BRUTAL FIGHT AT PATERSON

George McFadden Punished Larry Becker So Seriously That He May Die.

THE LATTER WAS HELPLESS

Frightfully Beaten About the Face-Mysterious Billy Smith Bests Joe Wolcott in a Fast Fight.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.--George McFadden and Larry Becker, lightweights, fought at the Excelsion club rooms, Paterson, N. J., last night and as a result Becker may dis.

Fifteen hundred people witnessed the exhibition. The referee stopped the fight In the seventeenth round and gave it to McFadden.

Becker dropped like a log the moment the decision was given and was carried to his dressingroom while McFadden quickly dressed and left the club house. He could not be found when the police searched for him later.

Bocker was removed to the general hospital at Paterson at midnight. The men had weighed in at 128 pounds each. Becker, who acted on the aggressive for the first three rounds, showed a remarkable aptitude for hitting and getting away. He was applauded again and again, while McFadden only smiled in a sardonic way and bided his time. The battle waged fast and furlous up to the ninth round and then it was noticed that Becker had weakened

In the eleventh round McFadden began rushing. He kept Becker on the defensive throughout the round.

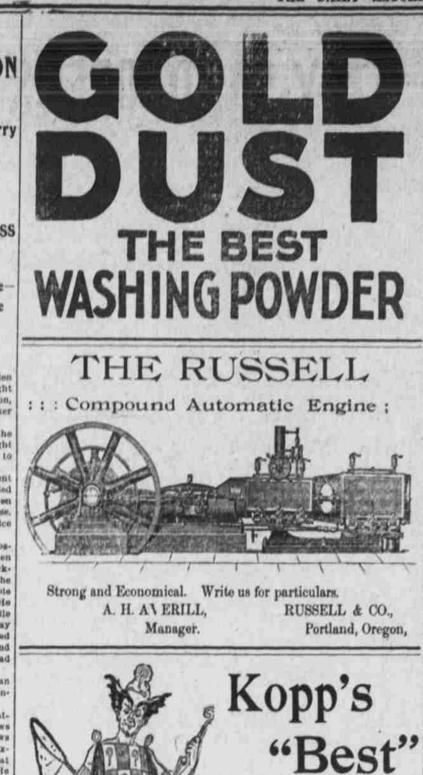

Becker did little after that but at-tempted to shield his face from the blows of McFadden. The latter rained blows on Becker's face and body in the sixteenth round and the bell was all that saved the latter from defeat then. He had to be assisted to his corner.

When time was called, Becker staggered to his foot. McFadden went at him hammer and tongs and Becker was too weak to resist. Hood rained down his face and filled his eyes.

McFadden had aimed a smashing blow which was intended to hit Becker on the point of the chin and prove a knock-out blow, when Referee Howard rushed between them and threw up MoFadden's arm. At the same time he announced McFadden the vigtor,

Dr. Harris, who was called to see Beck er before he was removed from the club rooms, said his condition was very serious. The spectators scattered and not a witness of the bout except his seconds romained in the club room 10 after the referee's decision.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 .- A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: Secretary Long has cabled orders to Rear Admiral Dewey to send the cruiser Raloigh to the United States. No vegas will be assigned to relieve the Raleigh, It being the opinion of the officials that with the addition of the two battleships and the gunboat Yorktown Rear Admiral Dewey will have an ample force at his disposai.

This order is significant as indicating the bellef of the authorities that there is no danger of trouble with Germany over the Philippines.

On account of the Raleigh's small steaming radius it will be impossible for her to cross the Pacific and she will return to the United States via the Mediterranean, probably arriving at New York some time during February. She will pass the gunboat Helena, which is now at dibraiter on her way to the Philip-
