All communications intended for publication should be directed to the editor. Business communications of all kinds and remittances must be addressed to "The Astorian."

The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be had on application to the business manager.

In spite of the denials made, it is still strongly maintained by those in a position to know that the reason why the lumber trade of this section of the lower Columbia river does not thrive is because of discriminating rates made against Astoria by the railroads. This discrimination may not appear in the printed or published tariff, but the Shoalwater bay and Gray's harbor lumbermen get an advantage in some direct or indirect way over the mouth of the Columbia. It is to be hoped the Progressive Association will not allow this subject to rest with the slight investigation so far made. Something is wrong, and it is believed a special committee of the Progressive Association, composed of the right kind of men, can discover the nigger in the wood pile.

There is little doubt that an extra session of the senate must be called to settle the treaty of peace with Spain. Partisanship is sure to run high, and the administration is likely to have trouble in composing the question of our future relations with Spain the best way. This is no time when a state so much interested as Oregon can afford to go with less than her constitutional representation in the senate. Governor Lord will make a serious mistake—perhaps the only one of his able administration—if he listens to the clamor of the politicians and fails to call an immediate extra session of the legislature. The commercial interests of Oregon are of too much importance to be subordinated to the plans of senatorial aspirants who demand time to get their several booms worked up and started. The people demand an extra session of the legislature and Governor Lord should call one.

The phenomenal growth of our manufacturing industries, both in supplying our own markets and those of other parts of the world, is illustrated by some figures just compiled by the treasury bureau of statistics regarding the imports and exports of manufactures of iron and steel. The exports of manufactures of iron and steel in the fiscal year 1898 were more than double those in any year prior to 1896, and 23 per cent greater than in 1897. On the other hand, the imports of the manufactures of iron and steel in 1898 were in value but one-half those of 1896. The exports from the United States of all articles classified as "manufactures of iron steel"' amounted in 1897 to $57,494,872, and in 1898 to $70,367,527. Meantime, the imports of manufactures of iron and steel which in 1896 were $25,338,103, in 1898 fell to $12,615,913. American manufacturers have since 1880 taken possession of five-sixths of that portion of the home market which was held by foreign manufacturers of iron and steel, and have at the same time increased their sales in foreign markets 400 per cent.

There will be a strong party in Cuba favoring its permanent retention as a colony of the United States. The men of affairs, the class on which the future prosperity of the island must rest, fear to have its control turned over to the Cubans. They know that the latter step would mean confiscation of property, the persecution of all suspected of favoring the Spanish cause during the three years of civil war, and a chronic state of political unrest, culminating in civil disturbance again. What Cuba needs is peace and quiet. Her industries are stagnant, her agricultural neglected. The loss of life and destruction of property has been so great that the island will relapse into a wilderness if protection be not assured to her people in resuming their occupations. It is doubtful if the people of the island are fitted to govern themselves. It is the chronic failing of the Spanish-American people that, defeated at the polls, they raise the standard of revolution and attempt to gain by force that which they failed to win under constitutional law. Under the American flag, peace would be assured. The people would abandon guerilla warfare to take up their interrupted industries. They will have a freedom which is new in their experience, and will learn some of the primary lessons needed by a self-governing people. The day will come when the destinies of Cuba can be safely entrusted to her people, but that is not the case at present.

BUSINESS BOOM IN MAWAII.

Times-Herald.

That trade will follow the flag wherever it is planted by American arms or diplomacy is already demonstrated by the marked awakening of commercial activity in Hawaii.

Advices from our new possessions in the Pacific indicate that the islands are experiencing a business boom as the result of annexation. The merchants of Honolulu are making extensive preparations for the increased trade that is confidently expected now that Hawaii is a part of our domain. The visit of the American commissioners, who are charged with the responsibility of recommending a form of government for the islands, together with the influx of capital and enterprise from the Pacific coast, cannot fail to have a stimulating effect upon those branches of productive activity which have been waiting anxiously for a final settlement of the annexation question.

Our sales of agricultural implements, animals, carriages, cotton, breadstuffs, provisions, iron and steel manufactures and other articles last year amounted to $4,622,581. This was an increase of nearly a million dollars over the total exports from this country in 1896. The heaviest increase was in breadstuffs and iron and steel manufactures. Our sales of the manufactures of iron and steel in 1897 amounted to $885,856. During the same year the total exports of Great Britain to Hawaii amounted to only $865,781, while Germany sold the Hawaiians only $192,982 worth of goods.

Under American control and development it is a conservative conjecture that our trade with Hawaii next year will be double the amount for the year that is now drawing to a close.

Simplicity is a cloak which often makes a lie appear true; it is often mistaken for honesty.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. BOGGS, Stumptowe, Gilmer Co., W. Va. A CLEVER TRICK.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back and weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to the liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents a bottle at Estes-Conn Drug Company.

It is a pretty sure sign that a man has been to church on Sunday if he whistles hymns instead of popular airs on Monday.

The Rev. W. B. Costly, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastorial duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by Charles Rogers, druggist.

There is a lot of moral backbone in a well-fitting gown.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by Charles Rogers, Druggist.

A Beautiful Present

In order to further introduce ELASTIC STARCH (Flat Iron Brand), the manufacturers, J. C. Hubinger Bros. Co., of Keokuk, Iowa, have decided to GIVE AWAY a beautiful present with each package of starch sold. These presents are in the form of Beautiful Pastel Pictures

They are 13x19 inches in size, and are entitled as follows:

Lilacs and Pansies. — Pansies and Marguerites.

Wild American Poppies. — Lilacs and Iris.

These rare pictures, four in number, by the renowned pastel artist, R. LeRoy, of New York, have been chosen from the very choicest subjects in his studio and are now offered for the first time to the public.

The pictures are accurately reproduced in all the colors used in the originals, and are pronounced by competent critics, works of art.

Pastel pictures are the correct thing for the home, nothing surpassing them in beauty, richness of color and artistic merit.

One of these pictures will be given away with each package of ELASTIC STARCH purchased of your grocer. It is the best laundry starch on the market, and is sold for 10 cents a package. Ask your grocer for this starch and get a beautiful picture.

All Grocers Keep Elastic Starch. Accept No Substitute.
