MEIER & FRANK CO PORTLAND OREGON.

Cohen, San Francisco; H. J. Green, L. C. Fredericks, Captain George Pope, J. W. Casey, A. H. Salaman, F. Kaufman, wife and family, Portland; F. W. Baxter, Mrs. Long, Dayton, are at the Occident.

If you have hides, wool, furs, rags, bottles, lead, brass, copper, socks, or any kind of junk for sale, ship it to R. M. Gaston, 235 Fourteenth street, Astoria, Oregon, or write him and he will call at your place and get it. He pays cash.

Every office and store should today display posters of the Farmers' Convention, it is Gray's River day. Posters can be had at Foard & Stokes store of Mr. Gus Hilderbrand. A little hard work by every one will make this the event of Astoria.

The wrecked steamers Shagboud and Gardwick were towed up to Portland yesterday by the Fannie. Both wrecks are full of water and the work of towing them will be slow. They will be beached in Portland and stripped of everything of value.

Everybody is talking Farmers' Convention. A traveling man here yesterday stated that the people of Portland were beginning to realize the magnitude of the proposition. It will be the greatest event of the kind ever held on the Pacific coast.

Harry Greene, freight solicitor of the Great Northern railway, and J. W. Casey, traveling passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, are in the city gathering up crumby treasures. They are a team; however, that soon make big fat leaves of crumbs.

Remember that the Weekly Astorian is published every Tuesday and Friday and mailed to subscribers on those days, thus enabling remote readers to obtain the full report of War News quickly. The Astorian is the only paper publishing full Associated Press dispatches—Subscribe for the Weekly.

For many years science has studied liquor. Result the whole world uses whiskey; it has proven the best stimulant and does not injure nerves and tissues like cocoa wines and other drugged compounds. And HARPER Whiskey is the ideal whiskey. Sold by Foard & Stokes Co., Astoria, Oregon.

The excursion of Congregational ministers will arrive at 11:15 today from Portland, where they have been in convention. They will proceed to Seaside, returning to Astoria at 4:30, when an opportunity will be given them to visit Astoria. The train, which consists of eight cars, will leave here at 6:15 this evening for Portland.

A communication from Theo. Bracker and A. Speckard was filed in the office of Auditor and Police Judge Nelson yesterday in which they claim that the shed attached to the east side of the city hall building projects two feet on their property. As they intend to build on the vacant lot adjoining they ask that the building be removed.

The polls will be opened in a few days for the casting of votes for the queen of the 1938 regatta. A small sum will be charged for each vote and every voter can vote as often as he pays for the privilege. Several of the merchants have agreed to give out tickets with purchases at their stores, but tickets will be on sale at the various conveniently located polling places.

Mr. Alfred Holman, assistant editor in chief of the Oregonian, who accompanied the Astorians to Walla Walla on their visit to the O. R. & N. experimental farm, is well known in Oregon, having been managing editor of the Oregonian some ten years ago. Recently he has been in business in San Francisco as a partner of Mr. J. P. Haloran, formerly editor of the Astorian. Mr. Holman's friends everywhere in the states of Washington and Oregon are glad to see him back.

A CHILD ENJOYS

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

FOR SALE—A four-months-old parrot; will make a fine talker. Inquire at Moulter's fruit stand, Bond street, between 9th and 10th.

The third government barge was loaded yesterday with cement from the Alexander Black. The cement is coming out in splendid order.

A regular pantomime of views depicting the life and history of Astoria, and souvenirs of the city and country at the Snoggrass gallery.

There were a few people in from the Lewis and Clark yesterday. Most of the farmers in that locality are busy with their hay crops.

Mr. C. H. McIsaac, who has rented the Hotel Gearhart this season, says the indications point to a prosperous season for all sea side resorts.

Why not use galvanized corrugated iron for your roof? It lasts a lifetime. Fishers Bros. have just received a carload. Prices within the reach of all.

The opera house should be well decorated for the Farmers' Congress with Clatsop county products. No pains should be spared to make the hall attractive.

A large number of people were in from Nehalem yesterday. They report some haying has been done, and all believed in the Farmers' Convention to be held next week.

All charges for the Farmers' Congress have been paid by the management and thus all the lectures and entertainments will be free during the two days and nights.

Superintendent Shields was busy yesterday with an assistant flushing the water mains throughout the city. Incidentally the streets received a good washing—in spots.

Commercial street is still blocked at Sixteenth street by the O'Brien house which is being moved to another location. The contractor expects to have it in its new place by Saturday evening.

Capt. John Pickernell, Mate Charles Guillaume and Mrs. Guillaume returned from the Sound yesterday. The captain reports that he leased his boat, the Mayflower, to parties on the Sound for several months.

There is every prospect of a lively season at the seaside resorts this coming month. Cottages are being taken and hotel accommodations reserved. Soon all will be life and bustle at the various outing places.

J. A. Bernstein, Harvey Mathews, Alex

In a Woman's Care

almost every article of wearing apparel will last longer than if looked after by a man.
Some women neglect their footwear. Shoes of fine appearance, rather than good quality, attract them.
But in buying shoes here it is impossible to make a mistake. The appearance and style is all that the most fastidious could desire, and the quality keeps pace with both.
Our prices are regarded as wonderfully low by wise buyers.

A WOMAN'S WAY OF BUYING SHOES.....

is a good way if she's of a common sense turn of mind. A smart woman can generally tell if a shoe fits her foot. This being true the shoe man who tries to delude the woman makes the blunder of his life and drives his trade to a store where reliable shoes are sold and perfect fitting is performed.
JOHN HAHN, Astoria, Ore.

Is Your LIFE.... INSURED???

Then your wife and children will not be dependent on a cold world. But it is equally your duty to look out for them while you are alive. It would be wrong for you to give your earnings to some storekeeper who charges more for your clothing, hats, and furnishings than Herman Wise sells as good, if not better goods.
