I am not deserving of all that culminated for me today. (Cries of 'Yes, you are, senator.') Now, wish you would let me play the modest act. Don't you know it is a very common saying some times by men in public life that they are apt to get 'stuck on themselves.' (Continued laughter.) Now, I am afraid that my Columbus friends are encouraging me in that direction. But I must insist, as I have said several times here, that my personality in this thing is very insignificant as compared with the issue, the closing act of which was performed in that capital today. But that act has brought hope and inspiration to the hearts of every true republican in this state. The lines are drawn now. We know the difference between patriot and traitor, (Voluntary cheers.) And it so happens that I have had to occupy the exalted position given me by the republican party of the United States as chairman of the national committee of that party, and in my position I now proclaim that no traitors are wanted in our camp. ('That's right,' and tremendous cheering.) I have no desire to put any indignity upon any man, but I have a desire to visit upon every man the fruits of his own sins against our party."

"But one of the many delicate attentions which I have had here and which I wish publicly to express my appreciation of, is the one fact that the few times that I have found an opportunity to get out into the open air for exercise and health, the state officials have furnished me with an escort. (Great laughter.) Every time I would go. That is a delicate attention which I appreciate. (Renewed laughter.) Because any body who meant me personal harm would stab me in the back; they would not dare face me—I am speaking politically now. (Great applause.) I want to say with regard to our state and our country, looking at it from the standpoint of the citizen and that the action today means more than you think for our future welfare and prosperity. Although I have been pictured by my adversaries in the press of this state as an autocrat and a plutocrat, I state before my fellow-citizens of Ohio and every part of the state, and tell them face to face that it is a lie, and my future life will prove that it is a lie."

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The house today completed the consideration of the agricultural bill in committee of the whole and then adjourned on a motion of those opposed to the printing of another edition of the famous "Horse Book."

There was the annual fight over the question of free seed distribution to the farmers, but an effort to strike out the appropriation recommending $100,000, failed as usual, the majority against it today being 155. One of the important amendments adopted provided for the inspection of horse meat for export purposes in the same way that the meat of cattle and other animals is now inspected.

OUR ENGINES TO JAPAN.

Punkirk, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The Brooks locomotives works is about contemplating a shipment of 20 cars of locomotives boxed in them for Japan and Corea. Of this order 20 locomotives are for the imperial government of Japan, 12 for the Kishuju railway and four for the Seoul-Chemulpo railway of Corea. These latter are the first engines ever sent to Corea and are for the first railway built in that country concessions for which were obtained by a syndicate of Americans.

NEW JAPANESE CABINETS.

London, Jan. 12.—A dispatch from Kobe says: The endeavor to form a Itokuma coalition ministry failed Marquis Ito, after great difficulty, and with the personal intervention of the emperor, has constructed a ministry independent of political parties for which a brief career is predicted. The military party strongly approves Japan's asserting herself in the present crisis and the activity at the dockyards is unabated. The press is constantly discussing an Anglo-Japanese alliance.

HAWAIIAN MATTER TO BE PUSHED

President Dole Will Visit Washington on January 18th.

ANNEXATION WHAT WANTED

Minister Cooper Will Act for the President During His Absence—Ashford Pardoned.

Honolulu, Jan. 6, via San Francisco, Jan. 12.—President Sanford B. Dole leaves for Washington by the steamship Peru on the 18th instant. The chief executive goes to the capital of the United States for the purpose of consulting with the administration there on the subject of annexation. It is expected that Mr. Dole will be back here by the middle of next month.

During the president's absence, Minister of Foreign Affairs Cooper, will, besides his present duties act as chief executive. The departure of President Dole was unanimously decided upon yesterday at a special meeting of the council of state. The council of state has pardoned Clarence W. Ashford, a lawyer now practicing in San Francisco, and will allow him to return to this country. Ashford was mixed up in the 1895 rebellion, and was arrested on a charge of treason. He preferred to leave the country rather than stand trial, to return only by leave of this government.

HIS REMAINS SCATTERED.

Pendleton Man's Body Found in Sonora, Mexico.

Pendleton, Or., Jan. 12.—A copy of a Yuma, Arizona, paper which reached here today contained the information that the body of a man had been found in Sonora, Mexico, 50 miles south of the boundary line, and it was supposed to be that of Martin L. Hasbrouck, formerly agent of the Pacific Coast Elevator Company, in Pendleton. The article in the newspaper says:

"The remains were so scattered it was impossible to determine definitely, but he had probably been dead about a month and the presence in the left side of the breast bone of a hole made by a bullet or a sharp pick, indicated that he came to his death by foul means. In the dead man's clothes were found receipts for dues from the Pendleton, Or., Lodge No. 22, I. O. O. F., and from Portland, Or., Lodge No. 46, A. F. & A. M., and a receipt published in Pendleton, Or., East Oregonian. The name which appeared on the receipts was M. L. Hasbrouck."

Relatives here state he left Pendleton with about $40 in money, a gold watch, pistol, bowie knife, and a prospector's outfit. There is much mystery surrounding the case and some believe that Hasbrouck desired to be considered dead. Hasbrouck left here October 26 on a 60-day leave of absence and after his departure the company discovered that he was short in his accounts.

TROOPS TO INDIA.

London, Jan. 12.—The morning papers announce that the first battalion of grenadiers now at Gibraltar, has been ordered to get in readiness for service in Egypt. Two other line battalions are under similar orders. This is evidence of preparations for an important campaign.

SUGAR IN BUENOS AYRES.

New York, Jan. 12.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: The senate has approved a bill to give a bounty of 15 centavos per kilo on sugar exported until the sugar exportation reaches 25 per cent of the total production. The measure for an international loan of seven million pesos to be used by foreign insurance companies as guaranty on deposit has become a law.

Havana, Jan. 12.—The Spanish gunboat Algeria has captured off the coast of Cuba near Manzanillo, a fishing smack from Jamaica, having on board a cargo of war material, medicines and clothing.

JESUIT FATHERS.

Detroit, Jan. 12.—Important changes are about to be made in the personnel of the Jesuit fathers connected with Detroit colleges. Father J. R. Ross Winkle, S. J., goes to Chicago to become pastor of the church of the Holy Family, one of the largest churches in the country; Father P. F. Ross, S. J., goes to Omaha to be connected with the Creighton college in that city.

The New York Central is the first road in the combination from this point. At Buffalo it connects with the Lake Shore for Chicago, from which point the chain is carried on to Omaha by the Chicago & North-western, and from there the Union Pacific, the Oregon Short Line and the O. R. & N. Co. lets the line to Portland and Puget Sound. All these roads are Vanderbilt roads, and the total mileage is 13,420.

THE HARBOR MASTER.

Did Not Win His Case Against the Steamer Pak Ling.

In the police court yesterday was tried the case against Captain Allen, of the British steamer Pak Ling, who was requested by Harbor Master John Reid to accept his services in docking the ship on her arrival Wednesday from Portland, in charge of Pilot Reed, and was approaching the dock when accosted by the harbor master, who occupied his boat in the stream.

The captain refused to accept the services of the harbor master, and also declined to accept the assistance of the harbor master in mooring the ship to the dock. The city ordinance provides that the owner of a vessel who desires to have said vessel anchored or docked within the city limits shall request the assistance of the harbor master, who shall receive as compensation for docking and mooring a vessel the sum of $10, to be paid by the master of the vessel.

The defense in this case claimed that the ordinance only applied to the case of a vessel which had lain at anchor in the harbor and desired to move to some other station in the harbor or to some dock in the harbor, and that then the harbor master's assistance should be asked and he should receive the compensation. The court did not pass upon the question as to whether or not this ordinance applied to this case, but discharged the captain on the ground that the harbor master had not consulted with the city attorney prior to the time he made the complaint. The court stated that he was unable to determine whether or not the harbor master had endeavored to exceed the duties imposed upon him by the ordinance.

The position of the city attorney was that the ordinance applied to every vessel which came into the harbor and desired to be moored, to be docked, or moved from one dock to another; or from one mooring station to another; and that while it was the duty of the pilots to bring the ship to the dock, the harbor master's duties consisted in overseeing the fastening of the lines to the dock in order that the ship may not be damaged nor the dock damaged. He contended that it was discriminatory with the harbor master to either offer his assistance or not; that it was compulsory upon every master to request the harbor officer's assistance; that the harbor master's bondsmen are held responsible under the ordinance for any breakage of wharves or damage to vessels where the harbor master fails in his duty, and that like police regulations exist in every port of any consequence in the United States and foreign countries, and that the city council had the power under the charter to pass the ordinance.
