The Problem Is Giving the Authorities No Little Anxiety.

[Associated Press Dispatch.] Washington, July 2.-The authorities are now concerning themselves seriously with the problem of feeding the destitute population of Santiago as soon as it capitulates, as well as the Spanish prisoners of war who may surrender,

It has been extremely difficult, as shown by General Shafter's reports, to supply the American troops with what they need, and of occurse the diffifficulty will be increased enormously by this large addition of hungry mouths and moreover, it is said that when the news of the fall of Santiago sifts through the country a large part of the destitue population of the interior will make its way to that town to secure food.
