It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works, of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robe that disease of all dangerous consequences. It is especially prized by mothers for their children, as it never falls to effect a speedy cure, and because they have found that there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies, as it contains nothing Injurious.
