TODAY'S WEATHER.

Fair. AROUND TOWN. FRIDAY. Lover, daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother; in these six words lie what the human heart contains of the sweetest, the most ecstatic, the most sacred, the purest and the most effable—Maudslaw.

A. A. Schenck has returned from Portland. All the public school buildings are receiving needed repairs.

Municipal Judge Frank D. Hennessy, of Portland, is in the city. Merchants report collections better this month than at any time in the past year.

The steamer Harrison, which sailed for Tillamook yesterday, carried 40 passengers.

Ex-Pastor Wise returned yesterday to Knappa, where his family is spending a few weeks.

No eastern mail has reached Astoria for the past two days. The reason for this delay is not known.

Mrs. Duncan Stuart left yesterday morning for Tillamook on a visit to Mrs. Walter Hildebrandt.

A new residence for August Erickson will be built shortly on his lot near the McClure school house.

Inspectors Edwards and Fuller will arrive here September 19 for the purpose of inspecting steamboats.

Will Whelan, representing the Union Meat company, of Portland, was in the city yesterday.

An excursion will be given to Seaside Sunday by the A. & C. R. R. The fare for the round trip is 50 cents.

James Adams of Westport, fell from a tree Wednesday, while picking fruit, and sustained double fractures of both arms.

In the county clerk's office yesterday Charles Siverson, a native of Norway, declared his intention to become an American citizen.

The convent school, conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Names, will open Monday, September 5. The public schools will open September 25.

Mrs. William Washburn and Mrs. W. Jackson, both of Portland, are visiting Mrs. J. O. Hanthorn. They will probably remain for a week or ten days.

Many persons have left Astoria for the Willamette valley, where they will engage in hop-picking. There is a notable scarcity of help up the country.

The National City sailed yesterday for Coos Bay and west ports, carrying 20 white men, 6 Chinese and 4 tons of freight for Southern Oregon canneries.

A moonlight excursion will be given by the M. E. church on the steamer Miller, Friday evening, September 2. Friends of the church and the public generally are invited.

The plans of the Young's Bay bridge have been approved, as forwarded to the secretary of war, and no change in the same will be made so far as County Judge Gray is aware.

The West Shore Mills company has just received a large lot of fir cordwood from Stella, Wash., which they are offering at very low figures. See advertisement in another column.

County Clerk Wherry yesterday issued a marriage license to Rex A. Price and Emma Adams, both of Clatsop county. They were married last night at Warrenton by the Rev. Mr. Dunlap.

The lawn social to be held at the residence of Mrs. C. J. Trenchard will be continued Friday afternoon for the pleasure of the children. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Captain Nick Webber's son was severely bitten by a bulldog at Seaside Wednesday. The child was playing in the street when the dog jumped at him, sinking his teeth through the upper lip and nose. The injuries are quite painful.

good account of themselves in the games. The series will be played today and tomorrow. A banquet has been arranged for both teams at the Hotel Portland.

Ticket Agent Holmes, who has been in charge of the Astoria & Columbia River railroad's office at the depot, has accepted a position at Los Angeles, and will leave for the southern city today. He will be succeeded by Mr. Miller, an employee of the office.

Good Whiskey is both doctor and tonic. Better looking than many doctors, better tasting than all medicines. For general family use, nothing equals whiskey and HARPER Whiskey is pre-eminently the family whiskey. Sold by Ford & Stokes Co., Astoria, Or.

The price of Shoalwater bay oysters is rising steadily, owing to the demand in California markets. Oysters are now worth 25 cents a sack at the beds and 27.75 in this city. The price has gone up 17 cents in the past week, and bids fair to go still higher.

The lawn social given by the Ladies Guild of Grace church at the residence of Mrs. C. J. Trenchard last evening was a very successful affair. The large lawn was brilliantly lighted, with electricity and presented a beautiful appearance. Dancing was an enjoyable feature of the evening.

Since the visit of the county court to the Neacum lake settlers, desiring a bridge built across the creek, are opening up a road which leads to the Russian settlement, containing 25 or 30 families. As a reward for this enterprise the county court will probably assist in building the bridge at an early date.

Wm. Whelan, Mrs. S. F. Moore, Mrs. M. J. Hathway, L. Munson, Judge Frank D. Hennessy, J. H. Robert, Portland; L. S. Metcalf, Jr., St. Louis; N. N. Cranford, Goudestone, W. S. Scannell, San Francisco; Frank B. Goudey, U. S. S. Perry; Evan Thomas, ship Rockhurst, are guests at the Occident.

The moonlight excursion given by the "League" of the M. E. church this evening promises to be a very largely attended and delightful affair. All the young people should remember that the "Miller" leaves her dock this evening at 7:30 for the "Moonlight Excursion." Price for the trip, 35 cents.

The British ship Clackmannanshire, which arrived yesterday from Newcastle, has a cargo of 236 tons of coal. It has not yet been decided whether the coal will be discharged here or in Portland, and the vessel is now awaiting orders. She is consigned to Halford, Guthrie & Co., and will load grain.

Chief Hallock yesterday recovered a bicycle which had been misplaced by a Portland man during the regatta. It was at first thought the wheel had been stolen, but this supposition proved to be incorrect. A description of the bicycle and the Portland man during the regatta. It was at first thought the wheel had been stolen, but this supposition proved to be incorrect.

An agent of a big Portland cold-storage company is in the city. Rumor has it that he has offered 5 cents per pound for silverfish and steelheads delivered in Portland. Those of the packers who intend operating this fall will pay 2 or 2 1/2 cents. Indications point to a busy season, fish being plentiful and of excellent quality.

The weather report received by the Astorian Wednesday night was an omen. The forecast for Oregon, Washington and Idaho was "showers, except along the Oregon coast." As a usual thing showers are peculiar to the Oregon coast, and the forecast was remarkable in that rain was predicted in the interior and not on the coast. Mr. Paige probably knew his business, for the day here was bright.

The social given by the Ladies' Guild of Grace church at the residence of Mrs. C. J. Trenchard will be continued this evening to allow the young folks to participate. Many interesting features are promised, among others a chance to have their fortunes told. The children of the church, as well as all their young friends, will miss one of the most delightful entertainments of the summer season if they fail to attend.

Dr. Carmichael, U. S. A. Collector of Customs Fox and Captain Kilgore, of the revenue cutter Perry, who were appointed to select a site for the quarantine station which is to be erected here, met at the customs house yesterday for the purpose of organizing. The location will probably be selected the present week, and work on the station will commence immediately after a decision is reached by the board. The station will probably be located at Deadmen's sands or at Sand Island. There is another location at Scarborough Head, and this may be decided upon. Yesterday the board made an examination of the several

THE CREAMERY INDUSTRY.

The creamery industry in Oregon is no new experiment, although it may be said to be in its infancy. The first creameries in the state were built in Coos county in 1882, and they have proved very successful. Counties in the state of Washington nearly all have creameries which are operated beneficially and give splendid satisfaction in the counties bordering on the Columbia river, even though sparsely populated.

The Oregonian in speaking of the creameries in Coos county says: There are at present four co-operative and two custom creameries and cheese factories, Coos Bay creamery and cheese factory, co-operative, situated at the head of Coos river, Ten-Mile creamery and cheese factory, co-operative, situated on Ten-Mile lake, Bessey Bros.' creamery, situated on South Coos river; Coquille creamery, co-operative, situated on Coquille river, near Coquille city; Arago creamery and cheese factory, co-operative, situated at Arago, on the Coquille river; Molser cheese factory, situated at Gravel ford, on the north fork of the Coquille river; Redice skimming station, situated at Myrtle Point. There has been a lack of interest manifested in the employment of the dairy herds, except in the selection and improvement of the common cow. Lately the Jersey, Guernsey and Ayrshire have been introduced by progressive dairymen.

The following is the output of the creameries and dairies for the year 1937: Creameries, 345,240 pounds butter... 59,420 Creameries, 31,286 pounds cheese... 6,632 Dairies, 18,000 pounds butter... 2,800 Dairies, 130,100 pounds cheese... 30,415 Estimated value skimmed milk... 5,500 Estimated value of milk not mfg... 7,000 Total... $128,987

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

The Board of Equalization of Clatsop County, Oregon, will meet at the office of the County Clerk on Monday, September 26, and daily thereafter until October 2, to publicly examine the assessment roll for the year 1938, and correct all errors in valuation, description or quantity of lands, lots, or other property, and it shall be the duty of all persons interested to appear at that time and place for the purpose of correcting any errors that may appear in said assessment rolls.

GREAT DAIRYING COUNTRY.

Botanist Coville Favorably Impressed With Clatsop's Advantages. Mr. Frederick V. Coville, who has charge of the United States botany department in Washington, D. C., is in the city with A. J. Johnson, the well known botanist. Mr. Coville has studied nature for the past 20 years, and has been in the employ of the government for 10 years. His work is very extensive and quite interesting, and is of great importance to the agricultural interests of the country.

Mr. Coville speaks in the highest terms of the dairying and lumbering interests of Clatsop county. When seen at the Occident by an Astorian representative last night, he said: "Mr. Johnson and myself went on a short trip to the eastern portion of the county today, and I was really astonished at the growth of the vegetation. Tideland spruce, which is peculiar to the northwest coast, afforded an interesting study for me. Its rapidity of growth is surprising. I examined several trees six feet in diameter and they were not over 200 years old. The rings, when the trees were in their most flourishing condition, at the age of 50 years, showed a growth of from one to two inches a year. This is the most rapid growth which has ever come to my notice, and attests the wonderful qualities of the soil.

"In many parts of the county timber land is abandoned after the first cutting. From observations made today, I think the land in this section can reasonably be held for the second and third cuttings. "This is also a great dairying country," and has unsurpassed natural advantages. The climate resembles that of Great Brit-
