Contractor Nardis left for the Yamhill locks yesterday. Ice cream in any quantity at the Parlor during this month. The British ship Mosambique was towed up to Portland yesterday. The Columbia arrived yesterday morning from San Francisco. W. L. Robb and family returned to the city last night from Portland. The schooner North Bend, lumber laden for San Francisco, put to sea yesterday. The British ship Neville will leave up the river today in tow of the Ocklaha. Judge Bowley was a passenger for Portland on the train yesterday morning. The Mendell arrived down yesterday evening with rock barges for Fort Stevens. Wanted, man or lady to take charge of mail box for Astoria. Inquire at Parker house. The British bark Lord Kinnaird and Invercauld, wheat laden, put to sea yesterday. The Alliance, with freight and passengers from San Francisco and way ports, is due today. Eugene D. Hamblot, who has been in Portland for the past week, returned on last night's train. Hoefler's Bonbonniere is so very neat and clean and all candies made in plain view of the public. Saturday is Astoria day at the Portland exposition. Reduced rates have been made on the A. & C. R. R. The Bonbonniere's telephone number is 132, for fine fresh home made confection, H. R. Hoefler, proprietor. Handsome parlor organ for sale; terms very reasonable. Inquire, forenoon, of Mrs. W. W. Parker, 102 Bond street. Home made taffies fresh every day at the Parlor, 25 cents per pound. Positively no unhealthy ingredients used.

Judge J. M. Hughes returned yesterday from Portland, where he had gone on a short business trip. The British ship Rockhurst is on her way down the river in tow of the Ocklaha, and is due here today. The Canadian Pacific Company's steamship Athenian arrived in yesterday evening and proceeded up to Portland. The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Rescue hall. Everyone welcome. Mr. Gus Carruthers, who has been visiting on Puget sound for several weeks past, returned home last night. Fred Davidson, who is returning from Kurik, Alaska, was a passenger on the Elder for San Francisco yesterday. Charles Wise, who has been in the Klondike country for over a year, returned yesterday by way of Seattle. C. H. Cooper was high at the club alleys yesterday, with 62. Mrs. Stine scored 33, which stood for the women's record. In the county clerk's office yesterday a marriage license was issued to Charles H. Callender and Beatrice Pearl Holden. The Elder crossed out yesterday for San Francisco. She was loaded nearly to the guards with wheat and had a fair passenger list. The trial of James Christie for assault and battery on August Lunnears, resulted yesterday in a verdict of acquittal in the police court. For Sale, 100 tons of Roast coal; the finest house and steam coal ever brought to Astoria. Elmore, Sanborn Co., Telephone, Main 1-1. W. F. McGregor and J. A. Fastabend left on the telephone for Yamhill to look after their contract in building the locks at that place. The Norwegian steamer Prætor arrived in yesterday from Høga, in ballast, and anchored in the harbor. It will leave up for Portland today. A double suite of rooms for three or four gentlemen or a married couple, with or without board; also light and pleasant single rooms in "The Rucker House." Try the new Bonbonniere, Tenth and Commercial streets, for candies made of the purest and best materials. The new goods being made this week are very fine. W. F. Snodgrass, Astoria's leading photographer, has purchased the Crow gallery and will hereafter be found located in the rooms formerly known as the Crow gallery.

It is reported that several marriages of prominent young people will take place within the next two months. One of the weddings is fixed for the last week in October. It is said. Zambloch had a crowded house at Fisher's last night, and the performance was excellent throughout. The wonder-working of this man are marvellous, and the audience was kept deeply interested. The popularity of the merchant's lunch served by Mr. George Bartley at the National is growing daily, and many business men can be found there every day for their midday meal. The lunches set by Mr. Bartley are the finest in the city. The British bark Cambrian Queen, Captain Lewis, 34 days from Acapulco, in ballast, arrived in yesterday. The Cambrian Queen met with head winds on the passage, which was otherwise devoid of interest. She comes here chartered and will leave up for Portland at once. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Andrews have returned from a three weeks' trip in the east. While away they visited the Omaha exposition. The Oregon exhibit, Mr. Andrews says, is a most creditable one, the big log from this county attracting great attention. Privates Zeigler and Abercrombie were officially elected ensigns of the second division, Oregon naval battalion last evening. P. C. Upshur was appointed boatswain, first class, and J. R. Huntington, second class, Hayes Easterbrook, quartermaster, Private Rice, quartermaster, and Private Jones coxswain. The bill providing for the protection of the sturgeon industry passed the house yesterday. The measure was introduced by Representative Young and affords protection to an industry that has assumed great proportions within the past year. Such a law has been needed for a long time past, and its passage is opportune. The dangers of civilization are ever worry and crime. We need a vitalizing power to sustain us. Learned men and experience point to pure whiskey. We do. Chained conditions bring fresh needs. And THIS WHISKEY IS HARRIS. Sold by Ford & Stokes Co., Astoria, Oregon. Mrs. L. M. Smith, teacher of piano and organ, instrumental and vocal music. Special reductions made for classes of from five to ten in number. Mrs. Smith guarantees satisfaction through both primary and most advanced studies. For further particulars call at her rooms, 202 Bond street. The tow boat Queen brought down the cement yesterday for the Young's bay bridge. The cement will be used in building the center pier of the bridge, which will be completed about the latter part of the month. The draw now being constructed at Minneapolis will arrive soon after. There is nothing now to hinder the work being completed in a short time. S. Schmidt, the fish packer of Portland, who is in the city, says he will at once commence the erection of ice-houses on the site of the old Hume cannery, purchased by him a few days ago. As soon as matters can be arranged work will commence. All salmon packed by Mr. Schmidt will be shipped from this city next season. At the meeting yesterday of the Red Cross society a letter was read from the state association asking that Major Goddard in charge of the Oregon recruits at San Francisco, be asked for a supply of dried fruits to be shipped on the first transport to Manila for the Oregon volunteers. The society responded by a donation of $15 worth, to be sent immediately. Sam Olsen, a Washington trapper, was arrested yesterday by Constable Wickman for fishing during the close season. Olsen was found fishing by Commissioner McGuire soon after the spring season closed, but the warrant for his arrest could not be served until yesterday. In the justice court yesterday evening the case was dismissed on motion of the acting prosecuting attorney. Several football enthusiasts are endeavoring to organize a team here to play the Port Stevens team within a week or two. It was hoped by the men at the foot that the match could be arranged for the coming Saturday, but the local men have had no practice and do not feel like going into a game just yet. There are eleven excellent players here, and they could hold their own with any team in the state. The latest A. F. C. bulletin shows that F. Goodell is in the lead in the contest for the Herman Wise medal. He is a class B man, with two wins handicap, and has an average of 13 for 13 games. Albert F. Furee held the lead a week ago, but a streak of hard luck cut his average down to slightly less than 40 pins. L. R. Burroughs has an average of slightly over 40 for 23 games, bowling from scratch in the women's contest. Mrs. Normie Hill is high, with an average of about 20. The first month's bowling ends October 20, and there will be a lively fight for first place between now and then. "James Reilly" said City Attorney Allen in the police court yesterday, "stand up. You are accused in this complaint with being drunk." "Are you guilty or not guilty?" the prisoner, who was a middle-aged man, fairly well dressed, and appeared to be unused to such a predicament, replied: "I suppose I'm guilty, sir." "I've been sick for three or four days, but I suppose I must have been drunk last night or the officer wouldn't arrest me." "Oh, did you say," persisted Attorney Allen, "five dollars." "Yes, sir, in honor, and Reilly, who had not yet recovered from the effects of his debauch, staggered back to his cell. The preliminary examination of Edward Geddes, on a charge of having threatened to kill R. M. Wooden, was held before Justice Hughes yesterday. The evidence against the accused was not strong, the examination failing to establish the charge that he had posted a threatening letter on the fence of Mr. Wooden. After the trial, however, Geddes admitted having done so. Mr. Wooden stated that his only object in issuing the arrest of Geddes was to protect himself and his son from the accused, who had signified his intention of shooting them. He was not desirous of securing his conviction, but rather of protecting his family. The acting prosecutor moved that the case be dismissed. Before he was given his liberty Geddes was given a sound lecture, and it is quite likely he will not again give Mr. Wooden any trouble. He is only 20 years of age, but stands six feet in height. One of the toughest characters ever confined in the county jail was liberated yesterday, after having served a sentence of six months. He gives the name of George Smith, and hails from San Francisco. At the time of the republican state convention in Astoria he was arrested for stealing a gold watch from a delegate to the convention, the evidence being so clear that he was promptly convicted in the justice court. Smith was made a truant soon after being confined, and aroused but little suspicion on the part of Jailer Binder. A short time ago he made an attempt to break jail by breaking the lock leading from the jail to the corridor. Fortunately, before the prisoners had time to escape, Jailer Binder discovered the broken lock. Smith was placed in a cell after a struggle in which he tried to chew the jailer's finger off, and remained there till his release yesterday. Jailer Binder says Smith is an ex-convict as he is an expert in doing fancy and artistic work. He has made several fancy articles and ornaments while in jail. After his release he left for Portland. Miss Beatrice Pearl Holden and Mr. Charles H. Callender were married yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Marcotte. The residence had been artistically decorated with cut flowers, and the parlor in which the ceremony was held was a beautiful appearance. The bride was attired in white organdie, inserted and decorated with white ribbons. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Frances Holden, the bridesmaid, wore a charming dress of blue green organdie, and carried a bouquet of carnations. Mr. Will E. Tallant acted as groomsmen, and Mr. E. C. Holden presented the bride. The ceremony was witnessed by many of the friends of the contracting parties. The house decorations were arranged by the Misses Tallant, Miss Upshur and Miss Heilborn. The bride is one of the most beautiful and popular young women in Astoria, and has been prominent in society circles for several seasons. She has a charming voice and her singing in local entertainments has received much praise. The groom is a prominent young business man of the city, and has large lumbering interests at Knappa. Mr. and Mrs. Callender left on last night's train for a trip to Puget sound and first to Harbor Union, after which they will return to Knappa, their future home. CANNERYMEN DISCLAIM OPPOSITION TO FISH BILL. So informed the Progressive Commercial Association yesterday at the Special Meeting of That Body. At the called meeting of the Progressive Commercial Association yesterday a letter was read, signed by a number of prominent cannerymen, denying the report that there was opposition among them to the passage of the fish bill. The letter stated that, so far from opposing the passage of the bill, the cannerymen were anxious for its passage, and found no fault with the measure, excepting its provision relating to the close season, which they were willing to waive in the interest of its passage. Mr. W. H. Barker, of the Eureka & Epure Company, was present, and vehemently objected to being placed in the position of fighting the fish bill, or contributing to any lobby to influence its defeat. After some discussion Mr. S. E. Gordon moved that a telegram be sent to the Clatsop delegation notifying them that the cannerymen favored the fish bill and desired its immediate

| Men's chocolate color melton | 10 00 8 00   |
- And we have others.
- ### ODD SUITS
- We have about 30 men's suits, mostly small sizes and light colors, worth from $10 to $15, but you can afford to keep one for next spring, or even wear one now for everyday use, at the ridiculous price of $4.50 per suit; nothing the matter with them except they are small sizes; that's where the small man gets in.
- ### SUNDRIES
- All Men's 50 cent ties now 35 cents
  - All Men's 25 cent ties now 15 cents
  - All Men's 50 cent socks now 35 cents
  - All Men's 25 cent socks now 15 cents
  - All Men's 15 cent socks now 10 cents
  - All Men's 10 cent socks now 5 cents
- ### RUBBER MACKINTOSHES
- We have only about three dozen men's Mackintoshes left, but the price will reduce them to 25c; rather a cold statement, but these are hot times.
- Trunks, Valises, Shoes, Blankets, in fact everything in our store has got moving prices on and they will move beyond question; we are not going to pay freight to Portland on our stock if prices can help it.
