

White camellias have become very fashionable as boutonnières.

Mrs. M. B. Ford, Huddell's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation, and was finally cured by using DeWitt's Little Early Balm.

Some of the millinery marked "reduced" looks the part to perfection.

Prosperity comes quickest to the man whose liver is in good condition. DeWitt's Little Early Balm are famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, indigestion and all stomach and liver troubles.

If child stockings continue to grow away one block will come up to the knee.

Mrs. Mary Bird, Harrisburg, Pa., says, "My child is worth millions to me; yet I would have lost her or my crop had I not invested twenty-five cents in a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles.

The more whipped cream there is on the chocolate the more desirable it seems.

Miss Allie Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Balm, which healed the injury without leaving a scar.

The middle-aged woman looking at pretty things reveals a liking that she has not outgrown.

When a man is in trouble he discovers the real value of the woman he loves.

In a recent letter from Washington, D. C., to an old friend, Major G. A. Hoadley, for twenty years United States consul at Singapore, says: "While at Des Moines became acquainted with a physician known as Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I found excellent against rheumatism as well as against soreness of the throat and chest (giving me much easier breathing). I had a touch of pneumonia early this week, and two applications freely applied to the throat and chest relieved me of it at once. I would not be without it for anything." For sale by Charles Rogers, Druggist.

A telephone bell means sweetest music to the woman who is expecting a message from her sweetheart.

J. A. Perkins, of Antiquity, O., was for thirty years needlessly tortured by physicians for the cure of eczema. He was quickly cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Balm, the famous healing salve for piles and skin diseases.

The well-gowned woman is the one who does not wear bows and false tails that have no reason for existing.

Mr. Eliza Berry of this place, says he never had anything to do him so much good and give such quick relief from rheumatism as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He was bothered greatly with shooting pains from hip to knee until he used this liniment which affords prompt relief.

We pay for our successes all the way to work, we get some rebate on our failures.

Mrs. Stark, Pleasant Ridge, O., says: "After two doctors gave up my boy to die, I saved him from a group by using One Minute Cough Cure. It is the quick, set and most certain remedy for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles." For sale by Charles Rogers, Druggist.

It would be easier to whitewash Monday than the least corner of the soul of man.

An action is a mirror of the soul; a thought is a plain glass that takes no image.

Gravitation will fail unless we use our wings; we shall sink to hell unless we fly to heaven.

TOOK A SEVERE COLD AFTER THE BIG FIRE.

After the big fire in Cripple Creek, I took a very severe cold and tried many remedies without help; the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cold and cough left me, and in this high altitude it takes a mercurious cough remedy to do any good.

One world at a time, brother; if life is not troublesome enough, plague yourself about death.

Frank Sherwood was down town today, the first time since he had his trunks with cholera morbus. He says he drove thirty miles after he was taken, and never came so near dying in his life. After this when he goes out in the country he will take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him.

Gay plaids will be much used as the lining of not costumes.

It is easy to catch a cold and just as easy to get rid of it if you commence early to use One Minute Cough Cure. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia and all throat and lung troubles. It is pleasant to take, safe to use and sure to cure.

The man who is always chattering about being self-made never comes to praise his maker.

To secure an abundant growth of hair, use Hall's Hair Renewer, or, if possessing an abundance, it may be kept looking thickly by using the Renewer occasionally.

All sorts of Lenten clubs are now being organized.

CASTORIA. The earliest discovery of iron in this country was in western North Carolina, and the first manufacture of it was made in Virginia in 1619. The foundry was destroyed by the Indians in 1622.

The joys of housekeeping diminish perceptibly when the housekeeper has to wash the dishes.

GOLD DUST THE BEST WASHING POWDER

If a thousand animals met in a field to fight, humanity would be horrified. War is unobjectionable, however.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY ALWAYS PROVES EFFECTUAL.

There are no better medicines on the market than Chamberlain's. We have used the Cough Remedy when all others failed, and in every instance it proved effectual. Almost daily we hear the virtues of Chamberlain's remedies extolled by those who have used them.

Nature is evidently the battlefield of life; there is terrible fighting, but no sufficiently able observer to report it.

The lake loves not the tiger, but respects it faithfully; the philosopher loves not the world, but represents it truly.

Human nature was never weighed but once—"the heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked."

Eating is necessary. To the healthy, it is a pleasure; to the dyspeptic, a torture. The use of Ayer's Bile Beans, the weakest and most disordered stomach is restored to its natural condition, and food is once more partaken of with youthful relish and satisfaction.

Memorandum for a young doctor or theologian student. Patient hearts and faded wills are post-mortem indications.

The trick of humor is to speak in jest, to think and feel in earnest. This innocent mask turns out to be a mirror, and truth looks out not from behind, but reflected in front.

The pain that sometimes strikes a man at the most inopportune moment is due to indigestion. It may come in the midst of a dinner and make the feast a mockery. It is a reminder that he may not eat what he chooses, nor when he chooses. He is a slave to the weakness of his stomach. A man's health and strength depend upon what he gets out of his food.

Remove the obstruction by taking Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are a positive cure for constipation and its attendant ills—headaches, sour stomach, flatulence, biliousness and "heartburn." The "Pellets" are very gentle in their action. They simply assist nature. They give no violent wrench to the system. They cause no pain, nor griping.
