AROUND TOWN.

TUESDAY.

Nature forever puts a premium on reality. What is done for effect is seen to be done for effect; what is done for love is felt to be done for love—Emerson.

In the police court yesterday Ed Kelly was fined $5 for drunkenness.

The United States steamer Perry made a trip to Port Stevens yesterday.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grant died yesterday in Portland.

The attention of contractors and builders party of bicyclists made a trip to Seaside Sunday, returning in the evening.

Mrs. W. R. Scherer is over from Long Beach visiting her sister, Mrs. A. A. Douglas.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night a letter from Senator McPherson was read, stating that work on the quarantine station would soon begin.

Edward Waldron of Portland spent Monday with his aunt, Mrs. A. A. Douglas.

Born—At Vancouver, B. C., Monday, July 25, to the wife of W. E. McCormick, a daughter.

Mrs. J. A. Williams and son, Ole, of Vancouver, Wash., are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Redden.

Mr. J. H. Branson of Waco, Tex., who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Estes, returned home yesterday morning.

ers is called to the advertisement of A. G. Spexarth in today's Astorian, under the head of proposals wanted.

A number of passengers came down on the Gatzert yesterday and transferred to the A. & C. railroad for Clatsop Beach.

Mrs. Kerckhoff and Miss Kerckhoff, of Los Angeles, Cal., are visiting in the city as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tallant.

The moving of the O'Brien building near the Union depot was completed yesterday and it is now being rapidly placed in position.

E. M. Grimes, the genial proprietor of Grimes' new hotel at Seaside, was in Astoria today. Mr. Grimes says that the season is fully open.

The work of moving the shed that projects from the lot occupied by the city hall building was commenced yesterday by Contractor McPharlan.

The collier Mackinaw is expected off the river today to tow to San Francisco the Robertson log raft, which has been removed to Kinney's dock.

Toule salmon have made their appearance in the river, the fishermen delivering quite a number yesterday at the can-series. Their appearance in the river last season was at least a week earlier.

The baseball game played between the Astoria and Fort Stevens clubs at the Warrenton grounds Sunday resulted in a victory for the latter. The game was exciting throughout. The score was 21 to 5.

H. Hughes of H. Hughes & Co., salmon brokers, of San Francisco, is in the city calling on his old time friends among the cannerymen. Mr. Hughes says he is simply on a pleasure trip, as he has retired from active business.

An evening singer says: "Saturday a big run of Chinooks came into the river and the fishermen had about all they could do to keep them from going up the river." Why didn't they throw salt on their tails and catch them?

The firm of Nelson & Goodin have finished the grading on Eighth street and are now open to private contract for any kind of work in grading or excavating. Their address can be learned by consulting the Astoria's classified column.

The T. J. Potter, while on her way to Ilwaco with passengers for Long Beach got stuck at the head of Sand Island Saturday evening. She remained hard aground until 2 o'clock Sunday morning, when she got off with the high water.

The great council of the Improved Order of Redmen convenes in Portland today. The following delegates from this city left yesterday evening to be in attendance: W. C. A. Pohl, A. A. Cleveland, J. A. Hutchins, Frank Rogers, C. A. Mathews, and Lee Herring.

A verdict of accidental drowning was returned yesterday in the case of George Antonich, who was drowned near Llenewen's cannery Saturday evening. The funeral took place in the afternoon and the remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery.

Good whiskey is both doctor and tonic. Better looking than any doctor, better tasting than all medicines. For general family use, nothing equals whiskey, and HARPER WHISKEY is pre-eminently the family whiskey. Sold by Foard & Stokes Co., Astoria, Ore.

The whop yacht Upsilon took a party of pleasure seekers Sunday to the mouth of the river. The Upsilon was commanded by Captain Anderson and the party consisted of twelve young men. They proceeded as far as the whistling buoy, but as some of the party became seasick they put about there, arriving home late in the evening. While on the way back the whop fouled her mainsail on a trap line on Desdemona sands, tearing it badly.

Terry McKean gave a very successful dramatic recital at Warrenton Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies Free Reading Room society. This was Mr. McKean's second recital there this season, and shows very plainly his popularity in that community. His program consisted of Whitcomb Riley's "Knee Deep in June," "Old Fashioned Roses," Eugene Field's "Little Boy Blue," "Seen Things at Night," and his own character sketch, "A Bit of Nature."

The Bioscope on Commercial street is doing a good business, judging from the number of people who go to see it. It is in fact a first class show, at an astonishingly low price. A more realistic and life-like scene could not be imagined than the Black Diamond express traveling at full speed. Another scene well a girl comes in and buys a cent yeast great Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. Special features are introduced each night, and one may go night after night without getting tired of the show.

At Foard & Stokes' great emporium they have introduced a new wrinkle in modern storekeeping, which might be copied with much profit by others. When a girl comes in and buys a cent yeast cake, as so many do, and stops at the door on the way out to collect a pickle relish, a clerk is employed to sound a big gong. It is amusing to watch the effect of the alarm about the time the gentle puffer gets the pickle fairly in her mouth.

The revenue cutter Perry arrived in Sunday morning, 24 hours from Port

SHANAHAN BROTHERS,

The Only Store That Sells Cheap.

In a Woman's Care

almost every article of wearing apparel will last longer than if looked after by a man.

Some women neglect their footwear. Shoes of fine appearance, rather than good quality, attract them.

But in buying shoes here it is impossible to make a mistake. The appearance and style is all that the most fastidious could desire, and the quality keeps pace with both.

Our prices are regarded as wonderfully low by wise buyers.

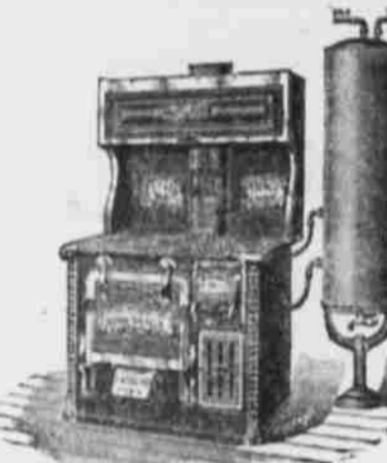

Petersen & Brown.

A WOMAN'S WAY OF BUYING SHOES.....

is a good way if she's of a common sense turn of mind. A smart woman can generally tell if a shoe fits her foot. This being true the shoe man who tries to delude the woman makes the blunder of his life and drives his trade to a store where reliable shoes are sold and perfect fitting is performed.
